Mr. CURRAN. Mr. Speaker, the answer is that if the district board advises against the issuance of a new license there is no right of appeal.

Mr. JIROLANIO. In other words, Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is saying, no.

Mr. CURRAN. Mr. Speaker, I am saying that if the district board advises the state board against the issuance of a new license there is no right of appeal.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the debate that took place between the minority and the gentleman from Delaware, never have I heard an acknowledgment of the real facts and issues. In his statement, the gentleman from Delaware, said that his Committee did this and did that, which bears out the statement I made that the members of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board were not consulted. Then he went on and said what the program of the Republican party was, what their pledge was, what they would do with the liquor laws to bring about a better condition. I wonder if the program of the Republican party said they were going to raise the license fees of all retail licensees in the state of Pennsylvania? I would like to know from him and the Republican party whether they had reason to believe that the laws, at least with reference to the license fees, should remain as is? I wonder whether or not the promise he is talking about is the same kind of a promise that was made during the campaign as to our relief rolls which are gradually increasing more and more? It seems to me and it appears from the statement of the gentleman from Delaware that he, together with several other persons, wrote into the act we are now considering, whatever they saw fit, so much so that in the beginning when this bill was being considered the members of the minority party were not even invited by the Chairman of the Committee to attend the meetings. I ask you whether or not that is the principle upon which the state of Pennsylvania should have laws enacted? I say to the gentleman from Delaware that he certainly is not representing the people of the state of Pennsylvania, he is representing himself from a selfish viewpoint and is not considerate of the rights of the people of the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Curran.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CURRAN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Curran a few moments ago in his address before the House made this statement: He said that a man who had been cited before the board and who was about to have his license revoked, when he made an appeal from the decision of the board would have eight, ten or twelve months time in which to keep his place open pending that appeal. Is that the statemen the gentleman made?

Mr. CURRAN. Mr. Speaker, no, certainly not.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, then what did the gentleman say?

Mr. CURRAN. Mr. Speaker, I said there were incidents called to the attention of our Committee, particular incidents that arose in Philadelphia where the Liquor Control Board after a hearing revoked a license, the licensee appealed to the court, and it would take four, six or eight months for the determination of that appeal, during all of which time the licensee's establishment remained open.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, to the knowledge of the gentleman as a member that Committee, and sponsor of House Bill No. 1125, how many instances does he know of where an appeal has taken eight, ten or twelve months for determination?

Mr. CURRAN. Mr. Speaker, I do not know of any particular instance. I did not cite any instances. I simply stated that evidence was produced before our Committee that there had been many such instances, particularly in the city of Philadelphia.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in an address before the House the sponsor of this bill stated that it takes between eight and ten months before an appeal to be determined by the courts, then he said there might be a few instances which were brought before the Committee, and upon further interrogation he said there were many instances, and yet, as a member of this House, who is very vitally interested in this piece of legislation, he knows no particular instance.

I want to submit to the membership of this House that to my knowledge in Philadelphia at the present time, and if Mr. Curran were acquainted with the act of 1937 he would know, that in order to make an appeal valid after the Liquor Control Board has rejected a license, the appeal must be made within so many days, and after the appeal is made to the court, I of my own knowledge, have never known the court to dilly dally around with a man's license or hold him in jeopardy for eight or ten months.

Members of the House, I think the sponsor of this bill has made a very weak argument against the amendments offered by the gentleman from Allegheny. The gentleman from Allegheny speaks to the House and says, "I want you to adopt my amendment concerning this five hundred dollars." The sponsor of the bill answers very weakly and the fact remains that the sponsor of the bill does not know the act of 1937. The sponsor of the bill admits that he knows of no specific instance wherein an appeal has been lying in the court for from eight to ten months. I submit to the membership of this House that this bill is not sponsored by interests that are desirous of effective liquor enforcement in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. If the Republican membership, and I know there are some on the other side of this chamber who do not believe that House Bill No. 1125 is as Mr. Curran has pointed out, because in his entire address he did not prove his statement, if they don't want a bill sponsored by interests that are against liquor in Pennsylvania, are not for stricter enforcement—I am only sorry I did not ask the gentleman from Delaware whether the Anti-Saloon League had any interest in drafting this piece of legislation—I say to those Republican members it is their duty, irrespective of what has happened, to tell their constituents in very plain language that although they do not drink themselves, they were in favor of modification of this prohibition racket. I say to them if they are sincerely of the same opinion this afternoon, they will vote to support the amendments of the gentleman from Allegheny.

THE SPEAKER (Ellwood J. Turner) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Greene, Mr. Furman.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Messrs. HOMER S. BROWN and SKALE. Mr. Speaker, we desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2), page 7, lines 14 to 25, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets all of said lines

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible to have a roll call on this first amendment and then dispense with the roll call on the balance of the amendments. I want to conserve the time of the House, but I do want to get a roll call on one of these amendments?

The SPEAKER. The roll will be called.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Homer S. Brown and Mr. Westrick.

Messrs. Baker, Mihm and Skale asked for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section was read as follows:

Section 2 Section two hundred two of said act as last amended by the act approved the sixteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1762) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 202 General Power to Make Regulations The board may from time to time make such regulations not inconsistent with this act as it may deem necessary for the efficient administration of this act The board shall cause such regulations to be published and disseminated through the Commonwealth in such manner as it shall deem necessary and advisable Such regulations adopted by the board shall have the same force as if they formed a part of this act

Whenever it is provided in this act that any act matter or thing may be done if permitted or authorized by the regulations or may be done in accordance with the regulations or as provided by the regulations prescribed by the board under this act the board subject to the provisions of this act shall have the power to prescribe regulations respecting such act matter or thing

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Messrs. HOMER S. BROWN and SKALE. Mr. Speaker, we desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 202), page 8, lines 7, 8 and 9, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the words "Such regulations adopted by" in line 7, and all of lines 8 and 9

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 202), page 8, line 10, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the light-faced bracket before the word "Whenever"

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 202), page 8, line 16, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the light-faced bracket after the word "thing"

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 2), page 4, line 14, by inserting after the word "activity" the following: "social or other"

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 2), page 5, line 2, by inserting after the word "records" the following: "of its membership and its licensed business"

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 2), page 4, line 14 by inserting after the word "primary" the following: "social or other"

Such regulations shall be uniform, reasonable and consistent with this act and shall be mailed to all affected licensees and permittees and others who may request the same and otherwise published and disseminated as the board sees fit. Such regulations shall not become effective until ten days after issuance. Where regulations are made affecting licensees, such regulations shall be limited strictly to the conduct of the licensed business. The board's power shall be limited to the provisions of this act and the regulations lawfully issued thereunder on subjects permitted to be regulated by the board."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The third section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 3 Section two hundred three of said act as last amended by the act approved the sixteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1762) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 204), page 14, lines 1 to 18, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets all of said lines

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 204), page 10, lines 19 to 29 by striking out with heavy-face brackets the following: beginning with the words "from among nominees" in line 19 and all of lines 20 to 29

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 204), page 11, lines 1 to 21 by striking out with heavy-face brackets the following: all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof: "by the Liquor Control Board. There shall be one man from each of the two major political parties"

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend sec. 4 (sec. 204), page 10, lines 25 and 26 by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the following: "The Judge of the Court of Common Pleas Senior in Commission" and inserting in lieu thereof "Board of Judges"

Amend sec. 4 (sec. 204), page 11, line 1, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the word "classes" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "class"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. Speaker, I desire a separate vote on the amendments I offered.

The SPEAKER. The question will be divided.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, the amendment I offered related to one man from each major political party on the district board, and that is the only amendment I offered to the section.

The SPEAKER. A division of the amendments having been requested, the Chair will lay before the House the amendments offered by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Skale, to Section 4.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House, the amendment offered by the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Jirolanio.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this amendment only has to do with the district boards, providing for the appointment of one man from each political party. This amendment I am asking the members of the House to vote for. In my opinion it is taking politics out of the Liquor Control Board.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Jirolanio and Mr. Hess and were as follows:

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the amendments offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rosenfeld.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. Speaker, I am offering these amendments because of the reluctance of Judge McDevitt and Judge Davis to make the appointment of persons in Philadelphia. In order to keep this thing out of politics the proper thing to do would be to place this power in the Board of Judges.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The fifth section was read as follows:

Section 5 Section three hundred five of said act as last amended by the act approved the sixteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1762) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 305 Sales by Pennsylvania Liquor Stores Every Pennsylvania Liquor Store shall keep in stock for sale such classes varieties and brands of liquor and alcohol as the board shall prescribe If any person shall desire to purchase any class variety or brand of liquor or alcohol which any such store does not have in stock it shall be the duty of such store immediately to order the same upon the payment of a reasonable deposit by the purchaser in such proportion of the approximate cost of the order as shall be prescribed by the regulations of the board The customer shall be notified immediately upon the arrival of the goods

Unless the customer pays for and accepts delivery of any such special order within five days after notice of arrival the store may place it in stock for general sale and the customer's deposit shall be forfeited

Every Pennsylvania Liquor Store shall sell liquors at wholesale to hotels restaurants clubs and railroad pullman and steamship companies licensed under this act and under the regulations of the board to pharmacists duly licensed and registered under the laws of the Commonwealth and to manufacturing pharmacists and to reputable hospitals approved by the board of chemists The board may sell to registered pharmacists only such liquors as conform to the Pharmacopoeia of the United States the National Formulary or the American Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia All other sales by such stores shall be at retail No liquor shall be sold except for cash except that the board may by regulation authorize the acceptance of checks for liquor sold at wholesale

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Would it be possible for the amendments to show of record if the sponsor should withdraw the remainder of the amendments?

The SPEAKER. The Chair might state if the gentleman feels it will conserve time, he might, preliminary to his withdrawal, state what the amendments do and that statement would be of record.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that we do want to conserve time and we have had sufficient knowledge and notice that we are not getting anywhere, I wish to withdraw all of the amendments to House Bill No. 1125 that have not been acted upon, except the amendment to Section nine on page twenty-six.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman desires we can vote on them all at one time, and that would appear in the record.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, that is all right, but I wouldn't even ask for that. I will withdraw all of them except the one amendment to Section nine on page twenty-six which is at the top of the last sheet of amendments. I will withdraw all the other amendments.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny withdraws all of his amendments except those that pertain to Section nine.

The ninth section was read as follows:

Section 9 Section four hundred seven of said act as last amended by the act approved the sixteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1762) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 407 License fees (a) License fees for hotel and restaurant liquor licenses shall be graduated according to population of the municipality as determined by the last preceding decennial census of the United States in which the hotel or restaurant is located as follows

(1) In municipalities having a population of less than fifteen hundred inhabitants [one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00)] one hundred and eighty dollars ($180.00)

(2) In those having a population of fifteen hundred and more but less than ten thousand inhabitants [two hundred dollars ($200.00)] two hundred and forty dollars ($240.00)

(3) In those having a population of ten thousand and more but less than fifty thousand inhabitants [three hundred dollars ($300.00)] three hundred and sixty dollars ($360.00)

(4) In those having a population of fifty thousand or more but less than one hundred thousand inhabitants [four hundred dollars ($400.00)] four hundred and eighty dollars ($480.00)

(5) In those having a population of one hundred thousand and more but less than one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants [five hundred dollars ($500.00)] six hundred dollars ($600.00)

(6) In those having a population of one hundred fifty thousand and more inhabitants [six hundred dollars ($600.00)] seven hundred and twenty dollars ($720.00)

(b) Every applicant for a club liquor license shall pay to the board a license fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00) except clubs which cater to groups of non-members either privately or for functions in which case the board may issue a catering license and the license fee shall be the same as for hotels and restaurants located in the same municipality and the board shall by its rules and regulations define what constitutes catering under this clause The license fees fixed by this section shall be paid before the license or renewal is issued

(c) All license fees authorized under this section shall be collected by the board for the use of the municipalities or townships in which such fees were collected except the following amounts from each license as follows under paragraphs (a) (1) thirty dollars ($30.00) (a) (2) forty dollars ($40.00) (a) (3) sixty dollars ($60.00) (a) (4) eighty dollars ($80.00) (a) (5) one hundred dollars ($100.00) (a) (6) one hundred twenty dollars ($120.00) and (b) fifty dollars ($50.00) which amounts shall be paid into the State Stores Fund to be used for the purposes for which such fund is by law appropriated and to reimburse the Commonwealth for the cost and expense of operating district boards and for the payment of the expenses of additional enforcement

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Messrs. HOMER S. BROWN and SKALE. Mr. Speaker, we desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 9 (sec. 407), page 26, lines 18 and 19, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the words: "one hundred dollars ($100.00)" and insert in lieu thereof "fifty dollars ($50.00)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, what this amendment actually does is to provide that the licenses of clubs will remain as they are now in the law, namely, fifty dollars.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe that the purpose of the sponsor of this amendment as to license fees for clubs, is to restrict one-man clubs. However, I believe that this is obviously an improper approach to the regulation of one-man clubs. If we desire to set the license fees for one man clubs and for them to continue as they have in the past, then I say one hundred dollars is not enough, because they are in business competition with licensees who pay a much larger license. However, if the intent is to increase the license fees for legitimate clubs who are not competitors with other licensees paying a larger license, then, obviously we are making the wrong approach to that question. The right solution and the only solution of the question of one-man clubs is not to increase the fee, which a one-man club is very much more capable of absorbing than a legitimate club, but the obvious solution of the problem is proper enforcement, restriction, regulation and denial of licenses to clubs which are proven to be one-man operated.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Malloy and Mr. Skale.

Messrs. Baker, Williams and Malloy asked for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

The tenth section was read and agreed to as follows:

Section 10 Section four hundred eight of said act as last amended by the act approved the sixteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1762) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 408 Licenses Not Assignable Transfers (a) Licenses issued under this act may not be assigned The board is hereby authorized to transfer any license from one person to another or from one place to another within the same municipality or both as the board may determine but no transfers shall be made to a person who would not have been eligible to receive the license originally nor for the transaction of business at a place for which the license could not originally have been issued lawfully [Upon any refusal to grant a transfer the person aggrieved shall have the right to appeal to the court of quarter sessions in the same manner as herein provided for appeals from refusals to grant licenses The action of the court of quarter sessions shall be final]

(b) Every applicant for a transfer of a license shall file a written application with the board together with a filing fee of twenty dollars at such time as the board shall fix in its regulations and shall also file an approved bond as required on original applications for licenses Whenever any license is transferred no license or other fees shall be required from the person to whom such transfer is made for the balance of the then current license year

(c) In the event that any person to whom a license shall have been issued under the provisions of this act shall become insolvent make an assignment for the benefit of creditors become a bankrupt by either voluntary or involuntary action the license of such person shall immediately terminate and be cancelled without any action on the part of the board and there shall be no refund made or credit given for the unused portion of the license fee for the remainder of the license year for which said license was granted Thereafter no license shall be issued by the board for the premises wherein said license was conducted to any assignee committee trustee receiver or successor of such licensee until a hearing has been held by the district board as in the case of a new application for license and the board shall have received the recommendation of the district board In the case of death of a licensee the board after recommendation by the district board may transfer the license to the surviving spouse or personal representative or to a person designated by such representative In all such cases the board shall have the sole and final discretion as to the propriety of the issuance or transfer of the license for such premises and as to the time it shall issue and the period for which it shall be issued after considering the recommendation of the board and shall have the further power to exact conditions under which said license shall be conducted

The eleventh section was read as follows:

Section 11 Section four hundred nine of said act as last amended by the act approved the sixteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1762) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 409 License Year Renewal of Licenses (a) The board shall by regulation divide the State into convenient [license] districts [and shall hold hearings on applications for licenses and renewals thereof as it deems necessary at a convenient place or places in each of said districts at such times as it shall fix by regulation for the purpose of hearing testimony for and against applications for new licenses and renewals thereof The board may provide for the holding of such hearings by examiners learned in the law to be appointed by the Governor who shall not be subject to the civil service provisions of this act Such examiners shall make report to the board in each case with their recommendations] for the purpose of fixing the expiration dates of licenses The board shall by regulation fix the license year for each separate district so that the expiration dates shall be uniform in each of the several districts but staggered as to the State

(b) All applications for renewal of licenses shall be filed at least sixty days before the expiration date of same and not thereafter Unless [the board shall have given ten days' previous notice of] objection to the renewal of his license based upon violation by the licensee or his servants agents or employes of any of the laws of the Commonwealth or regulations of the board relating to the manufacture transportation use storage importation possession or sale of liquors alcohol or malt or brewed beverages or the conduct of a licensed establishment or unless the applicant has by his own act become a person of ill repute or unless the premises do not meet the requirements of this act and the regulations of the board the license of a licenesee shall be renewed when the applicant shall file with the board a new approved bond and shall pay the requisite application fee and license fee specified in this act

(c) In cases where a licensee or his servants agents or employes are arrested charged with violating any of the laws of this Commonwealth relating to liquor alcohol or malt or brewed beverages and where the board has on file in such cases reports of its enforcement officers or investigators or from other sources that a licensee or his servants agents or employes have violated any of the aforementioned laws and a proceeding to revoke such licensee's license is or is about to be instituted and such arrest occurs or report of violations is received or revocation proceeding instituted or about to be instituted during the time a renewal application of such licensee is pending before the board the board shall not renew the license [notwithstanding such alleged violations but such renewal license may be revoked by the board in the manner hereinafter provided for revocation of licenses if and when the licensee or any of his servants agents or employes are convicted of or plead guilty to violations under the previous license as aforesaid or if and when such previous license is for any reason revoked] unless and until the pending proceeding is dismissed or unless and until an appeal has been taken from the action of the board in refusing to renew such license and a bond check or cash for a supersedeas has been filed or deposited as hereinbefore provided In the event an appeal is filed from the board's refusal to renew the license and by reason of such appeal the license is renewed such renewal license may if the Court dismisses such appeal be suspended or revoked by the board in the manner hereinafter provided for suspension or revocation of license if and when the licensee or any of his servants agents or employes are convicted of or plead guilty to violations under the previous license as aforesaid or if and when such previous license is for any reason suspended or a penalty equivalent to a suspension is imposed thereon or such previous license is revoked

In the event such renewal license is revoked by the board neither the license fee paid for such license nor any part thereof shall be returned to the licensee but the license bond filed with the application for such renewal of license shall not be forfeited

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 11 (Sec. 409), page 29, line 17, by inserting after the word 'Licenses" the following: "Temporary licenses, Hearings and appeals"

Amend Sec. 11 (Sec. 409), page 30, line 8, by striking out with light-face bracket the word: "Unless"

Amend Sec. 11 (Sec. 409), page 30, lines 9 and 10, by striking out with light-face brackets the following: the word "objections" in line 9, and ending with the word "licensee" in line 10, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Where the application has been improperly filled out, or any irregularities in the same and accompanying papers appear, or where by reason of complaints, charges or reports of its investigators or others indicating that the applicant for renewal license"

Amend Sec 11 (Sec. 409), page 30, line 11, by striking out with light-face brackets after the word "employees" the word: "of" and inserting in lieu thereof: "have violated"

Amend Sec. 11 (Sec. 409), page 30, line 15, by striking out with light-face brackets the word: "unless" and inserting in lieu thereof: "that"

Amend Sec. 11 (Sec. 409), page 30, line 18, by inserting after the word "board" the following: "the board has objections to the granting of the renewal of license it shall promptly, after receipt of the application, notify the applicant of all of its objections and the details thereof, and shall state whether or not it will grant the license renewal."

"Where the violations or irregularities are such as in the board's opinion would not warrant the refusal of the license, the board shall in its notice stipulate what corrective measures based upon the provisions of this section of this act the applicant should make to meet the board's objections, and state that a renewal of the license will be granted upon the applicant's making such stipulated measures.

"Where the board has decided to refuse the renewal of license, it shall in said notice fix a time and place for hearing as hereinabove provided. Where it has decided to grant the renewal upon certain corrective measures as herein provided, and the applicant is of the opinion that the board's decision is not proper, he may request the fixing of a time and place for hearing, and the board shall do so promptly.

"Hearings shall be held in the manner provided for in the case of refusals to grant new licenses and transfers and appeal may be had by the applicant to the court of quarter sessions as in such cases for hearing de novo.

"Where the question raised by the applicant on appeal from refusal of license is one of the interpretation or constitutionality of any part of this act or attacks a power of the board of its exercise thereof or the validity or legality of a board regulation or procedure, or where the question is otherwise more than one of mere fact, a further appeal may be taken by the board or by the applicant to the Superior Court which shall review the questions of law involved and issue its decision. Such appeals by applicants shall act as a supersedeas.

"Whenever the final date for the granting of a renewal license shall be imminent and litigation concerning same before the board or on appeals is not yet finally disposed of, the board shall issue to the applicant a temporary license to be operative until termination of the case. Such temporary license shall be exchanged for the regular license where the licensee's position has been sustained by the court. Where the board has prevailed, it shall retain from the license renewal fee paid by the licensee one-twelfth of said fee for each month or fraction thereof in which the temporary license was in effect and remit the remainder to the licensee upon surrender of such temporary license. Where the case concerns the making of corrective measures, and the final court order sustains the position of the board fully or in modification thereof, the licensee shall have ten days time after the issuance of the final court order to make the corrections required to the satisfaction of the board, and if not done within said period the temporary license shall be then surrendered and the regular renewal of license shall not be issued until such corrective measures are made. Where the final court order sustains a complete refusal of license the applicant shall close his licensed business immediately on receipt of the order aud surrender his temporary license immediately."

Amend Sec. 11 (Sec. 409), page 30, lines 18 to 21 by striking out with light-face brackets the following: beginning with the words "the license of a" at the end of line 18 and ending with the words "in this act" in line 21.

Amend Sec. 11 (Sec. 409), page 31, lines 12 to 17, by striking out with heavy-face brackets the following: "HC unless and until the pending pro-" in line 12, all of lines 13 to 16, and the words "or deposited as hereinbefore provided" in line 17

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The twelfth section was read as follows:

Section 12 Section four hundred ten of said act as last amended by the act approved the sixteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1762) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 410 Revocation and Suspension of License Upon learning of any violation of this act or any laws of this Commonwealth relating to liquor alcohol or malt or brewed beverages or of any regulations of the board adopted pursuant to such laws or any violation of any laws of this Commonwealth or of the United States of America relating to the tax payment of liquor or malt or brewed beverages by any licensee his officers servants agents or employes or upon any other sufficient cause shown the board may within one year from the date of such violation or cause appearing cite such licensee to appear before [it or its examiner] the district board not less than ten nor more than fifteen days from the date of sending such licensee by registered mail a notice addressed to him at his licensed premises to show cause why such license should not be suspended or revoked When such notice is duly addressed and deposited in the United States mail it shall be deemed to be due and sufficient notice Hearings on such citation shall be held in the same manner as provided herein for hearings on applications for license Upon [such hearing] receiving the recommendations of the district board and the notes of testimony if satisfied that any such violation has occurred or for other sufficient cause the board shall immediately suspend or revoke the license or if the license has expired or is about to expire and for such reason the order of suspension or the full penalty thereunder cannot be imposed upon such license the board may in lieu of an order of suspension impose a penalty equivalent to a suspension and either withhold the issuance of the renewal license for the full penalty period or balance of such period if part of penalty is imposed upon previous license or if the renewal license has been issued may impose upon such license the full penalty or any part thereof not suffered by the previous license notifying the licensee thereof by registered letter addressed to his licensed premises When a license is revoked the licensee's bond may be forfeited by the board Any licensee whose license is revoked shall be ineligible to have a license under this act or under any other act of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania relating to [the manufacture transportation or sale of] liquor or malt or brewed beverages until the expiration of three years from the date such license was revoked and such licensee within said three year period shall not be an employe of or have any proprietary interest in any corporation licensed by the board In the event the board shall revoke a license no license shall be granted for the premises or transferred to the premises in which the said license was conducted for a period of at least one year after the date of the revocation of the license conducted in the said premises except in cases where the licensee or a member of his immediate family is not the owner of the premises in which case the board after receiving the recommendations of the district board may in its discretion issue or transfer a license within said year In all such cases the board shall file of record at least a brief statement in the form of an opinion of the reasons for the ruling or order In the event the person whose license was suspended or revoked by the board shall feel aggrieved by the action of the board he shall have the right to appeal to the court of quarter sessions in the same manner as herein provided for appeals from refusals to grant renewal license Such appeal shall not act as a supersedeas unless [upon sufficient cause shown the court shall determine otherwise] the applicant shall give bond to the Commonwealth in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) to be approved by the court or deposit with the clerk of the courts a certified check or cash in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) which shall be forfeited to the Commonwealth in case the applicant shall not be sustained by the court in the appeal

In those cases where the board shall suspend a public service liquor sacramental wine or importers license the board may accept from the licensee an offer in compromise as a penalty in lieu of such suspension and thereupon rescind such suspension [In the case of hotel restaurant and club licensees] the offer in compromise shall be at the rate of [ten] thirty dollars for each day of suspension [and in the case of importers and sacramental wine licensees the offer in compromise shall be at the rate of thirty dollars per day] No offer in compromise may be accepted by the board in those cases where the suspension is for a period in excess of one hundred days

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 12 (Sec. 410), page 33, line 15, by inserting after the word "premises" the following: "Such revocation shall not go into effect until twenty days have elapsed from the date of notice of issuance of the board's order, during which time the licensee shall have the right to appeal to the court of quarter sessions for a hearing de novo as in the case of appeals from refusals to grant new licenses, renewals and transfers. Such appeal shall act as a supersedeas. The court upon hearing may sustain, reject or modify the order of the board in such cases.

"Appeal from the decision of the court of quarter sessions may be made to the Superior Court under the same circumstances and for the same reasons as in the case of renewals of license.

"Where litigation concerning the revocation or suspension of license is pending undisposed of, and the time for the granting of a renewal of license is imminent, the board shall issue to the licensee a temporary license as provided above in the case of renewals of licenses and under the same provisions as to effect, exchange, surrender and payment therefor. Should the final court order sustain the revocation of license, the temporary license issued shall be immediately surrendered. Should the final court order sustain or impose a suspension, same shall take effect immediately, and the regular renewal license shall not be issued until the expiration of the period of suspension.

"Appeal from the decision of the board to the court of quarter sessions and to the Superior Court by a licensee shall act as a supersedeas. Wherever in this act the term 'final court order' is used, it shall mean, in the cases where appeal is made to the Superior Court, the final decision and order of the said court."

Amend Sec. 12 (Sec. 410), page 34, lines 7 to 14, by striking out with light-face brackets the following: "In all such cases the board shall" in line 7, all of lines 8 to 13, and the words "for appeals from refusals to grant" in line 14

Amend Sec. 12 (Sec. 410), page 34, line 15, by striking out the word: "not"

Amend Sec. 12 (Sec. 410), page 34, lines 16 to 22, by striking out the following: "the applicant" in line 16, and all of lines 17 to 22.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the last amendment read by the Clerk be voted on separately.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be divided.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments on page 33, line 15?

They were not agreed to.

The board may with the approval of the Governor advance by one hour the hours herein prescribed as those during which liquor and malt or brewed beverages may be sold in any municipality during such part of the year when daylight saving time may be observed generally in such municipality

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 13 (Sec. 411), page 36, line 7 by striking out with light-faced brackets the words: "on Sunday" and inserting in lieu thereof: "between the hours of one o'clock antemeridian and midnight on any Sunday"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this amendment provides that retailers can sell between the hours of midnight and one o'clock Sunday morning.

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HUNTLEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 13 (Sec 411), page 35, line 8, by inserting after the word "any" the following: "week"

Amend Sec. 13 (Sec. 411), page 36, line 14, by inserting after the word "day" the following: "or on any Sunday between the hours of twelve o'clock midnight of any Saturday and seven o'clock post meridian on Sunday"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this amendment.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUNTLEY. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, will Mr. Huntley explain to the members of the House just what this amendment does?

Mr. HUNTLEY. Mr. Speaker, this amendment proposes to close clubs from twelve o'clock midnight until seven o'clock in the morning on Sundays.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, does this amendment actually close the clubs all day Sunday?

Mr. HUNTLEY. No, Mr. Speaker, it does not; they will only be closed from twelve until seven in the morning.

Mr. JIROLANIO. In other words, Mr. Speaker, what this amendment does is to deprive them of the time from twelve midnight until three o'clock that they are allowed to be open now under the law?

Mr. HUNTLEY. Mr. Speaker, sure I am talking about the time from twelve until three.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is taking away three hours.

Mr. HUNTLEY. That's right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask the members of the minority to vote against the amendment.

Mr. HUNTLEY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I offer this amendment because I oppose the sale of alcoholic beverages before two o'clock on Sunday morning. I also condemn the unfair privileges the clubs are given over other liquor vendors. It is a bad policy of government to grant special privileges to organized groups, calling themselves clubs which are not given to other classes. All retail beverage vendors should be treated alike. The law should not make fish of one and fowl of the other. The Legislature should treat hotels and restaurants as fairly as other liquor vendors. They are necessary to accommodate the public. Clubs are not a public necessity, yet this bill favors them to the detriment of all the rest. Hotels and restaurants must run their bars in the open while clubs are permitted to run theirs bars in secret. Hotels and restaurants must close their bars on Sundays while clubs are allowed to run their bar from 12 to 2 o'clock on Sunday morning and from 7 to 12 o'clock Sunday evenings. The clubs are the only liquor vendors who are licensed to sell on Sunday. I offer this amendment for the purpose of closing the clubs bars for the first two hours on Sunday morning. Why conduct a barroom behind closed doors in the middle of the night on Sunday? Why these two particular hours of drinking revelry on early Sunday morning? For what good reason can these grog shops keep open on the Sabbath day? Is it because they love darkness better than light in conducting this questionable business? It does not look good. It makes these special privileged clubs appear like legalized "pigs ears." The hotels and restaurants are required to pay much more for their licenses than the clubs pay. Their money does not seem to be as good as that of the clubs which has been gained by selling liquor on Sundays when other vending places were closed. Unfair competition is freezing out the hotels and restaurants who not only have to buy their supply of liquors from the State stores, who nevertheless sell liquors to the public. A customer of the State store is not allowed to drink on the State premises but he may carry his liquor to any other licensed public place and then get drunk. The hotels and restaurants buy their supply of beer from the breweries who nevertheless peddle from their distributors wagon packages as small as six bottles to the same consumers that the hotels depend on for customers. It is very evident that the hotels and restaurants are having hard sledding in competing with State stores, the breweries and clubs which get away with the profitable loaves and fishes while they gather up the fragments. No wonder the hotels and restaurants are chiseled to death? Is it strange that clubs are flourishing? There are now 3677 clubs licensed to sell alcoholic beverages in Pennsylvania. It has created a great booze racket which has become arrogant with power, undertaking to dictate laws and demanding that the government let them alone in their undertakings. This racket has become the greatest menace to temperance and sobriety as well as the most sinister influence in the political life of our state in the past quarter of a century. It has been made and fastened under a system of liquor laws that are a shame to the state and a disgrace to the Republican party. The second reason for offering this amendment is because the selling of liquor for beverage purpose on Sunday is morally wrong and the personnel of the business can not make it legally right. The Ten Commandments in the Bible have come down to us through the ages as the cornerstone of our laws and religion. Jews, Catholics and Protestants have accepted them. These commandments were also given to us in the new dispensation of Jesus Christ. They are born and bred in those who worship in the Christian churches. I am not unmindful of the spiritual myths instilled in me as a child at my mother's knee. Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy because it is the day of the Lord thy God who made it and blessed it and hallowed it. I cannot desecrate this holy day by permitting an organization to conduct a liquor business for filthy lucre with which to carry out the purpose of the club. I predict that before the next election those who have bowed down to this all powerful booze racket will renounce their own action because just as soon as the righteous people of Pennsylvania become aware of domination of this venomous spirit of wickedness which is squeezing the life blood of morality out of our state in its deadly coils they will rise up and demand an accounting from their law makers and then you will not only have to answer to them but also to the more permissable clubs who will have seen the handwriting on the wall and proceed to clean their own dirty stables. I do not know what course you will pursue "but as for me and my house we will serve the Lord."

Mr. JOHNSTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I intended to make a speech on this matter, but when I make a speech I usually have the attention of my hearers.

I thought I was in sympathy with the amendment offered by Mr. Huntley, but I feel that Mr. Huntley did not go as far as I thought he should go. I stand for the matter but I do not believe that we should make flesh of one and fish of another. If the common bars are closed at twelve o'clock midnight, why should the clubs be allowed to operate longer. Have they any special privilege? If it be a special privilege, it certainly is to violate the law more and more.

I consulted the Secretary of the Anti-Saloon League and I made him say in the presence of witnesses that the bill as it now stands is satisfactory to him and to his organization. I say this in order that we may not have any come-back by any one that votes. I support this bill. I believe the Committee was honest and I respect the integrity and the faithful services of the men on the Committee, and because I do so believe and because of the statement made by the Secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, I will support the bill as it comes before the House.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman who just spoke.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would admonish the gentleman from Philadelphia, and also the gentleman who has just spoken, that under the agreement, debate was to have been upon the bill as a whole, and when the amendments were acted upon there should be no debate. The Chair has allowed a lot of latitude, perhaps was in error in doing so but there was necessity for it because there was so much confusion.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my request.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 13 (Sec. 411), page 36, by inserting between lines 18 and 19 a new paragraph as follows: "It shall be lawful for club licensees to dispense and sell liquor and malt and brewed beverages to their members at picnics, outings and banquests held off the club premises upon securing a permit for such affair from the board. Application for such permit shall be made in writing on a form to be supplied by the board giving the location of the premises, the nature of the event and the date to which the permit is to apply and such other information as the board shall deem desirable and shall be accompanied by a fee of one dollar ($1.00). No such permit shall be issued for a period of longer than twenty-four hours. However, if the event for which the permit is issued be not held, the permit shall be returned to the board with a notation to that effect, but the fee shall not be returned. No club licensee shall be permitted to use more than three such permits in any one year. The moneys derived from the permit fee shall be used by the board to defray the administrative costs of issuing such permits and any surplus shall be turned over to the general fund."

Amend Sec. 13 (Sec. 411), page 36, line 13 by striking out with heavy-face brackets the words: "[three] two" and inserting in lieu thereof: "three"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The fourteenth to the twenty-first sections inclusive and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. EDWIN F. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 6), page 15, lines 3 to 6, by striking out the following: "And" in line 3, all of lines 4 and 5, and the following "icatessen or other store is also operated" in line 6.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. EDWIN F. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I am going to make this very brief, in order to expedite the time of the House.

The purpose of this amendment is to take care of delicatessen stores that are now operating and have a license to sell beer. If I understand the bill as now amended, it has taken away from the delicatessen stores, the stores that now have licenses to dispense beer, that privilege, and therefore this amendment I have offered would really make it possible for those stores to renew their licenses. I might bring to the attention of the House that there are four hundred eighty-five delicatessen stores in the city of Philadelphia that are operating at the present time and that revenue would be lost entirely. It has been the complaint of people in districts that they refuse to go into taprooms, refused to go into bars and they would like the privilege of going and buying beer in small quantities that they might take home for their own use. I therefore ask the members of this House to vote in favor of this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend Section 1 (Sec. 19), Page 35, Lines 6 and 7, by striking out the following: "[twenty-] [seventy] [five] fifty ($50)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "twenty-five"

Such temporary license shall be exchanged for a regular license where the licensee has been sustained by the court. Where the board has prvailed, it shall retain from the license renewal fee paid by the licensee one-twelfth of said fee for each month or fraction thereof in which the temporary license was in effect and remit the remainder to the licensee upon surrender of the temporary license. Where the court orders a renewal license granted upon the making of corrective measures by the licensee, the licensee shall have ten days time in which to make such measures to the satisfaction of the Board and if same has not been done within said period of time the temporary license shall then be forthwith surrendered and no renewal license issued until such measures are made. Where the final court order sustains a complete refusal of renewal license the applicant shall close his licensed business immediately on receipt of the order and surrender his temporary license immediately."

Amend Section 1, Page 17, Line 28, by inserting at the end of said line and between it and Line 1 on page 18, the following new paragraph: "Where the question raised by the applicant or the board on appeal from the refusal to grant a new license or transfer or renewal of an existing license is one of the interpretation or constitutionality of any part of this act or attacks a power of the board or its exercise thereof or the validity of a board regulation or procedure or where the question is otherwise more than one of mere fact, a further appeal may be taken by the board or the applicant to the Superior Court which shall review the questions of law involved and issue its decision. Such appeals by applicants shall act as a supersedeas."

Amend section 1, page 26 line 28 by striking out with heavy faced brackets the following "and subject to the same conditions as to a supersedeas"

Amend section 1, page 27 by inserting between lines 14 and 15 thereof the following "Where the board has revoked or suspended a license such revocation or suspension shall not go into effect until twenty days have elapsed from the issuance of the order during which time the licensee shall have the right to appeal to the court of quarter sessions for a hearing de novo as in the case of appeals from refusals to grant renewals of licenses. Such appeal shall act as a supersedeas. The court upon hearing may sustain, reject or modify the order of the board in such cases."

Amend Section 1 page 27 line 14 by adding to the end thereof a new paragraph as follows: "Where litigation concerning the revocation or suspension of license is pending undisposed of and the time for the granting of a renewal of license is imminent the board shall issue to the licensee a temporary license as provided in the case of renewals of licenses and under the same provisions as to effect, exchange surrender and payment therefor. Should the final court order sustain the revocation of license, the temporary license shall be immediately surrendered. Should the final court order sustain or impose a suspension of license the same shall immediately take effect and the regular renewal license shall not be issued until the expiration of the period of suspension."

Amend Section 1 page 27 line 15 by inserting before the word "Section" a new paragraph as follows: "Appeals from the decision of the Courts of Quarter Sessions on orders sustaining or refusing to sustain the revocation or suspension of licenses may be made to the Superior Court where the questions involved are one of the interpretation of this act or its constitutionality or the validity of regulation of the board or its procedures or otherwise more than one of mere fact, such apreals by the applicant acting as supersedeas."

Amend Section 1 page 30 line 19 by striking out with heavy faced brackets the following: "may [in its discretion] not"

Amend Section 1 page 30 line 19 by inserting before the word "renew" the following: "shall"

Amend Section 1 page 30 lines 26 to 28 by striking out with heavy faced brackets the following: beginning with the word "unless" in line 26 and ending with the word "and" in line 28.

Amend Section 1 page 31 by striking out with heavy faced brackets in lines 1 and 2 the following: beginning with the words "a bond" in line 1 and ending with the word "provided" in line 2.

Amend Sec. 1, page 35, lines 6 and 7, by striking out the words [twenty] [seventy] [five] fifty ($50)" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "twenty-five"

Amend Sec. 1, page 43, lines 26 and 27, by striking out the words: "equal to one-fifth of the annual license fee but not less than" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "of"

Mr. COOPER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 10, 1939.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 373, Printer's No. 110, entitled "An act declaring valid provisions in wills and trusts instruments directing that certain dividends upon and profits realized from corporate stock be treated in whole or in part either as principal or income and repealing inconsistent legislation," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to say to the members that tomorrow we must take up appropriation bills, as well as other bills all of which are important and under no agreement. If you will see your respective leaders, the Chair feels that the time of some of the members may be conserved.

The Chair wants to thank the minority particularly for the manner in which the amendments were presented and their agreement upon a plan which, it seems to the Chair conserved considerable time and worked out satisfactorily this afternoon, which otherwise would not have been posssible. It might have been possible to tie the House up for a great length of time had it not been for the agreement of the minority in this afternoon's proceedings on these bills.

The Chair feels that is a fine spirit and good sportsmenship and the Chair feels the majority should appreciate it as the Chair does.

Session 1939. 133d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 23 HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1939. No. 53.

SENATE

THURSDAY, May 11, 1939.

The Senate met at 1:30 o'clock, a. m. E. S. T.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. BURLEIGH A. PETERS offered the following prayer:

O Thou King of Kings and Lord of Lords, by these moments of prayer at the beginning of each session of the General Assembly, we endeavor to obey the command of the Master: "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's."

May it never be that we cease giving our tribute either to Thee or the State. And we rejoice to know that while we render unto the state and those in authority over us our tribute we can render also unto Thee that which is Thine. We rejoice, likewise, that we live in a land of democracy, all declarations of the dictators of the earth to the contrary notwithstanding, and that the expression of religious convictions has yet remained free. Truly have we received a goodly heritage and our lives fallen in pleasant places.

And, our Father, we commend unto Thee, the Senator from Luzerne in his hour of sorrow and wilt Thou truly be unto him as his strength in this his hour of sadness.

Just for this day may we pray with the Psalmist: "Let the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart, be acceptable in Thy Sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer." We pray in Thy holy name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. OWLETT and Mr. FREY, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

ATTORNEY GENERAL DIRECTED TO MAKE A GENERAL STUDY OF PUBLIC UTILITY LAWS

Mr. SCARLETT, from the Committee on Public Utilities, to which was referred on May 9, 1939, the following resolution from the House of Representatives reported the same without amendments as follows, viz:

In the House of Representatives, April 24, 1939.

Whereas, During the 1937 Session of the General Assembly there was passed a new law for the regulation of public utilities known as the Public Utility Law which Act superseded and repealed the Public Service Company Law which has been in effect since January 1, 1914 and

Whereas, A number of provisions of the Public Utility Law of 1937 have been the subject of judicial review and have been held by State or Federal Courts to be unconstitutional as the result of which amendatory legislation was passed at the special session of 1938 designed to correct some of the unconstitutional provisions and

Whereas, Other provisions of this 1937 law are alleged to extend beyond the scope of reasonable and proper regulation of the utilities in that they unduly invade the field of management impose upon utilities the burden of furnishing costly reports or conforming to procedures of doubtful value in the determination of reasonable rates and adequate service retard the development and expansion of utility properties and facilities discourage investment in utility securities and present question which may involve the Commonwealth and the utilities and indirectly the ratepayers in protracted and costly litigation thereby retarding future reductions in utility rates and

Whereas, The best interests of the Commonwealth the rate payer the utilities and those who in good faith have invested billions of dollars in the securities of utilities doing business in this Commonwealth require that a careful comprehensive and impartial study of the Public Utility Law be undertaken in order to ascertain what changes if any should be made in said Law to make it fair just and reasonable in its application to all, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Attorney General be and is hereby requested to undertake and prosecute a thorough and impartial study of the Public Utility Laws of this and other states ascertain the viewpoints of the Public Utility Commission other regulatory bodies the public the utilities affected and others as to the proper concepts to be applied in the field of utility regulation consider the effect and trend of judicial decisions in the public utility field and the questions involved in pending litigation and ascertain what if any amendments should be made to the Public Utility Law in order to secure adequate proper and sound regulation of utilities in the public interest which will at the same time encourage investment in utility securities and aid in a program of expansion and economic recovery in this Commonwealth

Resolved, That the Attorney General be requested to report the results of his study and investigation of the Public Utility law together with such proposed legislation as he deems proper for consideration to the next Regular Session of the General Assembly Laid over for one day under the Rules.

He also, from the Committee on Public Utilities, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 669, entitled:

An Act to amend section four hundred eighteen of the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1053, entitled

He also, from the Committee on Public Utilities, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 670, entitled:

An Act to amend sub-section eight of section two and sub-section twelve of section three of the act, approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1969), entitled "An act relating to nonprofit cooperative corporations organized to engage in rural electrification, providing for the organization, consolidation and dissolution of such corporations; prescribing the qualification for membership therein; conferring certain rights, powers, duties and immunities upon them and their officers and members; prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers; providing for the inclusion of certain existing cooperative or nonprofit corporations and associations within the provisions of this act; conferring powers, and imposing duties on certain State departments, commissions and officers, fixing fees; conferring the right of eminent domain; prohibiting the use of certain terms in the corporate names of other corporations; exempting such corporations from excise taxes; imposing on them a license fee; and exempting such corporations from the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, and from the provisions of the Securities Act." by redefining "rural area" and limiting the exercise of the power of eminent domain.

Mr. EDMONDS, from the Committee on Banking, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 969, (House Bill No. 1036), entitled:

An Act to regulate and restrain the sale, purchase, exchange, pledge, and dealing in distillery bonded warehouse certificates for whiskey or any other potable distilled spirits, except ethyl alcohol; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; authorizing the granting of permits and registration of agents to deal in such certificates, and the suspension and revocation of such permits and registration of agents; providing for hearings and appeals to the court of common pleas; forbidding transactions in such certificates in this state except as herein provided; prescribing and imposing penalties; and providing for the disposition of filing, registration and permit fees.

Mr. HOMSHER, from the Committee on Municipal Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 831, (House Bill No. 519), entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph six of section two of the act of June seventh one thousand nine hundred one (Pamphlet Laws 493) entitled "An act providing for the examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class and imposing fines penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof" as amended and extended to cities of the third class boroughs incorporated towns and townships of the first class by eliminating the prohibition against connections to water-pipes by persons other than plumbers

Mr. REED, from the Committee on Public Utilities, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 522, (House Bill No. 538), entitled:

An Act to repeal the act, approved the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and three (P. L. 13), entitled "An act in relation to abandonment of portions of railroads."

Mr. FARRELL, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 708, (House Bill No. 296), entitled:

An Act to validate mortgage sales of real estate by foreign fiduciaries, executors and administrators and the titles acquired by purchasers at such sales.

He also, from the Committee on Public Health, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 709, (House Bill No. 563), entitled:

An Act to further amend sections eight ten and clause (a) of section fourteen of the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 485) entitled "An act to provide for the better protection of life and health of the citizens of the Commonwealth by requiring and regulating the examination licensure and registration of persons and registration of corporations engaging in the care preparation and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons and providing penalties" by providing additional grounds for refusing suspending or revoking licenses further regulating the procedure of the board giving associations of funeral directors the right of appeal in certain cases and extending the power of the board to make rules and regulations

Mr. WOLFENDEN, from the Committee on Forestry, Game and Fish, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 875, (House Bill No. 482), entitled:

An Act assenting to the provisions of the Act of Congress entitled "An act to provide that the United States shall aid the States in wildlife-restoration projects, and for other purposes," approved September second, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, and conferring certain powers and duties on the Pennsylvania Game Commission.

He also, from the Committee on Forestry, Game and Fish, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 882, (House Bill No. 781), entitled:

An Act authorizing the Secretary of Forests and Waters with approval of the State Parks Commission to transfer portions of canal properties acquired by the Department of Forests and Waters to the Department of Highways for highways purposes.

He also, from the Committee on Forestry, Game and Fish, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 881, (House Bill No. 780), entitled:

An Act authorizing the Secretary of Forests and Waters with approval of the Governor to accept and acquire by gift, grant or other lawful means, certain canal properties.

He also, from the Committee on Forestry, Game and Fish, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 982, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 448), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," authorizing the board to issue permits for certain nets; making it unlawful to make, sell or possess certain nets; and providing penalties.

Mr. McCREESH, from the Committee on Municipal Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 251, (House Bill No. 140), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 623), entitled "An act prohibiting the erection of fences or similar structures above a certain height in suburban and similar districts of cities of the first class except under a permit, declaring certain fences a private nuisance and their erection a misdemeanor and prescribing penalties for violation of the provisions of this act," by extending the provisions thereof to include fences in suburban and similar districts in all cities and boroughs.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a question of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will state his point of information.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, did I understand you correctly that certain bills were reported out by the Committee on Mines and Mining?

The PRESIDENT. In the regular way there was one; the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Thomas, reported a bill.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Thomas.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Thomas, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, is it not true that the Committee on Mines and Mining met this morning?

Mr. THOMAS. That is true, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, am I to understand that there was an official meeting of that committee—a quorum?

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, we had four members present.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, can the gentleman from Mercer, Mr. Thomas, tell us what number of members make a quorum of the committee?

Mr. THOMAS. Five, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, then it is true that the Committee on Mines and Mining did not have a quorum present; is that correct?

Mr. THOMAS. Not at the moment we gave it out, Mr. President; that is true.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, taking the word of the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Thomas, a certain bill has been reported out of that committee without a quorum being present and I ask that it be sent back to the Committee on Mines and Mining until a quorum is present.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, move that Senate Bill 168 be returned to committee?

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed was at the meeting, and he stepped out just at the time we made the motion to report out this bill.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 168 be recommitted to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. A motion has been made by the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, and seconded by the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, to return Senate Bill 168 to the Committee on Mines and Mining. Are there any remarks.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask that the motion be voted down.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I feel in a sense of fairness the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Thomas, has admitted and it now appears on the record of the Journal, that a meeting was held without a quorum, and I cannot see how anybody has any right to object or can object. The Senator from Mercer has admitted without any doubt that only four members were present when Senate Bill 168 was reported out.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, the Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining fixed a time for a meeting of that committee this morning and notice was given in the schedule announced by the Secretary of the Senate.

I went to the committee meeting and the Secretary of Mines, I believe, came over and explained his views, and there were a number of other members there, and after discussion, I asked the chairman to count me present and he voted on reporting the bill out. He now tells me that with my vote there were a sufficient number there to constitute a quorum under the rules of this Senate. I think he has complied with the rules of his committee.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have no interest in the bill but I do think the Senate ought to take a position here publicly if a member of the Senate is interested in a bill and it has been reported out by four or five members of a committee I think, that this bill should be sent back for further consideration. It seems to me we certainly ought not to give public notice of the fact that we give so little consideration to a bill, and I think that the objection of the Senator from Tioga should be withdrawn; it would be much wiser, in my opinion, if this bill went back to be discussed. I do not mean any reflection on any of the members of the committee, but I think that the bill ought to go back and come out again without making a public display of this action.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, at the last three meetings held by the Committee on Mines and Mining the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, has not been there, for some reason.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, may I inquire the number of the bill being discussed.

The PRESIDENT. Senate Bill 168. A motion has been made to return Senate Bill 168 to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Are there any further remarks?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I simply want to say that this bill has been thoroughly discussed and it was not a question of taking snap judgment by any one. The bill has been discussed on the floor of this Senate and in committee repeatedly.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, in reply to the statement made by the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Thomas, it is true I have not attended the last several meetings, I was engaged elsewhere, but the fact remains that this bill was reported out with a committee of four—less than a quorum was present and you can not get away from that fact.

Mr. OWLETT. I will withdraw my objections to the motion.

Mr. HALUSKA. Roll call, Mr. President.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will withdraw my objection to the motion. I suggested that the Senate should vote down this motion and I withdraw that suggestion.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, since the Senator from Tioga has withdrawn his suggestion I withdraw my request for a roll call. Therefore the bill will go back to committee; is that correct?

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

RECESS

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of a meeting of the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOODWARD, from the Committee on Judiciary General, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 152, entitled:

An Act to create a uniform and exclusive system for the administration of parole in this Commonwealth; establishing the "Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole", conferring and defining its jurisdiction, duties, powers and functions; providing for the method of appointment of its members; regulating the appointment, removal and discharge of its officers, clerks and employes; dividing the Commonwealth into administrative districts for purposes of probation and parole; fixing the salaries of members of the Board and of certain other officers and employes thereof; making violations of certain provisions of this act misdemeanors and providing penalties therefor; and for other cognate purposes.

Mr. LETZLER. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. LETZLER from the Committee on Education, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 803, entitled:

An Act requiring plans and specifications for the design or construction of certain utilities, structures, projects, works, improvements, and buildings to bear the signature and seal of a registered architect or registered professional engineer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania before filing with or acceptance, or approval, or issuance of permit with respect thereto, by any department, board, commission or other body of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any of its agencies or political subdivisions; and providing penalties.

He also, from the Committee on Education, reported amended, Senate Bill No. 804, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 933), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of architecture in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by providing for the examination and registration of architects by a State Board of Examiners; defining the power and duties of said board of examiners; and providing penalties for the violation of this act," as amended, changing limitation upon expenditures by board; revising and changing qualifications for registration; requiring registrants to obtain and use a seal; defining certain terms; requiring certain building plans to be signed by registrants; prohibiting registration of corporations and firms; prohibiting and making certain acts unlawful and increasing penalties.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. OWLETT, from the Committee on Public Utilities, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 539, entitled:

An Act relating to proceedings for the forfeiture of rights, privileges or franchises of corporations making claim against street railway traction or motor power companies in certain cases; and providing for the disposition of rights, privileges or franchises forfeited and for contracts relating thereto.

He also, from the Committee on Finance, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 765, (House Bill No. 322), entitled:

An Act to repeal the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1193), entitled "An act to protect the public against fraud and deception, regulating the business of selling liquid fuels by requiring persons engaged in the sale or distribution of liquid fuels to secure a permit or permits for pumps or outlets used therein, prescribing the method and manner of obtaining such permit or permits and prescribing the fees for the issuance thereof, conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and prescribing penalties.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MILLER, from the Committee on Mines and Mining, re-reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 168, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph six of section two, and paragraph four of section five of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 551), entitled "An act prohibiting the employment of miners, as herein defined, in the bituminous coal mines, unless certificated by a miners' examining board; providing for the appointment of such boards, and defining their powers and duties; providing penalties; and making an appropriation," by providing for the suspension of examinations and certifications by the Secretary of Mines and for the issuance of new certificates to replace lost certificates.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HALUSKA, from the Committee on Labor and Industry, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 730, entiled:

A Supplement to the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 736), entitled, as amended, "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder and prescribing penalties," providing for the election, by employers, of persons engaged in domestic service or agriculture.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. GELTZ, from the Committee on County Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 850, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act, approved the third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight (P. L. 639), entitled "An act relative to the compensation of the treasurer of Centre County, the safe keeping of the county funds, et cetera."

Mr. RICE. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. RICE, from the Committee on Agriculture, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 786, (House Bill No. 1297), entitled:

An Act to further amend section five and to amend section six of the act, approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine (P. L. 395), entitled "An act regulating the sale of concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs, also of condimental stock and poultry-food and patented proprietary or trademark stock and poultry-food, possessing nutritive value combined with medicinal properties, defining concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs, prohibiting the adulteration of any feeding-stuff sold, offered or exposed for sale in this State with oat hulls, ground corn cobs, flax plant refuse, elevator chaff, cotton-seed hulls, ground corn stalks, rice hulls, peanut hulls, weed seed or other similar adulterants, providing for the collection of samples and analysis thereof by the Department of Agriculture and the publication of information concerning the same; providing also for the expenses of the enforcement of the law, fixing penalties for its violation and repealing act number two hundred and eleven (P. L. 1907, page 273), entitled 'An act regulating the sale of wheat, rye, corn and buckwheat-bran and middlings or any admixture thereof,' et cetera, approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven," authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to make rules and regulations and establish standards further regulating the taking of samples and changing and providing penalties.

He also, from the Committee on Agriculture, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 742, (House Bill No. 1361), entitled:

An Act to amend clause (10) of section 3, sections 5 and 6, paragraphs (2), (3), (4), (6) and (11) of section 8, sections 9 and 11, paragraph C of section 12 and section 15 of the act, approved the second day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 2724), entitled "An act relating to soil conservation and soil erosion, providing for the organization of soil conservation districts as governmental subdivisions of the Commonwealth with powers of enacting ordinances and regulations for the prevention and control of soil erosion and the conservation of soil resources, prescribing the officers and employes thereof and defining their powers and duties, creating the State Soil Conservation Board in the Department of Agriculture and imposing powers and prescribing duties thereon, relative to the enforcement of this act, providing financial assistance to such soil conservation districts, prescribing penalties and making an appropriation," by changing the vote necessary for the establishment of districts, the making of regulations and the dissolution of districts and requiring voters to be land owners.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MALLERY, from the Committee on Municipal Government, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 745, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand forty, of the act approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto," by regulating the number of times and the conditions under which the same subject matters may be presented to the voters in a petition of initiation.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I noticed a statement in the newspaper made by the Secretary of Commerce, Mr. Brown, concerning the exodus of industry from Pennsylvania.

I have studied this matter for the last few months and am about to submit a report to the Senate proving that his story about the exodus of industries from Pennsylvania is nothing but a convenient myth.

I have in my hands a release of the Census Manufacturers for 1937, dated March 24, 1939, and I want to submit the following figures, showing the industrial growth of Pennsylvania within the years 1935-1937.

Under the number of establishments for 1935 there were 12,926 industrial establishments in Pennsylvania; in 1937, 13,084—an increase of new establishments of one hundred—but when you examine the number of wage earners you find, in 1935, the number of wage earners in Pennsylvania was 814,670 and in 1937 there were 954,340—which is an increase of 150,000 workers.

Wages paid in 1935 were $816,022,112; in 1937 $1,176,957-207, which is an increase of $300,000,000; and finally the most acid and perfect test for industrial growth is the value of manufacturing. In 1935 the value of manufacturing in Pennsylvania was $1,870,467,258 and in 1937 it was $2,664,410,319, which is an increase amounting to almost $800,000,000.

Now, Mr. President, these statistics are covered by a most reliable body of investigation, the Census Manufacture, under the United States Department of Commerce, and they clearly establish the fact that these stories about the exodus of industry from Pennsylvania are nothing but a convenient myth. I have the highest respect for Mr. Brown, but I believe the beginning of the Department of Commerce should be more constructive and I think once and for all we should stop blackening the good name of Pennsylvania and its industrial prosperity.

HOUSE MESSAGES

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 331

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, May 11, 1939.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 331, Printer's No. 613, entitled:

An Act defining and prohibiting unfair sales, providing remedies for violations thereof, and establishing penalties therefor.

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

NOMINATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations.

APPOINTMENT AS MEMBER OF PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE COMMISSION

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 11, 1939.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate Thomas J. Evans, Coaldale, Schuylkill County, for appointment as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, to serve until June 4, 1945, and until his successor is appointed and qualified, to fill a vacancy.

ARTHUR H. JAMES.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. WOODWARD read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1007, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to section five, article fourteen, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. MILLER read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1008, entitled:

An Act to amend section nine of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 2051), entitled "An act relating to public assistance; providing for and regulating assistance to certain classes of persons designated and defined as dependent children, aged persons, blind persons and other persons requiring relief; providing for the administration of this act by the Department of Public Assistance and county boards of assistance hereby created for this purpose; authorizing the Department of Public Assistance to cooperate with, and to accept and disburse moneys received from, the United States Government for assistance to such persons; providing for the liquidation of the State Emergency Relief Board, Boards of Trustees of the Mothers' Assistance Fund, and Boards of Trustees of Pension Fund for the blind; and repealing laws relating to mothers' assistance, pensions for the blind, old age assistance, and the State Emergency Relief Board," providing an exemption in determining the eligibility of war veterans receiving relief while receiving Federal compensation for injuries or disabilities.

Which was committed to the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance, and Pensions.

Mr. SHAPIRO read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1009, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the second day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 2821), entitled "An act to regulate the sale, and advertising for sale, of goods, wares, and merchandise purporting to be an insurance, bankruptcy, mortgage, insolvent, assignees, receivers, trustees, removal or closing out sale, or sale of goods damaged by fire, smoke, or water, in cities and certain boroughs of this Commonwealth; and to prevent fraudulent practices in connection therewith, and providing penalties for the violation thereof, and for the imposition of license fees for permission to conduct the same," by extending the provisions of said act to certain towns and townships, defining "person," "distress sale" and "closing out sale"; requiring the filing of additional information as to inventories and requiring the posting thereof; limiting the license to such goods as appear in the inventory; providing the effect of commingling goods and providing for the revocation of licenses, hearings thereon and appeals therefrom.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1010, entitled:

An Act amending section one of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 114), entitled "An act regulating the time of payment of wages and earnings, and providing a penalty for violation hereof," by providing that the first payment made hereunder shall be between the fifteenth and last day of each month.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

Mr. WOLFENDEN read in his place and presented to the Chair, Senate Bill No. 1011, entitled:

An Act to further amend section nineteen of the act, approved the seventeenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P. L. 1092), entitled "An act defining fraternal benefit societies and their status; authorizing such societies to create subordinate lodges and to pay benefits to members and their beneficiaries from funds collected, and regulating such benefits and collections; providing for the organization and incorporation of such societies and for their supervision, regulation, and examination by the Insurance Commissioner, and for the admission of foreign societies; designating tables of mortality as a basis for rate of contribution; requiring all societies to make annual and other reports and appointing the Insurance Commissioner as attorney for service of process; providing penalties for any violations of the act; exempting such societies from taxation and certain other societies from its provisions; and requiring beneficial associations, other than fraternal benefit societies, to report to and be supervised by the Insurance Commissioner; and repealing existing laws," by imposing upon certain fraternal benefit societies, the expenses incurred by the Insurance Department, in making examination of such societies.

Which was committed to the Committee on Insurance.

MOTION CALLING UP RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 117

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I call up at this time from the table the resolution reported from the Committee of Welfare yesterday. I think it is Serial No. 117, and it was reported out as amended. I move the immediate adoption of this resolution.

DIRECTING DEPARTMENT, PUBLIC ASSISTANCE, TO RESCIND ITS ORDER COMPELLING RELIEF RECIPIENTS TO SIGN BOND PLEDGING FUTURE PAYMENT

In the Senate, April 4, 1939.

Whereas, The Department of Public Assistance through its Director Mr. Russel recently issued an order stating that all persons receiving relief must sign a bond in the sum of $5000 which bond binds said persons or dependents to return to the State Government any and all monies received by said persons in the form of emergency relief, and therefore, it is hereby

Resolved, That this General Assembly do (with the approval of the House of Representatives) order the Department of Public Assistance through its Director Mr. Russell to refrain from enforcing the order. That no such bond be required to receive food and clothing when the person receiving same has no gainful employment and is a relief case because of conditions beyond his or her control, and be it further

Resolved, That this mandate of the General Assembly supersede the order of the Secretary of Public Assistance immediately and that copies be forwarded to the Secretary of Public Assistance, the State Board of Public Assistance, to all local Boards of Public Assistance and to the Governor of the Commonwealth and that the Governor is hereby petitioned to enforce the provisions of this resolution.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolution be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection,

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution.

MOTION TO LAY RESOLUTION ON THE TABLE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, there being another resolution which correctly states the facts in its preamble I move you that this resolution be laid upon the table.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. It has been moved by the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, and seconded by the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, that resolution No. 117 be laid on the table.

Are there any objections?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, as I understand it, a motion to lay on the table is not debatable. I only want an opportunity to speak on this matter.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I submit that a motion to lay on the table is not debatable.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that that is correct.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, before the motion is put, I desire to rise to a point of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. Not on this matter. I am sorry, but I am bound by the rules.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and members of the Senate, we have just seen another Captain Kidd trick, sort of an act of piracy.

Senate Concurrence Resolution No. 117 was introduced April 4, 1939, two days prior to the effective date of an order of the Department of Public Assistance, which demanded that persons receiving relief and subsistance from the State of Pennsylvania sign a $5,000 bond. In that resolution are six whereas clauses.

The Committee named a sub-committee with instructions to take out those particular whereas clauses, to clarify the action of the Public Assistance Boards which they thought were a little too political, and so they struck out all the whereas clauses and I did not object, because the main thing I way striving for, of course, was the elimination of the necessity of signing a bond.

Now, when the resolution was reported out it was conveniently lost for a couple of days, in order to give time for another resolution to be written.

Yesterday representatives of the Workers Alliance were in town, a committee called upon the Secretary of Public Assistance, I am told, and asked him about this bond proposition. He said, "Just wait, there will be a resolution introduced in the Senate today to take the place of the resolution introduced by Senators Dent and Haluska." He said, "They stole the idea from me."

I just want to clarify this for the benefit of Senator Haluska and myself, that the stealing is being done right now, and I might say you are not opposing the idea of the resolution but you are opposing the idea of a Democrat putting it in, and that is the whole story behind the objections of my friend from Tioga, Senator Owlett, because he knows when this other resolution comes up I must of necessity vote for it and I suppose every other Democratic Senator must vote for it also.

Before I am through I am going to call up that resolution in order that we can vote for it, but I just want it clearly understood I know what is happening, and I once called the gentleman from Tioga a big bad wolf and now I am going to call him Captain Kidd.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I call the attention of the Senator of Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, to the fact that this resolution was introduced by Senator Deitrick, and not by me.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 4—CALLED UP

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, at this time I call up from the table a resolution covering—

Mr. OWLETT. Senate concurrent resolution No. 4, Mr. President, for the information of the Senator, Printer's No. 240. It is printed on the last page of the history.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it is not in the history. I will take your word for the number but you do not blame me for checking on you do you?

MOTION FOR ADOPTION OF SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 4

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move the immediate adoption Senate concurrent resolution No. 4.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. It has been moved by the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, and seconded by the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, that Senate concurrent resolution No. 4 be adopted.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I ask that the resolution be read for the information of the Senate.

DIRECTING THE SECRETARY OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE TO DISCONTINUE THE USE OF BONDS TO APPLICANTS FOR PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

In the Senate, May 10, 1939.

Whereas During the last Administration Act No. 397 was passed which provides in Section 4 as follows

"Section 4 Property of Indigent Persons Liable for Expenses Incurred for Support and Assistance (a) The real and personal property of any indigent person shall be liable for the expenses of his support maintenance assistance and burial incurred by any public body or public agency whether owned at the time such expenses were incurred or acquired thereafter Any public body or public agency may sue for moneys so expended and any judgment obtained shall be a lien upon the real estate of such indigent person and be collected as other judgments" and

Whereas The State Board of Public Assistance on April 6, 1938 submitted to the Attorney General or approval a procedure for the enforcement of the act above quoted and on July 7, 1938 by resolution adopted a form of bond to be filed as a lien against real property and

Whereas The use of said bond was thereafter temporarily suspended and

Whereas The former Attorney General suggested that the Department of Public Assistance should expedite collections from relief recipients by requiring them to furnish bonds containing a clause for the confession of judgment thereby elimnating the necessity of bringing suit against relief recipients and bringing about the savings of large sums of money which opinion was concurred in on March 28, 1939 by the present Attorney General and

Whereas Pursuant to the suggestion of the former Attorney General the Department of Public Assistance effective April 1, 1939 issued instructions that applicants for all forms of assistance excepting blind pensions be required to file bonds which procedure is now in effect and

Whereas The present Department of Public Assistance has recommended and pursuant to said recommendations a bill has been introduced to amend the Act of 1937 so that only the real and personal property of recipients owned at the time relief is granted or acquired during the period of said grants is liable for such repayment and providing also that any judgment obtained for the repayment of relief shall not be enforced against the real and personal property of the recipient comprising his home and furnishings during the life time of such recipient and

Whereas The Department of Public Assistance proposes upon the enactment of said act to abandon the use of said bond and to substitute in lieu thereof an agreement carrying out the provisions of said proposed amended act now therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Secretary of Public Assistance in view of the above facts be directed to immediately discontinue the use of said bond

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in making my remarks I said I agreed to allow the whereas clauses of my particular resolution which were political in their nature, according to the objection of the gentleman on the other side, to be stricken from the resolution, but I did not say to them they could take all the so-called political clauses out of my resolution and put worse ones in their resolution.

I want to read, for the information of the Senator, the so-called political clauses in my resolution, which are as follows:

Whereas, This order (referring to the order calling for a $5,000 bond) is the most degrading and demoralizing proposition advanced since the beginning of subsistance and relief grants to persons who through no fault of their own are unemployed, and

Whereas, The principle behind the proposition is unsound and based on prejudice and an assumption that relief recipients as a group are drones and won't do anything to help themselves and that there are many so-called chiselers on the relief rolls which is not supported by findings of fact, and

Whereas, Mr. Russell in his statement concurring this unfair proposition made the illuminating and prophetic statement that homes would not be taken from the estate of deceased relief recipients if said homes were willed to a dependent who is also a relief recipient. Such clarifying statements only tend to show the unreasonableness of this order from the viewpoint of persons who hold no malice or ill-will towards their fellow citizens who can not locate gainful employment, and

Whereas, This proposition and formal order tends to destroy the iniative of thousands of worthy citizens willing to work by forcing them to mortgage not only their own future earnings (if any) but that of their sons and daughters as well, thus placing the children of this large group of citizens in the unhappy yet unique position of no longer being free children in a free nation, but sons and daughters in bondage and whose position and plight may well be likened to that of the early Americans who came to this country as bondage slaves and which practice was stamped out early in the days of Colonial America, and further, this degrading and demoralizing proposition will completely destroy the liberty of freedom of this generation of relief recipients and unemployed but it will hang a millstone around the necks of the next generation and if the insinuations of the Director of Public Assistance is to be given serious consideration through this mortgage on liberty and independence will carry on into future generations of the bonded relief recipients and

Whereas, While we are agreed that relief chiselers are deserving of punishment and all reasonable precautions should be taken to keep such chiselers from the relief rolls, yet we cannot destroy the initiative and future independence of a large group of our citizenary because of this desire to save and economize in the distribution of subsistance relief and so on.

If you listened carefully, and I know you did, to the resolution just read, its whereas clauses say to the people of Pennsylvania, in substance "Now, we issue this order, we, the Republican administration, but look here, the Democrats passed a bill" because it says Section 4 of Act 397 passed by the last administration and they make sure they put the particular language in this resolution—force us to the position of demanding the signing of a bond, and then they go further in their resolution—it is nothing but a slap at the last administration and purely political from the beginning to end.

Now, I am not going to vote for this resolution now, because it does not do anything. It puts up the proposition we have to vote for the Van Allsburg bills first, and if we pass those bills then the Secretary will do away with the signature on the bonds. I am not going to vote for a resolution that practically says I accept the Van Allsburg system of relief payments. I do not think any Democrat is going to do that or any decent Republican.

MOTION TO STRIKE OUT

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in order that we do this thing right I move that the resolution beginning with the first word, "Where" up to the last clause of the resolution beginning with the word "resolved" be now stricken from the Resolution.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the motion,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. OWLETT. As I understand the motion, Mr. President, it was to strike out of this concurrent resolution all of the whereas clauses beginning on the first line on the first page and ending with the word "resolved" on the third page; is that correct?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it strikes out everything but the "resolved."

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I certainly think my colleagues should vote "no," on this motion. The fact of the matter is, while these whereas clauses are perhaps distasteful to my friends, the Senator from Westmoreland, nevertheless the unfortunate part of it is that they correctly and accurately state the facts, first, that the last administration did pass an Act which contains Section 4, and it is exactly quoted in this resolution; secondly, the State Board of Assistance in 1938 submitted to the Attorney General a procedure for the enforcement of this Act, which involved this very bond that is now taken, and the former Attorney General suggested that the Department of Public Assistance should expedite selection from relief recipients by requiring them to furnish bonds.

Every quotation in those whereas clauses is taken from the official records of the last administration—every single one. When this resolution was introduced originally by the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, it was very obviously for the purpose of trying to embarrass this administration, because of the objections that has been raised to the requirements that relief recipients sign a bond.

When we discovered that this bond was a bond suggested by the former Attorney General and was taken pursuant to an Act passed in the last administration, it is very obvious it was thought best that the people know why this bond was being required and the story back of it.

We are in this resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Department of Public Assistance to immediately discontinue the use of this bond, and this resolution states why—namely, that an Act has been now introduced by this administration to amend the Act of 1937, and the Department is preparing agreements to take the place of the bond, and the bond will be discontinued as soon as this amended Act is passed, and we therefore call upon them not to wait until the amended Act is passed to discontinue the use of this bond which is so distasteful to my friend, the Senator from Westmoreland Mr. Dent, and the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, and the rest of them. It has nothing to do with the Van Allsburg bill but is intended to lay before the people of this State or anybody who reads the resolution the correct history back of this resolution.

I therefore ask my colleagues to vote down this motion.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, Section 4 of Act 397, which was known as the Relief Act of 1937, this particular section is in that Act, first, because the Constitution so prescribes and, second, because we were interested in stopping, if we could, any relief chiseling, and if we found persons who were chiselers on relief rolls we made it possible for any public agency to sue for the amount that they had received

The Attorney General in his opinion says that they could ask for a signature on the bond, but I submit that as a layman that the language of Section 4 is very clear, and in the interest of trying to give a decent break on this vote I am going to read this section which my colleague says is used for a basis upon which to demand the bond signature.

"Any public body or public agency may sue for monies so expended and any judgment obtained shall be a lien upon the real estate of such indigent persons and be collected as other judgments."

There is nothing in this Act—nowhere in this Act does it say that the lien must be placed before the suit. There is nothing in the Act that says a judgement note must be demanded before the expenditure of the money. This judgment note of $5,000 is a judgment note and a lien upon a debt that is not yet incurred.

In my county there have been eleven hundred persons who were discovered to be so-called chiselers, and under this 1937 Act—Section 4, we recovered in our county $62,000, from those persons. It is unwise to change that provision of the subsistence act because we have to have some legal measure by which we can collect monies from persons who deliberately accept money when they have funds of their own. But I submit, Mr. President and members of this Senate, that this particular clause does not in any way serve a mandate upon the Department of Public Assistance to go out and get the signature, of persons receiving relief, on a $5,000 bond, and so, when I ask that the whereas clauses be striken out I only followed the example set by the Committee on Welfare and Pensions when they struck out the whereas clauses from my resolutions that were not nearly as pointedly political. I covered in those relief clauses what I thought was a condition and some of the effects of that condition upon future Pennsylvanians.

I did not name any particular party but did name the Secretary because he had issued the order, and you are coming at a late date in here with a resolution that is nothing but purely political, in that you say by passing this resolution what you have already said when the relief visitors in my county and I believe in every county in the state, go out and tell the people on relief, "We are only obeying the law, the Democrats are forcing you to sign this bond." That is exactly what happens in my county and I do object to it because the Act did not enforce the signature on this bond, and if the Attorney General says it does that is merely the opinion of one man. We will probably have another Attorney General some day that will say different, and so when I ask to strike out the whereas clauses you come down to the meat of the whole resolution and say "Resolved, if the House of Representatives concur, that the Secretary of Public Assistance, in view of that fact, be directed to immediately discontinue the use of such bonds," and if you are interested in the discontinuation of this bond you will vote for this particular motion of mine but if you are interested in the politics of it then you will follow the leader.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Very gladly, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, can the Senator from Tioga tell us the meaning of the last whereas clause of this resolution?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will read it for the information of the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska.

Whereas The Department of Public Assistance proposes upon the enactment of said act to abandon the use of said bond and to substitute in lieu thereof an agreement carrying out the provisions of said proposed amended act now therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Secretary of Public Assistance in view of the above facts be directed to immediately discontinue the use of said bond.

Mr. HALUSKA. Does that mean, Mr. President, rather than the signing a bond entering some agreement, signing a note?

Mr. OWLETT. No, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Is it the same proposition, Mr. President?

Mr. OWLETT. It is not, Mr. President, it means that will not be required, and the department has already made plans to discontinue the use of this bond as soon as the act is amended.

Now, for the further information of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, I would like to read the opinion itself of Attorney General Guy K. Bard, written at the request of the Department of Public Assistance, for the Department of Public Assistance in 1938, during the last administration which prepared this bond. The story is that they prepared the bond and started to use it and then—that was near election time, so they discontinued it until after election, and they prepared the bond on the basis of this opinion of Attorney General Bard and I would like to read a little part of it.

"It seems to be highly important that the Department of Public Assistance should expedite collections from relief recipients by requiring them to furnish bonds containing a clause for the confession of judgment, thereby eliminating the necessity of bringing suit against relief recipients. We understand that such practice will mean the saving of large sums of money (this is Attorney General Guy K. Bard speaking) on the part of the Commonwealth, both in setting up the claims and as to the number of employes who would be required for such collections.

"The question of whether or not suits should be filed or that executions should issue in any particular instances would be a matter within the discretion of the Department of Public Assistance, but any action on the part of the Public Assistance Board which would set up as a policy a determination to forego all claims for general assistance and for aid to dependent children would run counter to the public interest and deny to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania potential collections aggregating many thousands of dollars. Such action on the part of the State Board of Public Assistance would be an abuse of discretion or power which would, in all probability, lay such board open to charges of nonfeasance if not malfeasance in office.

"It is, therefore, our conclusion, and you are accordingly advised, that the State Board of Public Assistance is without discretionary power which would justify their setting up a policy which would forego all claims against relief recipients who had received general assistance or involving aid to dependent children."

Now we can agree, Mr. President, with the gentleman on the left that a bond is not required by the Act, but the Act does require that the Department of Public Assistance collect back from the people receiving relief by judgment obtained and obtaining a lien on the property. That is in the Act passed in 1937 by the former administration.

Now, Attorney General Guy K. Bard came along and suggested they would save a lot of money if they used this judgment bond. We are saying this, too, we want to stop it, but we do not want it sopped in the manner stated in the resolution just laid on the table, because it does not correctly state facts. This bond was prepared by the former administration pursuant to a suggestion of the former Attorney General and it was used, but plans have been made by the present administration to change it and that is the whole story.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, may I further interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, is it not a fact that if this resolution should pass that will mean the elimination of the bond; is that correct?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I am not sure that either of these resolutions would compel the department to do it. I understand they propose if we pass it to immediately discontinue the use of it. The resolution says this: "Resolved That the Secretary of Public Assistance in view of the above facts be directed to immediately discontinue the use of said bond." The preamble shows they plan to do it after a certain act has been passed, which is now introduced—we call upon them to immediately discontinue it. Now, if we pass the resolution the bond is finished and that is all there is to it.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, assuming the resolution shall pass and the bond shall be discontinued, does the Senator from Tioga have any knowledge as to what type of agreement the relief clients must enter into before they can receive relief; because in the last whereas clause it states that they must enter into an agreement. Do you know what type of an agreement that would be?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, I shall state that the Secretary showed some of us a tentative agreement, which has not yet been finally approved, which they were going to suggest be used, if the Board approved. This agreement provides that no money can be collected back from a relief recipient who owns real estate out of the home or furnishings so long as the relief recipient lives or so long as the dependent widow lives, or so long as dependent children live who are dependent on relief—nor can it be taken from his wages after he gets a job.

In other words, it obviously takes the relief recipient who by this act is compelled to refund the money, it protects him as long as he lives and directs that judgment shall not be in force for the repayment of relief against the real and personal property of the recipient, comprising his home and furnishings during the life-time of such receipient, and it also applies to the widow as long as she lives and to the dependent children until they are self-supporting, and it further provides that it shall not be taken out of the wages; it thoroughly protects the relief recipients from losing their homes.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, as I understand the most important part of this bill it will be an agreement which one must enter into at the time relief is applied for, and I understand now from the remarks made by the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, that one must enter into some type of an agreement, and that this agreement holds good only while that person is living, the minute he or she might die, if they had a little homestead, that homestead, according to this new agreement, will become the property of this government.

Again I say that is un-Democratic, unpatriotic and un-American, an aged person or a young person applying for relief, and because he or she may have a little property that is no reason why we should say to them that they must enter into some type of agreement that when they die that property shall become our property.

The only ambition of a person today, and that is particularly true of an aged person that has a property, who has been aggressive to own that property and hand that property down to ones left behind them and, under this agreement as I understand it, that property becomes confiscated by the government and becomes the property of the government and I certainly object to any such agreement.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the trouble with the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, is that he apparently does not realize under the act they passed in 1937 they are not protected five minutes. Under this act, the State can sue and take the home at any time, as soon as they find they have some real estate, and they must obtain a lien.

Under this law as passed by the Democratic administration in 1937 they will lose the home right away. We want to protect that home not only for them but for their dependent children and the widow.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I have always been told that two wrongs never make one right. If the 1937 Session of the Legistlature made a mistake certainly that is no reason why we should follow through, and two wrongs never made a right in 1937 and two wrongs will not make a right in 1939.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I merely rise to clear up what I think is a lot of misunderstanding. May I say preliminarily that it is unfortunate that we ought to permit a subject as important as this to be tarred with party spirit or political spirit from one side or the other.

I recall very distinctly when the act of 1937 was passed, and if the Republican members of this Senate will go back to the Journal of the day that the act was passed they will find that every Republican, to a man, that was here voted for that bill—for that act of Assembly.

I think there were just a few from the Democratic side that voted against the passage of this bill but that is neither here nor there whenever we come to grips with the seriousness of the subject. As I said, I deplore the fact and anyone else should deplore the fact that politics is injected into consideration of such a vital problem. The Act of 1937, there is no question, provided that a bond may be required before relief was granted, but you read that act nowhere in that act do you find that it provides that a judgment bond was required, and the opinion of the last Attorney General Guy K. Bard, did say that it would save the Commonwealth considerable money if a judgment clause was included, yet the truth and the fact remains that the Department of Public Assistance, under the last Administration, did not resort to that kind of a bond, and notwithstanding Mr. Bard's opinion, I am sure that the more sober-minded people of the last Administration held back the imposition of such a bond on the relief recipients.

Now, there is no use of trying to escape what is factual. The bond, with the judgment clause, was not enforced until this administration; for, mark you this, the same bond, with the judgment clause, was enforced during the last administration why the furore from these relief recipients arising at this time? They did not say anything about the bond they signed under the old administration, the past administration; why all the furore now? Why are they complaining now? What form of a bond, Mr. President what form of an order has this administration issued that has raised this furore among the relief recipients?

I say, members of this Senate, lets us forget politics; let us not blame one side or the other side in such a vital problem as this. What care we about politics or who is to blame? Surely we ought to be in accord that a relief recipient should not be required to sign a judgment bond that can be entered against him even before there is any liability of any kind.

I can easily understand why a judgment clause should be put in a bond when there has been a liability already established, but in the case of a relief recipient we give them the relief award and there is no liability attached to that unless he has obtained that relief award through fraud or, as we commonly term it, chiseling. So, why argue it?

I cannot agree with the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, that we ought to strike out the whereas clauses, because if you strike out the whereas clauses the resolve resolution does not show what you mean by resolving that the Secretary of Public Assistance discontinue the bond. What bond? Unless there is something that goes before that resolution, before that "resolve" clause, that shows what bond is meant?

It is true—I agree with the gentleman from Westmoreland—that these whereas clauses are political in nature, nearly as much as his whereas clauses were political in nature; but we must all agree that this order by Mr. Russell should be modified, it should be eliminated held in check until this General Assembly, by appropriate legislation, shall determine just what should be the decision on this important subject.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, being convinced by the argument put up by my colleague, I am going to withdraw my motion to strike out all the whereas clauses. I have conceived another idea.

MOTION TO STRIKE OUT CERTAIN WHEREAS CLAUSES

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that the first whereas clause, the second whereas clause, the third, whereas clause, the fourth whereas clause, the fifth whereas clause, and the seventh whereas clause be stricken from the resolution.

Then in order to explain, it we have this:

"Whereas, the present Department of Public Assistance has recommended, and pursuant to said recommendations a bill has been introduced to amend the Act of 1937 so that only the real and personal property of recipients owned at the time relief is granted, or required during the period of such grants, is liable for such repayment; and, providing also that any judgment obtained for the repayment of relief shall not be enforced against the real and personal property after recipients comprising his home and furnishings during the lifetime of such recipients."

Now, that is not illegal; that does what you want it to do; does it not?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I will second the motion again.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his point of order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, there is a motion pending.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair first wants to know whether the seconder of the first motion from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will withdraw his second of it.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I withdraw my second to the first motion, and second the second motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, cannot do two things at one time.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I withdraw my seconding of the first motion of my colleague from Westmoreland.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, withdraws his motion; and the seconder of that motion withdraws his seconding of it. Therefore the first motion is withdrawn, and the Chair will now entertain the second motion.

MOTION TO STRIKE OUT WHEREAS CLAUSES

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I now move that the first whereas clause, the second whereas clause, the third whereas clause, the fourth whereas clause, the fifth whereas clause, and the seventh whereas clause, be striken from this resolution.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am at a loss to understand why the motion to strike out the whereas clauses in this resolution. This resolution proposes to correct the situation surrounding this bond evil, and as yet I have heard no comment as to any portion of the whereas clauses being incorrect. This bond situation is something that has been spread upon the record through this resolution, and the comment of the Attorney General, through an official opinion, was read by the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett. It is well known that every department officer is bound by the Attorney General's ruling.

Now, the Attorney General, who handed down the opinion read by the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, very pointedly suggested it would be easier for the Department of Justice to collect these claims if they had a judgment note on which to proceed, and then they could go in and confess judgment without any necessity of entering suit.

It is well known that under the Act of 1937 this was so and therefore the Commonwealth had a claim or right of action against the recipient of this relief, for money paid out to them and later on all the Attorney General suggested was that they get a judgment note; they would not have the need or necessity of going into the Court of Common Pleas and suing the recipient for the amount of relief he had received and, acting upon that suggestion the Department issued a bond.

Now, in this resolution we are specifically taking the position that we are against this bond, we are against the judgment clause in any kind of agreement, an if they sign the agreement as suggested in the resolution it is merely acknowledging the claim which the Commonwealth has against them under the present law; if the Department of Welfare or the Department of Public Assistance, rather writes into that agreement a judgment clause, a confession of judgment, that is, once more, a bond, and we are against it.

I think the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, has correctly stated the position what we are interested in is to tell the Department of Public Assistance it has to stop using those bonds, and that is what this resolution does, and there has not been any statement that the whereas clauses do not correctly state the background.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President,

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, point to the part of section 4 of the Act of 1937 that would warrant the construction that the Department of Public Assistance can require a judgment bond?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman's question, the Department of Public Assistance proferred this matter as a question of law to the Department of Justice, and the Attorney General, answering that question, stated that the Department of Public Assistance could not forego the claims. That was a specific conclusion and in that conclusion I think the average lawyer will agree.

The Department of Justice, however, in a mere dictum of opinion, which was furnished to the Department of Public Assistance, suggested if they would get a judgment clause with a confession judgment clause in it, it would eliminate the necessity of bringing suit against relief recipients. There is nothing in the law, Mr. President, that requires a bond. It was merely in the opinion of the Attorney General.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does the gentleman from Allegheny agree with that dictum or recommendation of the Attorney General?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, it is not my prerogative to take exception to the law as laid down by the Attorney General. We might disagree.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I take it, from the words of the gentleman from Allegheny himself that that is merely a suggestion of the Attorney General and not an official opinion on the section itself. What I am interested in correcting is the statement of the gentleman from Allegheny that there is nothing wrong with the whereas clauses, and I am trying to get the gentleman from Allegheny to either agree or disagree with me, that if the Act of Assembly can now be construed to mean that the Department of Public Assistance can require a judgment bond, whether or not these whereas clauses are then wrong, or a number of them are wrong.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the whereas clauses specifically state that the Attorney General of the Commonwealth, in the form of an opinion, suggested the use of the bond, and that is borne out by the records of the Department of Justice, because that formal opinion has already been spread on the record. There is nothing in the Act that says use a bond, and the Attorney General merely suggested it would expedite collection of the claims if they had a judgment bond, without need or necessity of bringing suit. It is under the law that they cannot forego or excuse the claim, and there is nothing in there that says they must use a bond. That came from the Attorney General and was adopted by the Department. Personally, I think it was a very bad provision, and should be eliminated, and that is just what this resolution does.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman admit that at least the outgoing administration did not enforce that dictum of the Attorney General?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I will not attempt to condone or condemn any of the actions of the outgoing administration; I am only responsible for what has happened since January 3, 1939, in my district.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, as I have listened to the debate put on by the attorneys in the Senate, and still being a layman, I claim that the serious whereas clause in this resolution is only in there for the purpose of saying, in substance, to the persons on relief, that the past administration passed an Act which compells us to force them to sign a bond.

Now, Mr. President, the official opinion of the Attorney General does not in any way instruct the Department of Public Assistance to issue a bond—only as a suggestion, which I may say was probably prompted by the Department head who at that time I believe was Mr. Schweinitz, the able teacher of the present Secretary of Public Assistance.

As I understand it, the whereas clauses, outside of the one I am allowing to remain in the bill, are purely political whereas clauses, and only tend to give the impression that this is an act forced upon this administration by an act of the preceding administration.

Mr. WALKER. The gentleman from Allegheny admits there is nothing in that Act that forces the signing on the bond, he admits it is only a suggestion of the Attorney General, and we in the Senate who voted for that bill should not be condemned for this resolution, for having voted for something that someone has interpreted to suit himself. We voted for it in order to be able to collect money from relief chiselers; and I have shown you where we did collect money from relief chiselers under this Act, and it should not be changed; let us admit it is a political resolution, and proceed with the voting.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, the resolution states that it is the intention of the Secretary to discontinue the use of this bond. The resolution that he quotes also states there is nothing compulsory in the issuance of the bond. I then inquire what is the necessity of this resolution at all? The secretary has authority to discontinue the use of the bond. The opinion of the Attorney General is only advisory. The Act does not compel; what is the necessity of this resolution?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I shall be very glad to answer that. The sole necessity is because this whole thing had been stirred up by the resolution introduced by the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, trying to embarrass this administration, and by passing a resolution calling upon the Secretary of Public Assistance to discontinue this, when he planned to do so anyway; and we concluded that if there had to be a resolution of that kind it ought to state the facts.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, in view of the fact that from both sides of the House we get the declaration that both these resolutions are purely political in nature I move that this resolution be laid on the table.

The PRESIDENT. There are two motions now before the Senate.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the motion of the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, be laid on the table.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

MOTION TO LAY RESOLUTION No. 4 ON THE TABLE

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I now move that Resolution No. 4 be laid upon the table.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. OWLETT. I object, Mr. President.

Mr. PRESIDENT. I move the previous question.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT, and were as follows viz:

YEAS—12

Cavalcante,	DiSilvestro,	Gilson,	McCreesh,
Coleman,	Eroe,	Jaspan,	Rice,
Dent,	Frey,	Lanius,	Stiefel,

NAYS—27

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Letzler,	Stevenson,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Tallman,

Crowe,	Geltz,	Miller,	Thomas,
Dando,	Haluska,	Owlett,	Walker,
Deitrick,	Heyburn,	Pierson,	Wolfenden,
Daly,	Homsher,	Scarlett,	Woodward,
Edmonds,	James,	Snowden,

So the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, wish to speak on this same subject. The Chair has been very lenient on this matter and the Chair has been criticised.

Mr. DENT. For which I thank the Chair.

MOTION TO STRIKE OUT WHEREAS CLAUSES

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I now move that whereas clause Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 be stricken from the resolution before the Senate. I leave another whereas clause in.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. It has been moved by the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, and seconded by the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, that whereas clauses Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 be stricken from the resolution.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the motion be laid on the table.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker. I would like to ask him one more question.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, did I understand the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, to say he was opposed to any bond or any judgment clause whatsoever in any agreement? Is that correct?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, my answer to that is "yes."

Mr. HALUSKA. Then, Mr. President, does the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, have knowledge of a clause of that nature in the agreement now pertaining to the properties of aged or relief clients after death?

Mr. WALKER. As I understand it, Mr. President, at the present time there is a bond required; and I am against it.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I am asking the Senator from Allegheny whether he has knowledge of the new agreement as outlined by the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the new agreement I have not seen, and I do not know whether it contains a judgment clause and if it has a judgment clause in it I am against it.

Then the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

CONSIDERATION OF THE CALENDAR

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the calendar.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that further consideration of Senate Bill No. 376, (House Bill No. 74), on third reading entitled:

An Act to amend section two hundred and seventy-eight and to repeal section two hundred and eighty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" as amended providing for the appointment the term and compensation of county detectives in counties of the fifth class.

to postponed for the present.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 474, entitled:

An Act to amend a part of section one of the act approved the fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy) entitled "An act to regulate and establish the fees to be charged by justices of the peace and aldermen in this Commonwealth and imposing liability for cost upon the county in certain cases" providing for the payment of costs in dismissed summary conviction proceedings.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL 474.

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 11, by striking out the words: S "or by the defendant"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading, as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 25, entitled:

An Act extending the time for presentation for payment of unemployment relief orders cancelled for non-presentation within the prescribed time.

An Act relating to chicks and ducklings prohibiting the artificial coloring and sale thereof and providing penalties.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I notice this is an Act relating to chicks and ducklings—prohibiting artificial coloring and sale thereof, and providing penalties.

I wonder if the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Eroe, has inquired into the constitutionality of such an act; and I am particularly interested in that because if we can prevent chicks and ducklings from being colored, I have been wondering whether or not on the same theory we cannot prevent the women from using rouge and lipstick.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—35

Bartlett,	Edmonds,	James,	Rice,

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, this bill has a very long title, but this bill is to the effect, after the Milk Control Commission may make its various orders then, without anyone approving them, they take effect. Now, the way the present Act reads, it gives the Governor the power of veto over those orders.

I cannot go along with this bill; I think that the commission, the Milk Control Commission, should not be given the absolute authority to make its orders without somebody—

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Section 1109 of the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 624) entitled "An act relating to the business of banking and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers and of banking corporations with or without fiduciary powers including the conversion of National banks into State banks and for the licensing of private bankers defining the rights powers duties liabilities and immunities of such corporations of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business with or without fiduciary powers of private bankers and of the officers directors trustees shareholders attorneys and other employes of all such corporations or private bankers or of affiliated corporations associations or persons restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation association or person and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts prothonotaries recorders of deeds and certain State departments commissions and officers imposing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts" as amended by the act approved the fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1675) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1109 Common Trust Funds A A trust company or a bank and trust company in its trust department may establish and maintain one or more common trust funds The term "common trust fund" as used in this section shall mean a fund maintained by a trust company or a bank and trust company for the collective investment and reinvestment of moneys of estates contributed thereto by the trust company or bank and trust company as fiduciary The term "estate" or "estates" as used in this section shall include any trust or other fund administered by the trust company or bank and trust company as trustee committee or guardian

B If the instrument under which a trust company or bank and trust company acts as fiduciary whether such fiduciary capacity arose before or is created after this act takes effect shall limit or restrict the investment of moneys of the estate in securities of the class authorized by law as legal investments the trust company or bank and trust company may in its capacity as sole fiduciary or with the consent of any person acting with it in a fiduciary capacity invest and reinvest moneys of the estate in any such common trust fund maintained by the trust company or bank and trust company provided the securities composing such fund consist solely of securities of the class authorized as legal investments for funds held by fiduciaries

If the instrument under which a trust company or bank and trust company acts as fiduciary whether such fiduciary capacity arose before or is created after this act takes effect shall authorize the investment of moneys of the estate in a common trust fund or in investments other than those designated by law as legal investments or shall authorize the trust company or bank and trust company either alone or in conjunction with any person acting with it in a fiduciary capacity to exercise its or their discretion with respect to the investment of moneys of the estate the trust company or bank and trust company may in its capacity as sole fiduciary or with the consent of any person acting with it in a fiduciary capacity invest and reinvest moneys of the estate in any such common trust fund maintained by the trust company or bank and trust company Any such common trust fund consisting solely of moneys of estates contributed thereto by the trust company or bank and trust company pursuant to authority contained in any such instruments creating the fiduciary capacity to invest moneys of the estates in a common trust fund or in investments other than such legal investments or pursuant to such discretionary power with respect to the investment of moneys of the estates as contained in any such instruments creating the fiduciary capacity may be composed of securities and investments other than those of the class designated by law as legal investments for funds held by fiduciaries including common and preferred stocks

Bonds secured by mortgages and other securities of the class authorized by law as legal investments for fiduciaries shall be deemed proper investments for any such common trust funds provided however that no investment for a common trust fund shall be made in bonds secured by mortgages which would cause the total amount of the investment for such fund in bonds secured by mortgages to exceed forty per centum of the value of all the assets comprising such fund

No moneys of any one estate in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars shall be invested in any one or more of such common trust funds as may be maintained by a trust company or bank and trust company In applying this limitation if two or more trusts are created by the same settlor or settlors and as such as one-half of the income or principal or both of each trust is payable or applicable to the use of the same person or persons such trusts shall be considered as one

C The bank and trust company or the trust company shall invest the moneys of an estate in such common trust fund by adding the same thereto and by apportioning a participation therein to such estate in the proportion that the moneys of the estate added thereto bears to the aggregate value of all the assets of such fund at the time of such investment including in such assets the moneys of the estate so added The withdrawal of a participation from such common trust fund shall be on the basis of its proportionate interest in the aggregate value of all the assets of such fund at the time of such withdrawal The participating interest of any estate in such common trust funds may from time to time be withdrawn in whole or in part by the trust company or bank and trust company and shall be so withdrawn within a period of three months following the written request so to do of any person acting with the trust company or bank and trust company in a fiduciary capacity Upon such withdrawals the trust company or bank and trust company may make distribution in cash or ratably in kind or partly in cash and partly in kind provided that all such distributions as of any one time shall be made on the same basis Participations in such common trust funds shall not be sold to any corporation or person but shall be held solely by the bank and trust company or the trust company as fiduciary and the proportionate undivided interests therein shall be owned solely by the estates of which such bank and trust company or such trust company is fiduciary

If a bond or other obligation for the payment of money is acquired as an investment for any such common trust fund at a cost in excess of the par of maturity value thereof the trust company or bank and trust company may during but not beyond the period that such obligation is held as an investment in such fund amortize such excess cost out of the income on such obligation by deducting from each payment of income and adding to principal an amount equal to the sum obtained by dividing such excess cost by the number of periodic payments of income to accrue on such obligation from the date of such acquisition until its maturity date

D Such bank and trust company or such trust company shall designate clearly upon its records the names of the estates on behalf of which such bank and trust company or trust company as fiduciary owns a participation in any such common trust fund and the extent of the interest of the estate therein No such estate shall be deemed to have individual ownership of any security in such common trust fund but shall be deemed to have a proportionate undivided interest in the common trust fund The ownership of the individual bonds or other securities comprising any such common trust fund shall be solely in the trust company or bank and trust company as fiduciary

The bank and trust company or the trust company may issue a certificate of participation for any estate whose funds are invested in any such common trust fund Such certificates shall state on its face that it is issued without guarantee by the issuing bank and trust company or trust company of the payment of either principal or interest that it will be paid only when funds become available out of the securities comprising the common trust fund It shall also state any other important condition covering such situation

The bank and trust company or the trust company shall have the exclusive management and control of any such common trust fund and the sole right at any time to sell convert exchange transfer or otherwise change or dispose of the securities and investments comprising any such common trust fund

E Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize a trust company or bank and trust company to invest moneys of an estate in any such common trust fund contrary to any specific limitation or restriction contained in the will deed or other instrument creating the fiduciary relationship nor to limit or restrict the authority conferred upon the trust company or bank and trust company with respect to investments by any such instrument

No mistakes made in good faith and in the exercise of due care and prudence in connection with the administration of any such common trust fund shall be held to exceed any power granted to or violate any duty imposed upon a trust company or bank and trust company as fiduciary

F This section shall not be construed to affect a pool or fund of securities created by a bank and trust company or a trust company prior to the third day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three nor shall the provisions of this section relating to mortgage investment funds be construed to apply to or limit or restrict the operation of any common trust fund established by a trust company or bank and trust company pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this section within thirty days of the effective date of this act and the tax shall be levied by and paid to such county and as herein provided

The title of the bill was read as follows and agreed to:

An Act to amend the act approved the seventeenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 507) entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes and in cities coextensive with counties for city and county purposes imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property providing for the assessment and collection of the same providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes" as amended by defining clarifying and limiting certain exemptions imposing the tax upon the value of certain equitable interests personal property held or possessed by certain executors administrators and fiduciaries and by employees thrift or savings associations personal property held by trustees for religious charitable and educational organizations personal property held for non-residents and foreign corporations under certain circumstances and by making further provision for the return and payment of the tax by executors administrators trustees agents and attorneys-in-fact.

And said bill as amended having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Erie, Mr. Gilson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Erie, Mr. Gilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Erie, Mr. Gilson, if I correctly understand that these amendments now exempt the assets of a closed bank in the hands of a trustee from the personal property tax.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, not entirely; they exempt from the county personal property tax the assets in the commercial department of a closed bank, which is a modification of the amendment offered yesterday, which exempted all the assets in the hands of a liquidator or a trustee or a fiduciary of a closed bank.

This has been restricted now to practically what amounts to depositor's interest in those estates in interest-bearing securities or other securities in the trust department. Any securities in the trust departments are not effected by this amendment.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I am not going to enter into a lengthy discussion of this matter, but simply want to call my colleague's attention to the fact, first, that these amendments were offered to the state personal property tax act and were rejected; and, second, that they affect revenue which the counties will receive from the personal tax and will make it different in that respect from the state personal property tax; and, thirdly, the amount of revenue involved I do not know, but I personally can see no reason for exempting the assets of a closed bank in the hands of a trustee when those same depositors, if they owned those same assets, would have to pay a tax on them. Nevertheless, if it is the wish of the Senate to exempt them, I do not believe the loss would be particularly serious.

Personally I am going to vote "no", because I think if we have a bad law, we had better not make it worse by discriminating in favor of some people and making others pay. However, I do not think it is sufficiently important to have a long discussion on the matter. I just wanted the Senators to be sure they know what they are doing.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I entirely agree with the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, and I particularly agree with him that it is always a mistake, or a hazard, to amend a taxing act on final passage; but in this instance there is an injustice from which a great many of the citizens of our State are suffering.

Depositors in a closed bank administered by the Secretary of Banking, know that those assets do not pay a four mills tax to the counties; where they are administered by a trustee, they know that they do have to pay. In most cases the depositor does not get back one hundred per cent so that practically this is diminution of the principal, and not of income at all; and therefore it seems to me, if it is not a big amount, it would be relieving our taxing system of an obvious injustice if we accept the amendment of the Senator from Erie.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading as amended,

It was agreed to.

And said bill as amended having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 381, (House Bill No. 284), entitled:

An Act to amend clause (d) of section two of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. The House met at 12 noon.

The SPEAKER (Ellwood J. Turner) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas George Baxter, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, may the tides of Thy grace flow freely through the channels of our lives. According to Thy will direct the labor of our hands, the emotions of our hearts, the thoughts of our minds, and the purposes of our wills. Help us to yield ourselves to the influence, the inspiration, and the instruction of the Galilean Teacher. Light the altars of our hearts with the flame of Thy love, that the learned may lift up the lowly, the strong may stoop to the needs of the weak. O let us so do our work from day to day that we shall receive the blessings of labors well done and of burdens faithfully borne. May none of us forget our mothers or memory of her on this coming Mothers' Day. And when our earth's day's work is done, may our tired feet range through the green valleys, watered by the infinite showers of love, truth, justice, and mercy as revealed by Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Amen.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented the following extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows, viz:

In the Senate, May 8, 1939.

Joseph Saxton, a former resident of Huntingdon, was one of the world's most outstanding inventors.

Joseph Saxton, without benefit of higher education, was nevertheless a prolific inventor. His scientific skill and mechanical ingenuity won him recognition on two continents. As one of the fifty charter members of the National Academy of Sciences he did much to foster the early development of American Industry.

Among his most famous inventions are the first magneto-electric machine (forerunner of the modern electric generator) and the metallic cartridge which revolutionized the world's weapons. Scores of other inventions were the product of his fertile imagination.

A native of Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, a citizen of Philadelphia, and in later years a resident of Washington, D. C., he contributed in no small measure to the advancement of his state and his nation. Never did he invent for pecuniary gain. He gave liberally of his labors apparently without thought of reward. His works elicited comments from the eminent scientists of his day, such as Michael Farady and the British engineers, Telford and Brunel, with all of whom he was intimately acquainted.

These achievements reflect great honor upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and are worthy of being commemorated in some fitting manner by the Commonwealth.

The fitting commemoration of outstanding achievements performed by native Pennsylvanians acts as an incentive to others to perform meritorious service; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Pennsylvania Historical Commission is hereby authorized to obtain or prepare a suitable memorial to commemorate the noteworthy achievements of the said Joseph Saxton, a former Pennsylvanian, and erect or place the same at a suitable place in the Capitol Building at Harrisburg

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

COMMUNICATIONS

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communications which were read by the Clerk.

ALIEN REGISTRATION

Resolutions from citizens of Philadelphia opposing House Bill No. 134.

Referred to the Committee on Labor.

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

Petitions from citizens of Philadelphia advocating the passage of House Bill No. 206.

Referred to the Committee on Welfare.

TEACHERS' TENURE

Resolutions from the Miller Memorial Baptist Church of Philadelphia;
The Women's Overseas Service League of Philadelphia;
The Wood, Wire and Metal Lathers Union of Philadelphia;
The Commercial Refrigerators Union of Philadelphia;
The State, County and Municipal Workers, Local 46, of Philadelphia;
The Independent Teachers' Association of Lackawanna County; opposing any measure which would tamper with the present Teacher Tenure Act.

Referred to the Committee on Education.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILLS Nos. 436 AND 437

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 10, 1939.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed the following:

RESOLUTIONS

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1074 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. WOODSIDE offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 11, 1939.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 374, Printer's No. 615, entitled "An act to amend section three of article one and section forty of article four of the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws 521) entitled as amended 'An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death defining and taxing transfers made in contemplation of death defining as a transfer and taxing the right of survivorship in property as to which such right exists and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid and providing penalties and citing certain acts for repeal' providing for the release of lien of inheritance tax on remainder interests in real estate in certain cases by entry of security therefor and providing for the repayment of taxes paid in excess of amount due on future estates," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 374 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. HABBYSHAW offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 11, 1939.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 1074, Printer's No. 387, entitled "An act to amend sections one and two of the act approved the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 2460) entitled 'An act creating a joint legislative commission to be known as the Joint State Government Commission providing for the appointment of its members and defining its powers and duties' changing the numbers and terms of members further defining their powers and duties and terminating the terms of members now in office," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED

Mr. SARGE offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 10, 1939.

Gabriel H. Moyer, of Palmyra, a former Member of this House, lawyer and former manager of the Workmen's Compensation Fund, and one of Lebanon County's best known and highly respected citizens, died from a heart attack, May 8th, in Hummelstown, Pennsylvania.

Born in Palmyra, November 9, 1873, the deceased received his early education in the public schools and the Palmyra Academy. He was graduated from Dickinson School of Law in 1898 and the next year, began the publishing of the Palmyra Record. Later, he served a short period as a deputy sheriff of Lebanon County. which position he resigned to practice law. Always a staunch Republican, the deceased was a delegate to the Republican State Convention in 1897 and 1901, became Chairman of the Republican County Committee in 1901 and served as a Member of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth during the 1905, 1907 and 1909 Sessions.

In addition to his political activities, Mr. Moyer was very active in civic, religious, and fraternal affairs. He was a director and officer of the Valley Trust Company of Palmyra, a member of the Lutheran Church, and a past State and National President of the P. O. S. of A., as well as a member of the Elks and Odd Fellows, therefore be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth, that the community in which he lived and the County of Lebanon have lost a resident who served it well during his public life and whose service in the interests of the people, will long be remembered and that the Members of this House extend to the widow who survives him, its deep and sincere sympathy, and be it further Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of this House shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Mrs. Gabriel H. Moyer, widow of the deceased.

MOTHER'S DAY

Messrs. ROSE and TARR offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 11, 1939.

Of all the days set apart and observed in commemoration of some special historical event as a day of celebration or thanksgiving, none stands out as more deserving of, and entitled to, observance than the one so close upon us.

On Sunday, May 14th, the Nation will observe Mother's Day.

No business or governmental agencies will close in special tribute, but the sons and daughters of the Nation will be gratefully remembering these mothers who bore them and guided them safely to maturity, with smiles of gladness for those who are still here and with tears of sadness for those who have gone.

The Nation has progressed and prospered and continues because of the goodness and greatness of the mothers who bore those who have guided its destiny.

There is no deeper, stronger, more enduring tie in all the world than that deathless love that ever exists in a mother's heart for her child.

It is that love which produces faith and trust and confidence for, as has been truly said, "Mother is the name for God in the life and hearts of children." therefore be it

Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that the Members of this House can today do no more worthy thing than to pause and pay tribute to those mothers who are responsible for our being here, whose deep love guided us securely in the ways that won for us the trust and confidence of our fellow men and who are responsible for any success that has or may be ours.

They have wept for us, prayed for us, slaved for us and fought for us and no more fitting lines can be penned as a tribute to their bravery than these of Joaquin Miller:

"The bravest battle ever was fought
Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not
It was fought by the mothers of men."

BIRTHDAY CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. BRUNNER and LLOYD H. WOOD offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 11, 1939.

Squire Boorse had a party last night.

Squire Boorse is none other than the Honorable Howard F. Boorse, a Member of this House from Lansdale in the County of Montgomery.

The party was a surprise party given by his wife and the occasion was his birthday.

There is no Pennsylvania Manual yet published from which his age can be ascertained, but it is plausible to conclude that he is upwards of twenty-one years of age.

The "Squire" has been a Justice of the Peace and the most gladsome light of jurisprudence in the Borough of Lansdale for many years, and it is also plausible to conclude that in his community he dispensed justice like unto Solomon, otherwise his constituents would not have sent him here to add his brilliance, founded upon his great store of wisdom, to the deliberations of this House; therefore be it

Resolved, By the Members of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, That we heartily congratulate our fellow Member, the Honorable "Squire" Howard F. Boorse upon the occurrence of his birthday and not only wish him many happy returns of the day, but we hope that they will often be celebrated here with us and that as his days grow longer, his parties will grow larger and more inclusive; and be it further

Resolved, That as a lasting souvenir of this particular birthday, a copy of this resolution shall be prepared and transmitted to the "Squire" by the Chief Clerk of this House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Boorse.

Mr. BOORSE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as Charlie Terry tells me, murder will out and how true that is. I want to thank you most heartily for your kind consideration of me on my twenty-first birthday.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is out of order. The Parliamentarian informs me that a gentleman who is just celebrating his twenty-first birthday is illegally on the floor.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Muir, to preside.

MR. MUIR IN THE CHAIR

BILLS ON FIRST READING

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1374, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two and four of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1168) entitled "An act to protect the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively creating the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board officers of the State government and courts providing for the rights of employes to organize and bargain collectively declaring certain labor practices by employers to be unfair further providing that representatives to a majority of the employes be the exclusive representatives of all the employes authorizing the board to conduct hearings and election and certify as to representatives of employes for purposes of collective bargaining empowering the board to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice and providing a procedure for such cases including the issuance of a complaint the conducting of a hearing and the making of an order empowering the board to petition a court of common pleas for the enforcement of its order and providing a procedure for such cases providing for the review of an order of the board by a court of common pleas on petition of any person aggrieved by such order and establishing a procedure for such cases providing for an appeal from the common pleas court to the Supreme Court providing the board with investigatory powers including the power to issue subpoenas and the compelling of obedience to them through application to the proper court providing for service of papers and process of the board prescribing certain penalties" restating the findings and policy in respect thereto prescribing further qualifications for and reducing the salaries of members of the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board and making rules and regulations of the board subject to the approval of the Secretary of Labor and Industry

The first section was read as follows:

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Sections two and four of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1168) entitled "An act to protect the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively creating the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board officers of the State government and courts providing for the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively declaring certain labor practices by employers to be unfair further providing that representatives of a majority of the employes be the exclusive representatives of all the employes authorizing the board to conduct hearings and elections and certify as to representatives of employes for purposes of collective bargaining empowering the board to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice and providing a procedure for such cases including the issuance of a complaint the conducting of a hearing and the making of an order empowering the board to petition a court of common pleas for the enforcement of its order and providing a procedure for such cases providing for the review of an order of the board by a court of common pleas on petition of any person aggrieved by such order and establishing a procedure for such cases providing for an appeal from the common pleas court to the Supreme Court providing the board with investigatory powers including the power to issue subpoenas and the compelling of obedience to them through application to the proper court providing for service of papers and process of the board prescribing certain penalties" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 Findings and Policy [(a) Under prevailing economic conditions individual employes do not possess full freedom of association or actual liberty of contract Employers in many instances organized in corporate or other forms of ownership associations with the aid of government authority have superior economic power in bargaining with employes This growing inequality of bargaining power substantially and adversely affects the general welfare of the State by creating variations and instability in competitive wage rates and working conditions within and between industries and by depressing the purchasing power of wage earners thus (1) creating sweat-shops with their attendant dangers to the health peace and morals of the people (2) increasing the disparity between production and consumption and (3) tending to produce and aggravate recurrent business depressions The denial by some employers of the right of employes to organize and the refusal by employers to accept the procedure of collective bargaining tend to lead to strikes lock-outs and other forms of industrial strife and unrest which are inimical to the public safety and welfare and frequently endanger the public health

(b) Experience has proved that protection by law of the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively removes certain recognized sources of industrial strife and unrest encourages practices fundamental to the friendly adjustment of industrial disputes arising out of differences as to wages hours or other working conditions and tends to restore equality of bargaining power between employers and employes

(c) In the interpretation and application of this act and otherwise it is hereby declared to be the public policy of the State to encourage the practice and procedure of collective bargaining and to protect the exercise by workers of full freedom of association self-organization and designation of representatives of their own choosing for the purpose of negotiating the terms and conditions of their employment or other mutual aid or protection free from the interference restraint or coercion of their employers] (a) Unsettled conditions between capital and labor whether the cause therefor lies on the one side or on the other seriously deters the forward movement of trade and industry It affects the obtaining of raw materials and the manufacture and processing of goods and commodities Production trade prices and wages are each indispensable one to the other Employment and wages exist only as the result of prosperous markets

(b) The elements tending towards industrial unrest are largely inequality of bargaining power and unwarranted practices on the part of persons in control of labor organizations Both have a direct and unfortunate bearing on the welfare of employers employes and the public

(c) The policy of this Commonwealth to minimize or totally abolish industrial dissension and to attain more perfect cooperation between employers and employes is hereby declared to be (a) to get at and eradicate the causes for dissension (b) to foster a greater degree of friendliness and understanding between capital and labor (c) to encourage and protect the right of collective bargaining and in connection therewith the voluntary association of employes their self-organization and their right to freely select their own representatives and (d) to restrain practices on the part of either side that tend towards inciting or prolonging labor difficulties and the resulting economic disturbances

(d) All the provisions of this act shall be liberally construed for the accomplishment of this purpose

(e) This act shall be deemed an exercise of the police power of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the protection of the public welfare prosperity health and peace of the people of the Commonwealth

Section 4 Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board Created

(a) There is hereby created a departmental administrative board in the department to be known as the "Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board" (hereinafter referred to as the "Board") which shall be composed of three members who shall be appointed by the Governor but with the advice and consent of two-thirds of all the members of the Senate Each member of the board at the time of his appointment shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and shall have been a qualified elector in the Commonwealth for a period of at least one year next preceding his appointment No member of the board during his period of service as such shall hold any other office under the law of this Commonwealth or of the United States nor shall he engage in any business or commercial enterprise of any kind nor be an officer in any labor organization or be engaged in any political activities One of the original members shall be appointed for a term of two years one for a term of four years and one for a term of six years but their successors shall be appointed for terms of six years each except that any individual chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he is to succeed The Governor shall designate one member to serve as chairman of the board

(b) A vacancy in the board shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of the board and two members of the board shall at all times constitute a quorum The board shall have an official seal of which courts shall take judicial notice

(c) The board shall at the end of every year make a report in writing to the Governor stating in detail the work it has done in hearing and deciding cases and otherwise and it shall sign and report in full an opinion in every case decided by it

(d) [Each member of the board shall receive a salary of nine thousand dollars ($9,000) a year and shall be eligible for reappointment] The chairman of the board shall receive a salary of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) per annum and the other members of the board shall receive a salary of seven thousand dollars ($7,000) per annum The members of the board shall be eligible for reappointment The employes of the board shall be appointed by the Secretary of Labor and Industry with the approval of the Governor The board may establish or use such voluntary and uncompensated services as may from time to time be needed

An Act relating to the Anthracite Industry creating the Pennsylvania Anthracite Commission establishing its jurisdiction powers and duties providing for an Anthracite Producers' Advisory Board regulating the production and marketing of anthracite within the Commonwealth assigning production quotas to producers of anthracite fixing minimum prices for the sale of anthracite by producers prescribing standards of sizing purity and grading for anthracite levying a tax on anthracite for administration expenses of such Commission and for the promotion of the sale of anthracite and the development of anthracite burning devices and additional uses for anthracite eliminating unfair discrimination in wage and hour standards in anthracite mining operations authorizing and permitting producers to organize and operate cooperative marketing organizations and corporations within the Commonwealth for the collective marketing of anthracite providing for the licensing of anthracite producers and for the granting refusal suspension and revocation of such licenses providing for appeals to the courts of the Commonwealth from the orders of said Commission creating a special fund in the State Treasury into which the taxes fees fines and penalties arising under the Act are to be paid appropriating the monies in said fund and making a temporary appropriation to said fund and providing penalties and remedies for violations of the provisions of the Act and the rules regulations and orders of the Commission

ARTICLE I

Legislative Findings Of Fact And Declaration of Policy Short Title Definitions

Section 1 Findings of Fact and Declarations of Policy The following legislative findings of fact and declaration of policy with respect to the Anthracite Industry are hereby made

The production and sale of anthracite is a basic industry vital to the economic and social life of this Commonwealth by virtue of the fact that practically all anthracite deposits within the United States are located within a narrow tract of land inside the Commonwealth Within this anthracite area there is invested more than four hundred millions of dollars devoted to the mining and preparation of anthracite and many more millions of dollars the taxable value of which and profitable use of which are in large part dependent on the volume of commerce arising from the Anthracite Industry More than one hundred thousand citizens of the Commonwealth are indirectly dependent upon this industry as their prime means of livelihood and many hundreds of thousands of such citizens are indirectly dependent in whole or in part upon this industry Practically 25% of the entire production of anthracite is consumed within the Commonwealth by persons who are dependent upon it as their chief source of fuel

During the period of the last ten years the consumption of anthracite within and outside of the Commonwealth and as a result the production thereof have decreased more than 35% because of the competition of other fuels and the effect of the economic depression throughout this Commonwealth and other anthracite burning areas To meet this situation many mining operations have been abandoned and others have been concentrated and made more efficient by the introduction of labor-saving machinery in order to lessen the cost of production

Said trends and changes in said industry have resulted in increasing unemployment part-time employment large operating losses depletion of reserves and in many cases bankruptcy Unrestrained and ruinous competition has developed among producers because of lack of legal authority for collective and cooperative action among producers to regulate and stabilize production and merchandise practices This condition has prevented an orderly and durable program for the permanent good of the Commonwealth and the Industry has led to practices of temporary expediency involving waste of this basic natural resource and the capital invested in the Industry and hardship to those dependent directly or indirectly upon the Industry

To meet the foregoing emergency it is necessary temporarily to provide ways and means whereby said Industry may act as a unit in meeting the competition of other fuels whereby economic pressure which has forced wasteful operation of many mines may be relieved whereby further depletion of financial reserves and impairment of taxable values may be prevented and the financial credit of the Industry restored whereby existing agencies for research work and promotional activities may be expanded for the purpose of regaining lost markets and developing new markets and whereby unemployment in the Industry may be reduced to a minimum

For these and other reasons it is declared that the production marketing and sale of anthracite in the Commonwealth is facing an emergency involving the public interests and that this Act is enacted to promote the general welfare to conserve anthracite as a natural resource and remove the economic pressure which results in wasteful methods of mining thereof to promote employment and security for the payment of wages of those employed in connection with the Anthracite Industry to protect capital invested therein from further depletion and dissipation to maintain the value of anthracite properties as a basis for taxation and to maintain and increase the volume of commercial activity within the Commonwealth

Section 2 Short Title This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Anthracite Control Act"

Section 3 Definitions and Interpretations The following words and phrases as used in this Act except where the context clearly indicates otherwise shall be construed to mean as follows

(1) "Anthracite" Anthracite mined in the counties of Carbon Columbia Dauphin Lackawanna Luzerne Northumberland Schuylkill Susquehanna and Wayne in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

(2) "Board", The Anthracite Producers' Advisory Board provided for under this Act

(3) "Breaker' or "Washery" A preparation plant in which run-of-mine anthracite is crushed washed and screened into commercial sizes for shipment to market

(4) "Commercial Sizes of Anthracite" The sizes of Anthracite sold to consumers and known as Broken Egg Stove Chestnut Pea Buckwheat Rice and Barley

(5) "Commission" The Pennsylvania Anthracite Commission created under this Act

(6) "Department of Mines" The Department of Mines of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

(7) "Lawfully Mined" Referring to anthracite which has been legally taken with the consent of the owner or lessee

(8) "Mine" An underground working from which anthracite is removed for preparation at a breaker or washery

(9) "Mining" The Act of removing run-of-mine anthracite from mine strippings or refuse banks

(10) "Producer" Any person engaged in the lawful mining of anthracite or the preparation of anthracite which has been lawfully mined or in both said mining and preparation

(11) "Refuse Bank" A surface deposit of refuse from old or abandoned breakers from which anthracite is reclaimed through modern methods of preparation at a breaker or washery

(12) "Run-of-Mine Anthracite" Anthracite as removed from a mine strippings or refuse bank to be sent to a breaker or washery for preparation into commercial sizes

(13) "Marketing Corporation" Any anthracite cooperative marketing corporation or association

(14) "Stripping" A surface excavation of overlying strata to recover a seam of underlying coal for preparation at a breaker washery

(2) The location of each of the breakers or washeries to be operated under the license and the location of each mine stripping or bank regularly supplying each said breaker or washery.

(3) The amount of anthracite of different sizes annually produced from each breaker or washery during the calendar year 1938 or such lesser period during which said breaker or washery has been operated

(4) The amount of anthracite of different commercial sizes shipped by rail the amount shipped by truck the amount marketed through wholesalers the amount marketed directly to consumers all during the calendar year 1938

(5) Number of employees employed by the producer in any phase of the mining or preparation of anthracite and the number of days worked by said employees in such detail as the Commission may require

(6) The amount of unsold anthracite on cars or in storage at the time of filing the application

(7) Such other facts with respect to all of the past or future business of the applicant in mining and preparing anthracite as may be required by the Commission to aid it in carrying out the provisions of this Act

The Commission may require any applicant to substantiate statements in his application by competent testimony under oath or affirmation

Section 403 Terms and Conditions of Licenses Every license issued by the Commission shall include in its terms and conditions the following

(1) That the licensee shall observe all the laws of the Commonwealth applicable to the operation of his business of mining and preparing anthracite including the provisions of this Act and all valid rules regulations and orders made and promulgated by the Commission

(2) That the licensee in mining and preparing anthracite shall pay the prevailing wage scale provided for in any collective bargaining agreement applicable to the area in which the respective operation is located

(3) That the licensee shall not knowingly receive or prepare anthracite which has been unlawfully mined or mined under a wage scale less than the prevailing wage scale provided for in any collective bargaining agreement applicable to the area in which the respective operation is located

(4) That the licensee make such reports and statements relative to its business of mining preparing and selling anthracite as may be required by the Commission

(5) That the licensee shall at all times make available to the Commission for inspection by its authorized representatives all papers books of account documents and records of any kind or character whatsoever relating to the business of the licensee in mining preparing and marketing anthracite which in the judgment of the Commission will aid the Commission in the enforcement of the provisions of this Act and the attainment of the purposes thereof

Section 404 Licensing New Operations

(a) No license shall be issued to start the operation of any breaker or washery which is not in operation at the time of the passage of this Act except upon the same terms and conditions upon which licenses to continue existing operations are issued and upon a showing of the following additional facts

(1) That the operation of the proposed breaker or washery and the mines strippings or banks to supply it will not normally result in a financial loss if operated upon the basis of the tonnage to be allocated to it by the Commission and upon the payment of the standard wage scale applicable to the area and in compliance with all other provisions imposed by this and other acts of the Commonwealth

(2) That the licensee has sufficient financial resources unconditionally available for the proposed operation to afford reasonable assurance of his financial ability to comply with the laws of the Commonwealth and to pay wages salaries and other obligations to be incurred in connection with the operation of said breaker and washery and the mines strippings or banks operated or to be operated or financed by him in connection therewith

(b) The Commission in its discretion may refuse to issue any license for the opening or re-opening of any such additional breaker or washery except on condition that the licensee shall file with it a reasonable bond of a character and amount specified by it conditioned upon compliance with the provisions of this Act and the payment of all claims for wages incurred in the operation of said breaker or washery and the strippings banks or mines to be operated or financed by him in connection therewith

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the opening or re-opening by any producer of any breaker or washery to provide tonnage in lieu of tonnage formerly produced from some other breaker or washery operated by him on lands owned controlled or leased by him at the date of or after the passage of this Act

Section 405 Duty of Commission to Issue Licenses On application and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Article it shall be the duty of the Commission to grant licenses to operate any breaker or washery

Section 406 Suspension and Revocation of Licenses The Commission may and in the case of repeated or outstanding violations shall suspend or revoke the license of any producer after giving fifteen days' notice of hearing and an opportunity to be heard for any of the following acts to wit

(1) Violation of any of the terms or conditions of the license

(2) Wilful violation of or failure after receipt of warning from the Commission to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or any acts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in respect to the mining preparation and sale of anthracite or any rules regulations and orders of the Commission

(3) Failure after thirty days' notice of default to comply with any of the provisions of Article XI hereof or to pay the taxes therein provided for

(4) Wilfully furnishing false or misleading statements to the Commission

Any action of the Commission in granting refusing suspending or revoking a license shall be effective only on the entry of an appropriate order by the Commission

ARTICLE V

Records Reports and Information

Section 501 Records All persons required to be licensed under the provisions of this Act shall keep within the Commonwealth the following records

(a) Daily weekly and monthly records of

(1) All commercial sizes produced by each breaker or washery from the mines strippings and banks supplying such breaker or washery

(2) The production of mines strippings and banks supplying the breaker or washery

(3) The number of employees at each breaker washery mine stripping or bank and their working time

(b) Proper books of account and records showing all items of cost of anthracite operations including but not limited to wages and salaries materials and supplies sales expense royalties taxes insurance depreciation and depletion

(c) Books of account and records as specified by the Commission showing the producers' realization on the sale of anthracite

(d) Such other records and information as the Commission may deem necessary for the proper enforcement of this Act

The records herein required shall be kept in the possession of such person for a period of not less than two years unless the Commission otherwise provides

Section 502 Entry and Inspection Any member of this Commission or any employee designated for the purpose shall have the power to enter and inspect at all reasonable hours all places and equipment where anthracite is produced stored sold or otherwise handled in the Commonwealth and to inspect audit and copy all books entries papers records or documents in any place within the Commonwealth for the purpose of ascertaining facts to enable the Commission to administer this Act No member or employee of the Commission shall disclose such information to others than Commission members or employees except as authorized by the Commission in connection with its duties and powers under this Act

Section 503 Dissemination of Information Conferences All persons licensed under this Act and any marketing corporation and the members thereof may discuss cost of production marketing market conditions and merchandising practices and other matters relating to any and all branches of the Anthracite Industry and may collect prepare exchange interpret and disseminate statistics information recommendations and prognostications pertaining thereto either directly or by and through a common agent created or selected by them which agent may be the Commission if it consents to so act upon request

ARTICLE VI

Production Control and Quotas

Section 601 Board Recommendations on Production Control

(a) The Board on Monday of each week shall make forecasts of market demand and recommend to the Commission the total amount of tonnage of commercial sizes of anthracite which should be produced in said week in order to maintain a reasonable balance between volume of production and market demand Any licensed producer at his option may also make like recommendations to the Commission

(b) The Commission shall issue an order or orders not later than Tuesday of each week fixing the aggregate amount of commercial sizes of anthracite to be produced by the Industry in said calendar week upon the basis of the Standards herein set forth

(c) The Commission but only on the recommendations of the Board may from time to time change the length of time for such periodic forecasts and production control

(d) In order to assist the Board in making such recommendations and the Commission in fixing the aggregate weekly production for the Industry each producer shall transmit weekly reports to the Board and the Commission (to reach said Board and Commission by Monday Noon of each week) showing all unsold tonnage on loaded cars standing at the breakers or washeries on tracks in the vicinity of the mines or at other points which may be designated for such purposes by railroad companies and at tidewater piers and lake ports together with cars en route to piers or ports and anthracite in storage wherever located

Section 602 Percentage Assignments and quotas

(a) The Board shall also recommend to the Commission the percentage of the total allowable production for the entire Industry which should be assigned to each licensed producer and such percentages when fixed by the Commission shall be the basis for determining what tonnage quota shall be produced by each licensed producer during each week or such other period for which the Commission shall fix the total allowable production of the Industry

(b) The Commission after due notice and hearing as prescribed by this Act shall adopt reject or modify in whole or in part said recommendations as to assigned precentages and shall make and promulgate appropriate findings rulings and orders in respect thereto If the Board shall fail within such period of time as may be fixed by the Commission to make complete recommendations in respect to the matters provided for in this Section the Commission shall proceed on its own initiative without such recommendations after due notice and hearing as herein provided to make and promulgate appropriate findings rulings and orders in respect thereto

(c) Such assigned percentages shall remain unchanged during the term of this Act except for adjustments expressly provided for in this Section Provided however That licensed producers standing in the relationship of lessor and lessee may with the approval of the Commission adjust their respective assigned percentages between themselves without however increasing the total assigned percentages of said lessor and lessee

(d) All assigned percentages recommended by the Board and all assigned percentages fixed by the Commission with or without recommendations of the Board shall be based on the daily production of each producer for the calendar year 1938 and the assigned percentage of each producer shall be the approximate ratio between the daily production of said producer and the total daily production of all licensed producers

"Daily production" means the total tonnage of commercial sizes produced by each breaker or washery divided by the working days of the mines strippings or banks regularly supplying such breaker or washery In case of more than one source of supply to any breaker or washery the working days shall be determined by dividing the total man-days by the total number of employees Such daily production of each breaker or washery computed as aforesaid shall be based on the reports to the Department of Mines for the calendar year 1938 and shall be verified from the books and records of the producer

In the case of anthracite reported to the Department of Mines as run-of-mine but not included in the commercial production of the breaker or washery through which such anthracite was prepared for market the commercial sizes resulting from such preparation thereof shall be credited to the breakers or washery in which it was prepared for market for the purpose of computing the daily production of said breaker or washery

(e) In the case of breaker or washeries not operated in the year 1938 and in operation at the time of the passage of this Act or in the case of new breakers or washeries hereafter licensed under section four hundred four of this act daily production quotas to such breakers or washeries shall be established with reference to their daily performance when last operated by the same or another producer subject however to such adjustment as the Commission may determine in the light of the scope of the operation the number of men employed and other factors necessary to the establishment of an equitable quota

Daily production quotas established under this subdivision shall be fixed by the Commihsion upon recommendations of the Board subject to the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) of this Section

(f) If in the year 1938 or thereafter but prior to the passage of this Act there has been a transfer of the whole or any part of the production of any mine stripping or bank from the breaker or washery of one producer to the breaker or washery of another producer then and in such event the Commission shall make such adjustments in the assigned percentages of such producers as shall be necessary to compensate for such transfers

(g) If hereafter any producer operating two or more breakers or washeries shall close down any of said breakers or washeries said cessation of operations shall not result in any reduction of the assigned percentages of said producer provided that the remaining breakers or washeries have sufficient capacity to produce the assigned tonnage of the respective breakers or washeries of said producer

(h) Tonnage allocated to new breakers or washeries (if produced from lands in which a producer theretofore licensed has or at the time of the passage of this Act had any interest through ownership lease or otherwise) shall be deducted from the previously assigned percentage of said producer

(i) Tonnage allocated to new breakers or washeries (if produced from lands in which a producer theretofore licensed had no interest through ownership lease or otherwise at the time of the passage of this Act) shall be deducted from the assigned percentage of all producers

(j) If the Board shall find that the steam sizes of antharcite (buckwheat rice and barley) produced from the allocated tonnage of licensed producers is not sufficient to meet the market demand for such sizes the Board may recommend and the Commission upon finding that such demand exists may authorize an additional production of such steam sizes from refuse banks through licensed breakers or washeries for such period as the Commission shall determine and shall allocate such additional production of steam sizes among the licensed producers affected upon a fair and equitable basis taking into consideration among other things the grades or classifications of anthracite for which such demand exists and the producers capable of supplying the same

Section 603 Enforcement Reports Tolerances

(a) To secure the enforcement of the provisions of this article the Commission shall require weekly reports of the volume of commercial sizes of anthracite produced by any licensed producer from each breaker and washery which reports shall be made by sizes and shall indicate whether said produced anthracite has been actually sold or is being stored or carried in cars Said reports shall be verified under oath or affirmation and the Commission in its discretion shall have full power to investigate the books and records and examine witnesses as to the truth or accuracy of any such reports

(b) The Commission shall prepare monthly tabulations of such weekly reports showing the cumulative tonnage of each producer for the calendar year and shall make monthly checks of such tonnage against the amount of the weekly allocated tonnage for said licensed producer on the basis of his assigned percentage The Commission may from time to time fix tolerances in the weekly allocated tonnage of any producer provided that said tolerance shall not exceed fifteen per cent of the weekly allocated tonnage of the producer and that any future adjustment to offset said tolerance shall be absorbed in the succeeding week

(c) No producer who in the judgment of the Commission intentionally underproduces his allocated tonnage or quota during any period for the deliberate purpose of accumulating tonnage for marketing in any subsequent period shall be permitted to add any part of such underproduction to his quota for any subsequent period

(d) Any producer who has suffered a deficiency in his weekly allocated tonnage by reason of a stoppage of production for causes beyond his control has the right (on filing a written statement of the facts with the Commission) to increase his weekly production beyond his weekly allocated tonnage until said deficiency has been offset

Section 604 Violations It shall be a violation of this Act for any producer to produce any greater tonnage of commercial sizes than is permissible for said producer under this Act

ARTICLE VII

Standards of Preparation

Section 701 Recommendations of Board The Board shall recommend to the Commission appropriate standards to govern the sizing purity and grading of commercial sizes of anthracite prepared and sold by any producer as well as rules and regulations in respect to the sale and trade description thereof

Section 702 Commission Findings and Orders The Commission after due notice and hearing as prescribed by this Act shall adopt reject or modify in whole or in part the recommendations provided for in Section 801 of this Article and shall make and promulgate appropriate findings rulings and orders in respect thereto

If the Board shall fail within such period of time as may be fixed by the Commission to make any recommendations as provided for in Section 801 of this Article the Commission shall proceed on its own initiative without such recommendations but after due notice and hearing as herein provided to make and promulgate appropriate findings rulings and orders in respect to such matters

Section 703 Violations It shall be a violation of this Act for any producer to sell or market any anthracite contrary to the rules regulations and orders of the Commission made and promulgated under this Article

ARTICLE VIII

Hearings on Percentage Assignments Minimum Prices and Standards of Preparation

Section 801 Procedure Before acting on any of the matters set forth in Articles VII and VIII or on the percentage assignments provided for in Section 602 of Article VI the Commission shall hold public hearings thereon at such place or places as it may determine of which due notice shall be given to all licensed producers and published in a newspaper of general circulation in the Anthracite Region If prior to the issuance of such notice the Commission shall have received recommendations from the Board in respect to any matters covered by said notice then and in such event a copy of such recommendations shall be mailed to all licensed producers prior to said hearing At such hearings the Commission shall receive and hear arguments and evidence offered by any producer and by any other interested person desiring to be heard and who the Commission in its discretion believes it to be in the public interest to be heard A transcript shall be kept of all such hearings and shall be open to inspection by any person whom the Commission shall decide has sufficient interest in such proceeding

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1418, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws two thousand sixty-three) entitled "An act providing for the payment into the State Treasury without escheat of certain moneys and property subject to escheat under existing law namely unclaimed dividends and profits certain debts and interests on certain debts proceeds of policies of insurance stock and customers deposits held by certain limited partnerships and unincorporated associations joint-stock associations companies and corporations doing business under the laws of this Commonwealth declaring the legislative intent with respect to such payments requiring reports of such money and property by and imposing other duties upon such partnerships associations and corporations conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers boards and departments providing for jurisdiction of courts and for proceedings for the recovery of such moneys and property by the Attorney General at the suggestion of the Department of Revenue providing for refunds of such moneys and property and prescribing penalties" by further declaring the legislative intent and making further provisions for refunds

Section 1 Sections one and ten of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws two thousand sixty-three) entitled "An act providing for the payment into the State Treasury without escheat of certain moneys and property subject to escheat under existing law namely unclaimed dividends and profits certain debts and interest on certain debts proceeds of policies of insurance stock and customers deposits held by certain limited partnerships and unincorporated associations joint-stock associations companies and corporations doing business under the laws of this Commonwealth declaring the legislative intent with respect to such payments requiring reports of such money and property by and imposing other duties upon such partnerships associations and corporations conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers boards and departments providing for jurisdiction of courts and for proceedings for the recovery of such moneys and property by the Attorney General at the suggestion of the Department of Revenue providing for refunds of such moneys and property and prescribing penalties" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Legislative Determination and Declaration of Policy It is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination that the moneys and property hereinafter enumerated in this act are now and have heretofore been subject to escheat both under the common law and under the provisions and requirements of existing acts of Assembly

That it is both necessary and desirable to provide specific appropriate methods for the recovery of such money and property by the Commonwealth and the payment thereof into the State Treasury subject to being refunded [to the persons legally entitled thereto] without the necessity of instituting and prosecuting the proceedings for a formal decree of escheat thereof by the court having jurisdiction of said moneys and property

Therefore it is hereby declared to be the policy of the Legislature to provide and it is the purpose and intent of this act so to provide for the payment of such moneys and property hereinafter described into the State Treasury without escheat according to the provisions of this act and subject to being refunded [to the persons legally entitled to the same]

Section 10 Refunds (a) Any person legally entitled to any moneys which shall have been paid into the State Treasury under the provisions of an order of court entered upon petition of the Attorney General asking for the payment of such moneys into the State Treasury without escheat (or the legal representatives thereof) may at any time apply to the Board of Finance and Revenue for a refund of the same and upon his making proof of his ownership or right of possession to the satisfaction of the board such moneys shall be paid to such person on the requisition of the board and the warrant of the Auditor General drawn on the State Treasurer in conformity therewith out of any moneys in the State Treasury appropriated for the purpose with interest thereon at the rate of two per centum per annum from the date when said moneys were paid into the State Treasury to the date of the refund thereof Any moneys which shall have been voluntarily paid into the State Treasury or which shall have been paid in under the provisions of an order of court entered upon the petition of the Attorney General asking for the payment of such moneys into the State Treasury without escheat shall be refunded in the same manner and under the conditions herein above prescribed

(b) Any person legally entitled to any shares or certificates of stock or other securities which shall have been transmitted or delivered to the State Treasury through the department under the provisions of an order of court entered upon petition of the Attorney General directing the transfer of such property to the State Treasury without escheat (of the legal representatives thereof) may at any time apply to the Board of Finance and Revenue for a return of said property and upon his making proof of his ownership or right of possession the Board of Finance and Revenue shall order the return of such property to the person legally entitled thereto In such event if the State Treasurer shall have converted such property into money authority to do so being hereby conferred the board shall order the refund of the proceeds thereof to the person legally entitled thereto together with interest at the rate of two per centum per annum from the date such property was so converted to the date of refund thereof

(c) Any company its successors or assigns which shall have transmitted or delivered any shares or certificates of stock or other securities or the proceeds thereof to the State Treasury or which shall have paid any moneys into the State Treasury either voluntarily or under the provisions of an order of court entered upon petition of the Attorney General asking for payment of such moneys or property into the State Treasury without escheat may at any time apply to the Board of Finance and Revenue for a refund of the same and upon making proof to the satisfaction of the board that such moneys or property were legally subject to escheat in any other state or territory of the United States and not legally subject to escheat by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or to payment into the State Treasury without escheat such moneys or property or the proceeds thereof shall be paid to such claimant on the requisition of the board and the warrant of the Auditor General drawn on the State Treasurer in conformity therewith out of any moneys in the State Treasury appropriated for the purpose with interest thereon at the rate of two per centum per annum from the date when said moneys were paid into the State Treasury to the date of the refund thereof or if moneys so appropriated are inadequate or if no such appropriation has been made the amount to be refunded together with interest as aforesaid to the date of the allowance of the refund shall be entered by the Department of Revenue as a credit to the account of the claimant Such credit or any part thereof shall be assignable to any other person firm association or corporation and may be used by any such assignee in payment and satisfaction of any obligation or liability then or thereafter due by such assignee to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania The determination by the board or the court in the event of an appeal as hereinafter provided whether such moneys or property were legally subject to escheat by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or to payment into the State Treasury without escheat shall be made irrespective of whether said moneys or property were paid voluntarily or pursuant to an order of court entered upon petition of the Attorney General asking for payment of such moneys or property into the State Treasury without escheat

[(c)] (d) Any claimant for any such refund of money or for the return of property may appeal by petition to the court of common pleas of Dauphin County from an adverse decision of the Board of Finance and Revenue which court shall thereupon hear such testimony as may be offered in support of the claim and determine whether or not the claimant is entitled to any refund of money or return of property and if so the amount thereof or the nature or character thereof If the court finds that he is so entitled it shall report its findings to the board and order the making of a refund of the proper amount of money or the return of the said property Thereupon the refund shall be made or the return of the property shall be made in the manner hereinbefore provided No such appeal shall be entertained however unless the claimant shall file with his petition an affidavit that all proof which he proposes to offer in support of the claim had been presented to the Board of Finance and Revenue before that board acted adversely upon his claim

(e) An appeal may be taken by either party from the judgment of the court of common pleas of Dauphin County in any action arising under the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section as in other cases

Section 2 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment and shall be retroactive to include all moneys heretofore paid into the State Treasury under the provisions of the act to which this act is an amendment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HARBESON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1 (Section 10), page 3, line 8 by striking out: all of said line.

Amend Section 1 (Section 10), page 3, line 11 by inserting after the word "control" the following: "works and improvements involving an expenditure of more".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection House Bill No. 785, Printer's No. 645, was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1424, entitled:

An Act transferring money from the State School Fund to the General Fund and providing for the subsequent return from the General Fund of the transferred money

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I am going to ask permission to discuss briefly the next three bills at this time.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, House Bill No. 1425 makes a deficiency appropriation to the Department of Public Assistance to carry out the relief program for the balance of this biennium, to wit, to May 31st. This will make a total deficiency appropriation of forty-five million dollars and will be sufficient to carry us to May 31st. In order to raise this sum, there will be transferred one million two hundred thousand dollars from the State School Fund, which is provided for in House Bill No. 1424, and eight hundred thousand dollars from the Flood Control Fund which is provided for in House Bill No. 1426. The one million two hundred thousand dollars transferred from the State School Fund is not delaying the payment of any money which the School districts would be entitled to. Both of these transfer bills provide that the special funds transferred to the General Fund will be repaid by the General Fund to the Special Funds, as in all other cases, as soon as the tax anticipation notes are floated in June, which amounts to a transfer for approximately thirty days.

As to the one million two hundred thousand dollars which is to be transferred from the State School Fund, I might explain that this fund is a special fund which was created by the Act of 1915, in which is placed certain income realized from the rentals of State Forest lands and from certain fees that are received by the department of Internal Affairs. This fund is set aside for the purpose of being put on interest and the interest paid over to certain school districts. As a result of this, there will be no loss to the school districts and the fund, of course, will be replaced in about one month's time.

As to the eight hundred thousand dollars taken from the Flood Control Fund, the 1937 Session appropriated five million dollars for flood control, and this amount was decreased, as previously stated, by the Governor to four million nine hundred thousand dollars when he signed the bill. Of this amount, three million dollars is or will be lapsed to make up money which will be appropriated in order to meet the deficiency. There is now in that fund slightly in excess of eight hundred thousand dollars, which has not been expended, and which it is proposed to transfer to the General Fund from this special Flood Control Fund. As I stated previously, the money transferred from the State School Fund and the Flood Control Fund shall be prepaid to those funds in about thirty days, and as I understand it, the money will not be needed and will not have to be expended within that period.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman from Dauphin, when this eight hundred thousand dollars is taken out of the Flood Control Fund, there will be practically nothing left in the Flood Control Fund, is that correct?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I am not able to tell the gentleman the exact amount which will be left in the Flood Control Fund. There were two million dollars transferred to that fund, and whatever has not as yet been expended out of that two million dollars still remains in the fund. Of course, I call to the gentleman's attention the fact that this eight hundred thousand dollars will be repaid to the fund in about thirty days after it is borrowed.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that the stand taken by Mr. Stewart has lost about one million three hundred thousand dollars that the Federal Government would pay back to our state because of the purchase of land before the act of 1937 was passed?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I don't see how that has any bearing upon this transfer whatsoever. I might state that this money would be transferred. The very first day of this session the minority in this House presented a program to transfer money out of this fund into the General Fund, or at least to lapse part of the fund, and the reason set forth for doing so was that the Federal Government had taken over the purchase of this land and that it wasn't necessary to have any more money in this fund for the purchase of land. However, I understand that certain contracts have been made to purchase land, and that a certain amount of money, two million dollars, was transferred into this special fund to meet these contracts. I understand further that as to some of these contracts some doubt has been raised concerning their legality. I understand still further that there is a lot to be said about these contracts, with whom they were made, the amounts contained in the contracts, the circumstances under which these contracts were made, and so forth. However, none of these things have any bearing upon the matter now before us.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker, my reason for raising this point at this time is that if the Secretary of Forests and Waters would come out definitely and make a definite statement it would not be necessary to make the transfer of eight hundred thousand dollars, because the state would receive over a million dollars from the Federal Government for what they have paid for land to be used for flood control purposes and for which bills have been submitted in Congress. I believe last week the majority leader of this House practically promised this House that a report would be forthcoming from Mr. Stewart. It has not been forthcoming.

I do not want to take the time of this House, but I would like to refer the House to page 241 of the hearing before the sub-committee of the Committee on Appropriations, held in Washington. I will let them read for themselves some of the asinine statements made by the Secretary of Forests and Waters, Mr. Stewart.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1203, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Justice for the purpose of defraying expenses heretofore or hereafter incurred by any county or the department in connection with or incidental to any grand jury investigation or trial of State officers or former State officers and others

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Woodside, for the benefit of the House, can you tell us how much money is being appropriated for the use of the County of Dauphin?

Mr. WOODSIDE. There are one hundred thousand dollars appropriated in the bill before the House, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire of the gentleman from Dauphin, as to whether or not the bill so safeguards the money that none of it will be used for the payment of employees of the District Attorney of Dauphin County who were employed illegally, improperly or otherwise contrary to law?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the bill provides for an appropriation to the Department of Justice for the purpose of defraying expenses which have been heretofore or will hereafter be incurred in connection with any grand jury investigations or trials of state officials or former state officials. The appropriation, of course, would be made to the Department of Justice and the Department of Justice will have to spend it in accordance with general law, as well as in accordance with the terms of this bill.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that the question has been raised as to whether or not some of the assistants of the District Attorney have been improperly and illegally employed?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I do not know of any such question having been raised concerning any of the employes in the District Attorney's office. If the gentleman means by any court action or any official recognition of any such situation, I don't think there has been any.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I appreciate, of course, that the County of Dauphin is placed in a peculiar position because of the fact that the Capitol is located here, and also due to the fact that certain expenditures from time to time must be incurred by the County, that as a matter of fact involve the entire state. For that reason, I personally am going to vote for the bill, although I do say that the Attorney General's Department should scrutenize very, very carefully any expenditure of money made under this fund, so that that Department is satisfied and the public will be satisfied that the District Attorney won't exceed the authority that is vested in him by the various acts of the Legislature, particularly laying stress and emphasis on those employes he may have employed in total disregard of the laws of this Commonwealth.

I realize too that there has been a charge made against the District Attorney of Dauphin County of intimidation of witnesses before the grand jury and I do want to make this comment, while I realize it is going to be difficult to segregate the expenditure of money which is proper and that which is not proper, certainly only a whole-hearted and complete condemnation can be levelled at any District Attorney who stoops to such practices, and while I, Mr. Speaker, intend to vote for the bill, I do it out of fairness to the County of Dauphin and not in consideration of the District Attorney, if the charges levelled against him are true.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of whether the actions of this House have been and will be in conformity with the Rules of the House.

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE. The Chair will state that the actions have been in conformity with the Rules of the House.

Mr. ROSE. May I ask. Mr. Speaker, whether further proceedings will be under the Rules of this House when it appears that a Rule is being violated? I question whether the Speaker Pro Tempore is properly in the Chair, not having vested himself with the emblem of authority on his left lapel.

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE. The Chair rules that the Chair is properly attired, and the Chair rules that the proceedings to this time have been in accordance with the Rules of the House. The Chair wishes to say to the gentleman from Cambria that further proceedings will also be in accordance with the Rules of the House.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of privilege.

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE. The gentleman from Cambria will state his question of privilege.

Mr. ROSE. I rise to the question of privilege and offer to the Speaker Pro Tempore his badge of authority in order that this question may be removed.

THE SPEAKER (Ellwood J. Turner) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, for presiding.

The SPEAKER. The Chair feels that the gentleman from Cambria is at last properly decorated and is now a member of the Order of Presiding Officers of this House. The Chair feels, however, inasmuch as the badge is a white badge and he has always understood that a white carnation indicates purity, the Chair believes the carnation worn by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, should have just a little tinge of red in it.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to advise the members of the House that on Wednesday of next week we will have the annual party for the members to be held at the Blue Ridge Country Club. There will be a soft ball baseball game between the Democrats and the Republicans. The captain of the Republican team will be Mr. Leydic of Allegheny county, and the understanding of the Chair is that Mr. O'Keefe of Allegheny is the captain of the Democratic team. All those who in past years played ball and ran around the bases and still think they can do it, will please give their names to Mr. Leydic.

There will also be a golf tournament. Mr. Gates of Armstrong, will be in charge of golf. There will be prizes, and those of you who wish to play will please bring your clubs with you.

We will also have a quoit pitching contest and the Chair appoints Mr. Paul Bardes in charge of that contest.

There will be prizes for the newspapermen who care to take part in the golf tournament. I understand the newspapermen are not physically able to play anything but golf so they are not included in any of the other contests.

Friday the 19th, will be the big day at the World's Fair in New York. Mr. Cadwalader is the Chairman of the Committee. The special train will leave at 7:45 a. m.; special rates will be provided. Those intending to go to New York should notify the committee not later than Monday next. The train will return from New York about midnight on Friday night.

COMMITTEE MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Committee on Appropriations, Monday, May 15 at 7:30 p. m., in Room 326B.

The Harrisburg Post of the American Legion respectfully invites you to attend Legislative Veterans' Nite at their Post Home, Tuesday Evening, May 16th, 6:30 p. m., Daylight Saving Time—Buffet Dinner and Entertainment.

If it were possible we would like to entertain all the Members of the House, Senate and the Governor's Cabinet, but as our facilities are limited we are confining our invitations to those Members who are War Veterans.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. ELY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, May 15, 1939, at 8 p.m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 2:45 p. m.) the House adjourned until Monday, May 15, 1939, at 8 p. m.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1939. 133d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 23 HARRISBURG, PA., FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1939. No. 54.

SENATE

FRIDAY, May 12, 1939

The Senate met at 12:30 o'clock, a. m., E. S. T.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. BURLEIGH A. PETERS offered the following prayer:

O Lord of Love, who guidest and carest for Thine own, help us to trust Thee above all things and to dwell in Thine unchanging peace. Help us to long for Thee even as the hart panteth for the water brooks.

Deliver us, O God, from the deadness of indifference to spiritual things which creeps upon us so steadily that we are unable to feel the fastening of its deadly tentacles upon our unsuspecting souls, lest like the octopus, it then crushes out the life of its victim.

Give us, then, if we do not now possess it, the deep inner urge to unshackle our spirits from the bonds which enslave us to the things of this world and in their stead place a loving obedience and a loyal faith dedicated to the eternal verities of the world to come. These, and these alone, will never fail.

Investments in clean living and in active faith in God pay large dividends and they are never passed. We pray in the name of the Almighty God. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. OWLETT and Mr. WALKER, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 929 entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one thousand two hundred one, one thousand two hundred five of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws general, special or local; or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," by defining professional employes, substitutes and temporary employes and further regulating the employment, dismissal, suspension, demotion and retirement of such employes.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I would like to state to the members of the Senate that last Wednesday the sponsors of this bill found that there was some misunderstanding among teachers as to the duties of the teachers, so we called in the heads of some of the teachers' organizations and we agreed upon certain clarifying amendments, some of which go to the substance but most of which go to the language, and it is those amendments I now desire to offer.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1 (Section 1201) page 2, line 17 by inserting after the word "temporary" the word S professional; amend Section 1 (Section 1201) page 2, line 23 by inserting after the word "teachers" the words S (or home and school visitors), regular full time; amend Section 1 (Section 1201) page 2, line 24 by inserting after the word "years" the words S regular full time; amend Section 1 (Section 1201) page 2, line 25 by striking out the word "who" and inserting in lieu thereof the words S or clerks serving in the capacity of such secretaries, provided such secretaries are clerks performing such secretarial duties; amend Section 1 (Section 1201) page 2, line 26 by striking out with bold face brackets the words "and those" and inserting in lieu thereof the words S impositions which are now filled from eligibility lists or who are; amend Section 1 (Section 1201 page 3, line 2 by inserting after the word "lists" the words S regular full time; amend Section 1 (Section 1201) page 3, line 12 by adding to the said line the words S or to perform the duties of a temporary professional employe who is absent; amend Section 1 (Section 1201) page 3, line 13 by inserting after the word "temporary" the word S professional; amend Section 1 (Section 1201) page 3, line 22 by striking out with light face brackets S the word "and" and inserting after the word "progress" the words S and rating; amend Section 1 (Section 1201) page 4, line 6 by adding to the said line the words S and no professional employe who has attained tenure status in any school district of this Commonwealth shall thereafter be required to serve as a temporary professional employe before being tendered such a contract when employed by any other school district of this Commonwealth; Any temporary professional employe who is not tendered a regular contract of employment at the end of two years of service rendered as herein provided shall be given a written statement signed by the president and secretary of the board of school directors and setting forth explicitly the reason for such refusal; amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 5, line 5 by underlining the word S "hereafter"; amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 7, line 14 by striking out with bold face brackets SC the words "in terms of" and inserting in lieu thereof the words S by an approved rating system which shall give due consideration to; amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 7, line 16 by striking out with bold face brackets the word "standard" and by inserting after the word "cards" the words S to be; amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 7, line 17 by inserting after the word "prepared" the words S and to be revised from time to time; amend Section 2 (Section 1205 page 7, line 17 by inserting after the word "instruction" the words S with the cooperation and advice of a committee appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction including representation from county and district superintendents of schools, classroom teachers, school directors, school supervisors, and such other groups or interests as the Superintendent of Public Instruction may deem appropriate;; amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 7, lines 27 to 29 by striking out with bold face brackets the words "no teacher shall be retired under the provisions of this section prior to the first day of January" and inserting in lieu thereof the following words S from the effective date of this act until the first day of July; amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 8, lines 1 and 2 by striking out with bold face brackets all the words in the said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the words S forty-one, boards of school directors may under the provisions of this section terminate the service of any professional employe who has attained to the age of sixty-eight; from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-one until the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-three any professional employe who has attained to the age of sixty-six; from the first day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-five any employe who has attained to the age of sixty-four, and on and after the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven any professional employe who has attained to the age of sixty-two; amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 8, line 3 by striking out with bold face brackets SC the bracket in the said line and inserting in lieu thereof SC a light face bracket before the word "Whenever"; amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 8, line 6 by inserting before the word "any" the following S (b); amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 9, line 11 by adding after the said line the following paragraphs In cases in which suspensions are to be made professional employes shall be retained on the basis of seniority rights where no differences in rating are found. Seniority rights shall also prevail where there is no substantial difference in rating. In cases where there are substantial differences in rating of those under consideration for suspension, seniority shall be given consideration in accordance with principles and standards of weighting incorporated in the rating cards hereinbefore referred to. When a teacher under tenure contract is certified in a field or fields in which his services are no longer needed because of reduction in size of staff for any of the foregoing reasons, such teacher may be granted a temporary certificate for the field in which his services may be used for such reasonable period as may enable such teacher to qualify for the new field of service; Section 2 (Section 1205) page 9, line 7 by inserting after the word "years" the words S at least three months apart; amend Section 2 (Section 1205) page 10, lines 28 and 29 by underlining the following words S shall thereupon issue its subpoena commending such person.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That said bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. EDMONDS, Mr. President, I ask unaminous consent that Senate Bill No. 930, on third reading, entitled:

In determining the indebtedness of any school district the following deductions from the amount of the gross indebtedness are permitted Cash in the sinking funds inviolably pledged for the payment of existing indebtedness and any bonds of such school district purchased and held in such sinking funds provided that in determining the indebtedness that may be created without the consent of the electors only such bonds as were originally authorized without a vote of the electors and held in all sinking funds may be deducted such outstanding property taxes for school purposes for years prior to the year in which the computation is being made and which are certainly and promptly collectible as quick assets and applicable to the payment of the gross indebtedness any other debts due from solvent debtors and any other revenue that may be applicable within the current fiscal year to the payment of such indebtedness

Section 2 Section five hundred and seven of said act as last amended by section two of the act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws two thousand eight hundred sixty) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 507 All bonds hereafter issued by any school district in this Commonwealth shall be made payable and become due at stated periods as hereinafter provided and the school district issuing the same shall in its annual tax levy provide in such manner and at such time as it may determine for the payment thereof at or before maturity with interest Provided That any school district hereafter issuing any bonds may provide therein for its right to anticipate the payment thereof at such [stated] times as it may deem proper

All bonds issued for the purposes provided for in this act shall be made payable not exceeding twenty-five years after date of said bonds Provided however That (a) bonds issued to refund bonds at maturity and for the payment of which there are no funds available shall be made payable not exceeding ten years after date (b) bonds issued to refund bonds which are callable prior to maturity shall be made payable not later than the dates of maturity of the bonds which are called for redemption (c) bonds issued to fund floating indebtedness incurred for current expenses and debt service shall be made payable not exceeding five years after date (d) bonds issued to fund temporary indebtedness incurred for permanent improvements shall be made payable not exceeding twenty-five years from the date of the incurring of such temporary indebtedness

All bonds hereafter issued by any school district shall be serial bonds and shall mature in annual installments as nearly equal as the bond issue will permit beginning not later than five years after the date of the bonds Provided That in any case where the total amount of principal payable annually on any bond issue would be less than three thousand dollars the bonds shall mature as follows (a) If the maximum life of the bond issue exceeds twenty years one-fifth of the principal amount as nearly as the bond issue will permit shall be payable during each successive period of five years from the date of the bonds (b) if the maximum life of the bond issue exceeds fifteen years but does not exceed twenty years one-fourth of the principal amount as nearly as the bond issue will permit shall be payable during each successive period of five years from the date of the bonds (c) if the maximum life of the bond issue exceeds ten years but does not exceed fifteen years one-third of the principal amount as nearly as the bond issue will permit shall be payable during each successive period of five years from the date of the bonds and (d) if the maximum life of the bond issue exceeds five years but does not exceed ten years one-half of the principal amount as nearly as the bond issue will permit shall be payable during each successive period of five years from the date of the bonds Provided however That in the final period which may be less than five years the remaining bonds shall mature

The assent of the electors shall be required in all school districts of the second third and fourth class in this Commonwealth to issue bonds which will incur any new debt or increase the indebtedness to an amount in excess of two (2) per centum of the assessed valuation of property taxable for school purposes therein Provided That the indebtedness of any such school district shall never exceed seven (7) per centum of the last assessed valuation of property taxable for school purposes therein Provided further That the board of school directors of any school district of the first second third or fourth class shall have authority without the assent of the electors to issue bonds which will incur upon its own authority any amount of such indebtedness not in excess of two (2) per centum of the last assessed valuation of property taxable for school purposes therein Provided further That the board of school directors in any school district may issue all refunding bonds as herein provided upon its own authority without submitting any such refunding bond issue to a vote of the electors

Any school district which calls bonds for payment prior to the date of maturity as hereinbefore provided may issue bonds for the purpose of paying any or all such bonds as may be called for payment All bonds issued for the purpose of refunding bonds shall be issued according to the provisions hereinbefore provided for the issuing of such bonds

It shall be the duty of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to require as part of the annual financial reports of all of the school districts a list of the amount of bonds or other indebtedness that becomes due during the fiscal year together with the amount paid on each item of indebtedness In case of failure on the part of any school district to furnish such report at the required time after the close of the fiscal year the State Superintendent of Public Instruction may withhold any State appropriation that may become due to any such school district until such report covering information regarding the maturities of indebtedness and payments on same during the preceding fiscal year as required herein and any other information which he may require of a school district has been received In all cases where an audit under the direction of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction reveals that the board of directors of any school district has in any year failed to pay or to provide for the payment of any indebtedness at date of maturity in accordance with the schedule under which the bonds were issued the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall notify such board of school directors of its obligation and may withhold all State appropriation that may become due to such school district until such time as he is officially advised that all obligations of such school district with reference to any bonds or other evidence of indebtedness past due have been met and paid in full or arrangements to pay same have been made in a satisfactory manner and approved by him

Section 3 Section five hundred and eight of said act as last amended by section three of the act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws two thousand eight hundred sixty) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 508 Any school district having no indebtedness or whose indebtedness incurred or created without the assent of the electors thereof is less than two (2) per centum of the total valuation of the taxable property for school purposes therein may at any time for the purpose of providing funds in any fiscal year for current expenses and debt service for permanent improvements or in anticipation of proceeds from a bond issue already officially authorized and approved by the Department of Internal Affairs with such limitations and for such length of term as hereinafter provided by or through its board of school directors incur in addition to any bonds therein authorized a temporary debt or borrow money and issue an obligation or obligations therefor under the seal of the district if any properly attested by the president and secretary thereof and bearing interest not exceeding the legal rate but no such obligation shall be sold for less than par Provided That the incurring of any such temporary debt or borrowing money upon such obligation shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the members of the board of school directors therein

The total amount of temporary indebtedness incurred for current expenses and debt service shall at no time exceed an amount equal to the State appropriations not received but payable during the fiscal year and the tax levied upon taxable property within such school district for school purposes and remaining uncollected and unpledged for the current fiscal year Provided That for a period of five years from the effective date of these amendments any temporary indebtedness incurred for current expenses and debt service may equal but not exceed the State appropriations not received but payable during the fiscal year and all taxes levied upon taxable property within the school district for school purposes for past years as well as for the current fiscal year and remaining uncollected and unpledged All such loans shall be paid out of the receipts available or pledged for the repayment thereof when and as the said funds are received Provided That the total amount of the temporary indebtedness for such purpose remaining unpaid at the close of the fiscal year shall become an obligation upon the following year's budget and be included therein

The total amount of temporary indebtedness incurred in any school district for the purpose of permanent improvements shall at no time in school districts of the first and second class exceed one-half of one (1) per centum of the last assessed valuation of taxable property for school purposes therein and in school districts of the third and fourth class two (2) per centum of such assessed valuation Provided That at or before the time of incurring such indebtedness for such purpose provision shall be made for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest and also the principal thereof within the term of such indebtedness as hereinafter provided Provided That the total indebtedness in any school district of the first class including all bonded indebtedness and temporary indebtedness shall never exceed two (2) per centum of the last assessed valuation of taxable property for school purposes therein and in school districts of the second third and fourth class shall not exceed seven (7) per centum of such assessed valuation

The total amount of temporary indebtedness incurred in anticipation of proceeds from a bond issue already officially authorized and approved by the Department of Internal Affairs as hereinbefore provided shall not exceed seventy-five (75) per centum of the full amount of bonds authorized by such bond issue

All money borrowed for the purpose of current expenses and debt service as hereinbefore provided and remaining unpaid at the close of a fiscal year shall be paid out of the receipts of the following fiscal year for school districts as heretofore provided but in all events not later than the first day of July of such following year in school districts of the first class and not later than the first day of November in school districts of the second third and fourth class Provided That all temporary indebtedness for such purpose existing prior to the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty nine shall be payable at any time not to exceed three years thereafter

All money borrowed for permanent improvements for which no bond issue has been provided and for which an obligation or obligations other than bonds have been issued shall be paid within three years from date of issue of such obligation together with interest and at least one-third of the total principal of the original loan shall be paid annually Such obligation or obligations may be paid in full or in part each year when the taxes are received and reborrowed again the latter part of the fiscal year Provided That the amount reborrowed is less than the amount borrowed the preceding year by at least one-third of the total amount of the original loan Provided further That each time the money is reborrowed the date and purpose for which it was originally borrowed shall be restated Provided further That the amount of the original loan shall be paid in full within a maximum term of three years from the date of the original loan for such purpose

All obligations other than bonds issued by any school district in anticipation of proceeds from a bond issue already officially authorized and approved by the Department of Internal Affairs shall be paid in full together with interest out of the proceeds of such bond issue within one year six months from the date of authorization of such bond issue

In case of an emergency any school district in this Commonwealth in any fiscal year after incurring temporary indebtedness for current expenses and debt service to the full extent of the provisions hereinbefore provided and finding the receipts from said temporary loan together with all other receipts to be inadequate to meet the expenditures of the official fiscal year's budget may appeal to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction for permission to increase the temporary indebtedness of such school district beyond the amount hereinbefore provided and shall present to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction or his agent such financial statements or reports as he may require to give him adequate facts relative to the necessity of such increase in indebtedness The State Superintendent of Public Instruction is hereby authorized after due examination of the need of such school district either to refuse or grant permission to such school district to borrow additional funds beyond the provisions hereinbefore provided and in case of approval he shall set a maximum limit of the total amount of additional temporary indebtedness that such school district may incur during the fiscal year in addition to all temporary indebtedness outstanding at the time of such approval Provided That such additional amount of temporary indebtedness together with all other temporary indebtedness at any time for the purpose of payments on current expenses and debt service in school districts of the first class shall not exceed four-tenths of one (1) per centum and in school districts of the second class shall not exceed three-fourths of one (1) per centum and in school districts of the third and fourth class shall not exceed one (1) per centum of the total amount of taxable property in such district and the total indebtedness for such purposes together with all other indebtedness incurred without authorization by vote of the electors of the district shall at no time exceed two (2) per centum of the last total assessed valuation of the taxable property therein All temporary indebtedness remaining unpaid at the end of the fiscal year shall be paid in the same manner as hereinbefore provided

Section 4 Article 5 of said act is hereby amended by adding immediately after section 508 thereof a new section to read as follows

Section 508.1 School districts may borrow money in anticipation of current revenues to an amount not exceeding such anticipated current revenues which shall be pledged for the payment of such loan or loans and issue notes or other form of obligation executed by the president of the board of school directors and attested by the secretary of said board under the seal of the school district securing such loans said notes or other form of obligation to mature and be payable during the current fiscal year in which such money is borrowed and any such borrowing shall not constitute an increase of indebtedness within the meaning of Article Nine section eight of the Constitution of Pennsylvania or of the act of April twenty one thousand eight hundred seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws sixty-five) its amendments and supplements or of the act of May eighteen one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) of which this act is an amendment Such notes shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding six (6) per centum per annum payable at maturity or in advance and may be sold at either public or private sale for not less than par If such loans are not repaid in whole or in part during the fiscal year in which they are made they or such amounts as remain unpaid shall become an obligation upon the following year's budget and shall be included therein and paid not later than the first day of July of such following year in school districts of the first class and not later than the first day of November of such following year in school districts of the second third and fourth class unless prior to such dates they shall be funded by a bond issue under the provisions of section five hundred six (506) of this act Provided that the incurring of such obligations shall receive the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the members of the board of school directors or Board of Public Education

Section 5 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

MONDAY, MAY 15, 1939.

The Senate met at 8:00 o'clock, p. m., E. S. T.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. BURLEIGH A. PETERS, offered the following prayer:

Our Father in Heaven, each one of us here assembled, regardless of who we are, was carried back yesterday upon the wings of memory to the old parental home and into the presence of the dearest, sweetest friend we ever had—our mothers. We lingered in that sacred memory or sat beside our mothers in person or remembered her with a letter of love or a bouquet of flowers.

Whatever the manner of remembrance it was at once inspirational and beautiful and helpful for once again we pondered over her words of wisdom, caressed again her lovely face, meditated upon her innumerable acts of heavenly kindness and sacrificial love and constant faith in our behalf. And again, we measured and remeasured what we have become in our lives only to find we have fallen far short of the ideals mother entertained and prayed for us to be.

Tonight then, help us diligently to strive to attain that better self for which mother labored and prayed and sacrificed. May we be lifted into her presence and permit the beautiful fragrance of her wonderful life once more to saturate our entire being and be cleansed and purified in our every endeavor for no man yet has ever lived wrongly when the constraining influence of a godly mother attended him.

God bless the living mothers today; may their children never cease to rise up and call them blessed. God bless us whose mothers have departed this life; may we never cease to live by the light of her godly example for—

"No painter's brush, nor poet's pen,
In justice to her fame,
Has ever reached half high enough
To write a mother's name."

We pray in the name of Him who made the mothers of men. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. OWLETT and Mr. EDMONDS, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in connection with matters which are before the Senate I think the statement I am about to make will have some importance and be of some information and will save a great number of the people the trouble of asking me unnecessary questions.

Some weeks ago Senate Bill No. 45 was before the Senate which was known as the Teachers Tenure Act. In connection with that bill I made certain inquiries and I became interested in the situation which confronts the schools. I found that the school system of Pennsylvania, as everybody knows is in a very precarious situation. I found out there were a number of school districts that did not have sufficient money to carry on, there are teachers not being paid and there are a number of teachers who are teaching less than fourteen or fifteen pupils in a class, and that some of the districts were coming to Harrisburg to ask for assistance to carry on their school work.

I also found that there were sufficient votes, according to my investigation, to carry through Senate Bill 45. I also found in Philadelphia our situation is such that we have a $5,500,000 deficit staring us in the face now; and unless something is done there will be at least $6,500,000 additional deficit for the 1940 term, so I made an offer, in connection with the gentlemen on the other side, for the purpose of trying to arrive at a solution to this problem, try to make some arrangement which would bring about an agreement between all of the officers and all of the parties in interest, that we sit down, irrespective of politics, and try and arrive at a result.

We have two bills before the Senate, one of which will allow Philadelphia the right to issue bonds for some $5,500,000 which would take care of the present deficit. There was a bill introduced in the Senate, and passed, to allow Philadelphia to increase its tax rate by one and a half mills—Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—and that solved a portion of the problem of those two cities.

Then, there was another bill on the calendar which would result in a reduction in the teachers' pay of ten per cent of all salaries.

In an effort to bring about some solution I introduced an amendment which limited that for two years, and at the same time precluded reduction in salaries of teachers receiving under $2,200 per year, and staggering, the reduction from one to ten per cent, so that the lowest salaries would receive the lowest reduction. Then I sat down together with the Senator from Luzerne, Senator Mundy, and we spent long hours, until early morning, with representatives of the teachers, with members of the other side of the house, and then we spent an evening in which almost all, if not all groups were represented and a bill was introduced under the joint sponsorship of Senator Edmonds, Senator Homsher, Senator Mundy and myself.

We discussed this matter for four hours one evening and got the views of all the representatives, we listened to and I think most of them we acceded to. Some of the teachers had objections, to which I referred and I think we listened to all of the objections with care and consideration.

Notwithstanding all of this the teachers have gathered the idea that both Senator Mundy and myself, and the gentlemen on the other side, have some ulterior motive in this whole proceeding, they are not satisfied with these bills, they say that these bills tamper with their tenure.

It is my firm conviction that these bills will have no effect on the tenure of the teachers; in fact I have tried to see to it that the views expressed by those people be incorporated in the bills.

I am frank to point to Senate Bill 930, which in my opinion is of little importance, as certainly one of the most silly objections I have ever heard because it provides that the school directors shall have the right to dismiss any person, any teacher, whose conduct is so subversive to the morals of the community in which she lives as to effect her ability as a teacher, so flagrantly violates the morals of the community—those are the words, and the teachers object to that bill.

That bill was drawn to prevent a situation which was referred to by the Gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, in one case where a teacher who was a teacher in the day time and a tap room bartender in the evening, was said by the lower court to be engaged in work affecting her ability to teach, but the Supreme Court said she could not be disturbed.

There is a complaint against this bill and therefore a complaint against everything that has been done. Because we have endeavored to inject ourselves into this problem and solve it like statesmen they say we have ulterior motives.

I say to those teachers, and for the benefit of those who are within the sound of my voice or who read in the newspapers, that my position or that of the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Mundy, was to prevent Senate Bill 45 from going through; we tried to compromise and take the sting out of these bills, and I think that as long as our attitude has been misunderstood, I am going to leave the teachers, as far as I am concerned, to look to the Republicans who originated the bill to carry through the bill. I am not going to consider it any further.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, am I to understand by the last remark of the Senator from Philadelphia that he is withdrawing his name from the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should say to the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mundy, that neither he nor I can withdraw our names from the bill, it is in the record, but I can withdraw my participation, I shall not participate any further because I feel maybe the teachers can get along better and solve this problem without me.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Mundy, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, the situation is certainly embarrassing to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, and very embarrassing to me. The Senator has explained the original bill as introduced. Of course, naturally, I would be vitally interested in maintaining it, but I find, and I have assured myself—that it is an impossible situation to maintain all of the provisions in the original Tenure Bill No. 52, so we attempted to get into a conference with all the groups, and tried to reach a happy medium where most all of those concerned would be satisfied with the contents of it.

I have given my word to my colleagues in the Senate—Senator Shapiro and my Republican colleagues—that we would draft a bill that there should be a bill, as submitted by us, and it would receive our favor.

I do not think there is anybody in the Senate of Pennsylvania as anxious as I am to maintain all the provisions of No. 52 but that has reached a stage where we realize it is an impossibility. However, I do not believe that I should like to withdraw entirely in participating in this matter.

I would like, and I do not want to have any further delay, if my colleague, on the Republican side would consent for an overnight stay—I understand this is on third reading, and I was absent last week— to have a stay until we could have a conference in the morning and take it up at the afternoon session tomorrow.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, from the opinions already discussed and from the experiences of the two gentleman that have spoken on this matter, it would appear that this is a matter of party whether the Republicans will do one thing or whether they will not. Speaking for myself, as a member of this Senate, I want it strictly understood that I do not regard the consideration of this subject matter on partisan lines.

I have nothing to do with any partisan understanding on the teachers tenure law but I am getting sick and tired of having school directors lobbyists down here interfering with the school laws and the passage of legislation, especially when they deal with teachers tenure. I hope that the time will come when the tenure of school teachers will be lifted entirely out of the jurisdiction of school directors and put in more stable hands.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, if I wanted to take the same position as the Senator from Fayette, I probably would have stood on this floor and said that I upheld the provisions of No. 52 in response to the pressure of pressure type groups; probably I would stand out as far as the affections of the teachers of Pennsylvania are concerned. That to me would be a very, very selfish motive; I would be putting myself above all the interests of the school teachers of Pennsylvania and in refusing to support, sacrifice everything we have gained.

I cannot see how the Senator would interpret the fact that we sat down as a group that there is any partisan politics in it. As a matter of fact the prime move was to eliminate politics from consideration of this bill, and I would definitely like to be on record as saying, as far as politics are concerned, that neither the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, nor myself want anyone to believe that partisan politics had any part in the drawing of this bill.

NOTARIES PUBLIC

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, nominations for appointment as Notaries Public which were laid on the table.

RESOLUTION RECALLING SENATE BILL No. 268 FROM GOVERNOR

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MALLERY offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 15, 1939.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 268, Printer's No. 56, entitled "An act to amend paragraph (c) of section four hundred nine and paragraphs (a) and (c) of section four hundred eleven of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1053) entitled 'An act relating to the regulation of public utilities defining as public utilities certain corporations companies associations and persons providing for the regulation of public utilities including to a limited extent municipalities engaging in public utility business by prescribing defining and limiting their duties powers and liabilities and regulating the exercise surrender or abandonment of their powers privileges and franchises defining and regulating contract carriers by motor vehicle and brokers in order to regulate effectively common carriers by motor vehicle conferring upon the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission the power and duty of supervising and regulating persons, associations companies and corporations including to a limited extent municipal corporations subject to this act and administering the provisions of this act authorizing the commission to fix temporary rates placing the burden of proof on public utilities to sustain their rates and certain other matters authorizing a permissive or mandatory sliding scale method of regulating rates providing for the supervision of financial and contractural relations between public utilities and affiliated interests and supervision and regulation of accounts and securities or obligations issued assumed or kept by persons associations companies corporations or municipal corporations subject to this act conferring upon the commission power to vary reform or revise certain contracts conferring upon the commission the exclusive power to regulate or order the construction alteration relocation protection or abolition of crossings of facilities of public utilities and of such facilities by or over public highways to appropriate property for the construction or improvement of such crossings and to award or apportion resultant costs and damages authorizing owners of such property to sue the Commonwealth for such damages providing for ejectment proceedings in connection with the appropriation of property for crossings conferring upon the commission power to control and regulate budgets of public utilities imposing upon persons associations companies and corporations (except municipal corporations) subject to regulation the cost of administering this act prescribing and regulating practice and procedure before the commission and procedure for review by the courts of commission action giving the court of common pleas of Dauphin County exclusive original jurisdiction over certain proceedings prescribing penalties fines and imprisonment for violations of the provisions of this act and regulations and orders of the commission and the procedure for enforcing such fines and penalties and repealing legislation supplied and superseded by or inconsistent with this act' by providing a more equitable method for the apportionment of damages and expenses occasioned by or resulting from the construction relocation alteration protection or abolition of crossings of facilities of public utilities and of such fa-

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RESOLUTION REGARDING BOND REQUIRED FROM RELIEF RECIPIENTS

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, before I introduce this resolution I would like to make a few remarks as to its nature. We have heard a lot of discussion on the floor of this Senate relative to the bond demanded from persons receiving relief.

On numerous occasions on the floor of this Senate I have stated that they were not only requiring relief recipients to sign bonds, but they intended to use the bonds as liens against the property.

Last Saturday when I went home I went into the prothonotary's office and went through the records and found that was entered against one hundred and seventy-five relief recipients in my county. They have three men working all day running titles in the Recorder of Deeds office; just as fast as they can get clear title to the property they are entering these liens.

This Senate approved a resolution last week which showed the people that this Senate disproves of the requirement of a bond from relief recipients. I believe, in fairness to the persons who have already signed bonds, and I understand there are five thousand in my county who have signed these pressure bonds, in fairness to them I believe we should invalidate bonds already signed, and in drafting this resolution I left out all whereas clauses that may be termed political, in order that I might get unanimous consent for immediate consideration of this resolution.

Mr. DENT offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 15, 1939.

Whereas, A recent order of the Department of Public Assistance required the signing of judgment bonds by persons receiving public assistance and assistance relief and

Whereas, Pursuant to two resolutions introduced in the Senate, the Senate has disapproved of such requirements in the receiving and the treatment of relief recipients and

Whereas, Said judgment bonds have been entered in various counties and are a matter of record as a lien against properties owned or to be owned by relief recipients

Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Department of Public Assistance be instructed to refrain from requiring signatures of said bonds and to institute the proper legal proceedings to write off any and all such liens of record that have been entered in the offices of the various counties.

Copies of said Resolution to be presented to the Director of Public Assistance for his guidance.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I object.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 39

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate suspend Rule 37 in order that we may proceed to immediate consideration of this resolution.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, just a moment; I want to amend that by saying to suspend Rule 35 instead of Rule 37. Rule 35 is the rule which must be suspended.

The PRESIDENT. In what directory is the Senator from Westmoreland looking?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it is the 1939 Legislative Directory.

The PRESIDENT. And you are referring to Rule 35?

Mr. DENT. That is what it says here, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Rule 29 does not apply.

Mr. DENT. Well then, Mr. President, Rule 29—whatever it is.

The PRESIDENT. It is moved by the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, and seconded by the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, that Senate Rule No. 29 be suspended. Are there any remarks?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, that is the wrong rule.

The CHAIR. For the information of the gentleman from Delaware, Rule 29 reads as follows "the consent of two-thirds of the members present shall be necessary to dispense with any rule." Two-thirds of all the members elected to the Senate are necessary to alter or change or amend.

Mr. HEYBURN. Yes, Mr. President, but the rest of the rule referring to resolutions is rule 39; regarding the objection.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, before taking this vote I want to call attention to the Senators the fact that all this resolution does is call attention to the Public Assistance Board Directors that we, the members of the Senate do not believe it is fair that a certain number of persons on relief shall have a lien entered against their property while others are not required to sign that bond, pursuant to the resolution we passd last week. I do not believe it is fair to say to one hundred seventy-five citizens of my county that they must have a lien against property that they may own now and thousands and thousands who receive relief do not have to sign. I only ask that you be fair.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President as I understand it there is a motion to suspend Rule 39, which requires that all resolutions be referred to a committee after being read twice, and that that has been objected to.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I object to immediate consideration of this resolution. This resolution involves judgments which the Commonwealth has obtained and it is very obvious they cannot be dispensed with by a mere resolution of this Senate; and it is, therefore, very obvious this should be studied by a committee in a regular, orderly procedure before passing such a resolution, which involves assets of this Commonwealth, and I therefore ask that the motion be voted down.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—23

Coleman,	Frey,	Kunkel,	Rice,
Dando,	Gilson,	Lanius,	Ruth,

Deitrick,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Shapiro,
Dent,	Jacobs,	McGinnis,	Sipe,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Mundy,	Stiefel,
Eroe,	Kilgallen,	Reed,

NAYS—24

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Letzler,	Stevenson,
Cavalcante,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Tallman,
Chapman,	Geltz,	Miller,	Thomas,
Crowe,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Walker,
Ealy,	Homsher,	Scarlett,	Wolfenden,
Edmonds,	James,	Snowden,	Woodward,

So the question was determined in the negative.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions.

RESOLUTION REQUESTING INFORMATION FROM PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE COMMISSION

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to offer a resolution which I think is self-explanatory, and I ask permission to read same.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears no objection.

In the Senate, May 15, 1939.

Whereas, the most serious problem in Pennsylvania today is unemployment and

Whereas, the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission has been created for the purpose of constructing a public thoroughfare across the State commonly known as the "Dream Highway," and

Whereas, huge sums of public money have been obtained for use in the building of said "Dream Highway," and

Whereas, In the construction of said highway, general public complaint has arisen over the practice of engaging contractors and workmen from other States in preference to those from Pennsylvania.

Now therefore, be it resolved by the Senate of Pennsylvania, that the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission be requested to promptly furnish to each member of the Senate the names and addresses of all contractors, subcontractors and workmen engaged in the building of said highway who were not residents of Pennsylvania at the time they became engaged for such work.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. REED, offered the following resolution which was twice read considered, and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 15, 1939.

Whereas, the most serious problem in Pennsylvania today is unemployment and

Whereas, the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission has been created for the purpose of constructing a public thoroughfare across the State commonly known as the "Dream Highway," and

Whereas, huge sums of public money have been obtained for use in the building of said "Dream Highway," and

Whereas, In the construction of said highway, general public complaint has arisen over the practice of engaging contractors and workmen from other States in preference to those from Pennsylvania.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Senate of Pennsylvania, that the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission be requested to promptly furnish to each member of the Senate the names and addresses of all contractors, subcontractors and workmen engaged in the building of said highway who were not residents of Pennsylvania at the time they became engaged for such work.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I object.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I object to this on the ground it is practically impossible for the Turnpike Commission to furnish the names of all the workmen engaged on its construction.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I do not see that would be a very hard thing; they could get it from the contractor or the sub-contractor.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I object to it.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, why did not the Senator from Somerset say that first? The resolution states the names of all contractors, sub-contractors and workmen.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, that is impossible.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, the purpose of this resolution is to find out whether the complaints that are being raised to the effect that contractors from outside of Pennsylvania are doing a major part of the work on this highway, and that they are bringing workmen with them from Ohio and other states.

Now, we have in this state today thousands of unemployed. This state has paid out or is about to put huge sums of money in order to carry on this work and construction and I think the people of Pennsylvania have a right to know whether they are being set aside on this work for workmen from outside of Pennsylvania.

The resolution is fair and it is clear, and I see no reason why the representatives of the people of Pennsylvania have not the simple and fair right to know who is doing the work on this highway today.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I have no objection to this, if it is practicable for the Turnpike Commission to furnish the information, and I withdraw the objection. I simply objected because I thought it was impossible for them to do so. They will answer if they cannot, and so I withdraw my objection.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be submitted to the Secretary of Highways.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. GELDER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered, and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 15, 1939.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene Monday afternoon, May 22, 1939, at two o'clock, Eastern Standard Time; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday evening, May 22, 1939, at eight o'clock, Eastern Standard Time.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. LETZLER, from the Committee on Education, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 416, entitled:

An Act to amend and reenact section five hundred and thirty-two of an act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith," as amended, by empowering school boards in districts of the first class to make for any year such general reductions in salaries fixed by law as will enable the district to keep its estimated annual expenditures within the estimate of funds available to the district for that year and by, in such instances, so regulating the discretionary power vested in the Superintendent of Public Instruction, to withhold requisitions for moneys payable by the Commonwealth to School Districts which have not made provision for full payment of minimum salaries and increments, that the exercise of such power shall not interfere with the operation of this act during the limited period in which it is to be in effect and granting certain options to the members of the school employes' retirement system during said period.

Mr. CAVALCANTE, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1022, (House Bill No. 1426), entitled:

ARTHUR H. JAMES.

BILLS INTRODUCED

Mr. CHAPMAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1025, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph (7) of section two of the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1053), entitled "An act relating to the regulation of public utilities; defining as public utilities certain corporations, companies, associations, and persons; providing for the regulation of public utilities, including, to a limited extent, municipalities engaging in public utility business, by prescribing, defining, and limiting their duties, powers, and liabilities, and regulatng the exercise, surrender or abandonment of their powers, privileges, and franchises; defining and regulating contract carriers by motor vehicle and brokers in order to regulate effectively common carriers by motor vehicle; conferring upon the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission the power and duty of supervising and regulating persons, associations, companies, and corporations, including, to a limited extent, municipal corporations subject to this act, and administering the provisions of this act; authorizing the commission to fix temporary rates; placing the burden of proof on public utilities to sustain their rates and certain other matters; authorizing a permissive or mandatory sliding scale method of regulating rates; providing for the supervision of financial and contractural relations between public utilities and affiliated interests, and supervision and regulation of accounts and securities or obligations issued, assumed, or kept by persons, associations, companies, corporations of municipal corporations subject to this act; conferring upon the commission power to vary, reform, or revise certain contracts; conferring upon the commission the exclusive power to regulate or order the construction, alteration, relocation, protection, or abolition of crossings of facilities of public utilities, and of such facilities by or over public highways, to appropriate property for the construction or improvement of such crossings, and to award or apportion resultant costs and damages; authorizing owners of such property to sue the Commonwealth for such damages; providing for ejectment proceedings in connection with the appropriation of property for crossings; conferring upon the commission power to control and regulate budgets of public utilities; imposing upon persons, associations, companies, and corporations (except municipal corporations) subject to regulation, the cost of administering this act; prescribing and regulating practice and procedure before the commission and procedure for review by the courts of commission action; giving the court of common pleas of Dauphin County exclusive original jurisdiction over certain proceedings; prescribing penalties, fines, and imprisonment for violations of the provisions of this act and regulations and orders of the commission, and the procedure for enforcing such fines and penalties; and repealing legislation supplied and superseded by or inconsistent with this act," by adding to the definition of "Contract Carrier by Motor Vehicle."

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Utilities.

Mr. SHAPIRO read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1026, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1168), entitled "An act to protect the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively; creating the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board, officers of the State government, and courts; providing for the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively; declaring certain labor practices by employers to be unfair; further providing that representatives of a majority of the employes be the exclusive representatives of all the employes; authorizing the board to conduct hearings and elections, and certify as to representatives of employes for purposes of collective bargaining; empowering the board to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice, and providing a procedure for such cases, including the issuance of a complaint, the conducting of a hearing, and the making of an order; empowering the board to petition a court of common pleas for the enforcement of its order, and providing a procedure for such cases; providing for the review of an order of the board by a court of common pleas on petition of any person agggrieved by such order, and establishing a procedure for such cases; providing for an appeal from the common pleas court to the Supreme Court; providing the board with investigatory powers, including the power to issue subpoenas and the compelling of obedience to them through application to the proper court; providing for service of papers and process of the board; prescribing certain penalties," by redefining and adding certain terms; further regulating the manner of making appointments and dismissals of employes; setting up procedure for replacing biased examiners and agents; providing that decisions and findings of the board shall not be subject to change by the Department of Labor and Industry or its agencies; further regulating representatives of employes, and elections; and adopting further measures for the prevention of unfair labor practices.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1027, entitled:

An Act to amend section four hundred and two of the act, approved the fifth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six (P. L. 2897, 1937), entitled "An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis; requiring employers to keep records and make reports, and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons; providing procedure and administrative details for the determination, payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation; providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies; creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer; and prescribing penalties," by providing that any employe who leaves his employment because of illness and is refused reinstatement thereto, shall be eligible for compensation.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

Mr. BARTLETT read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 1028, entitled:

RESOLUTION NO. 73 CALLED UP

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to call up at this time House Resolution No. 73, Serial No. 108, which was laid on the table last week, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 24, 1939.

Whereas, During the 1937 Session of the General Assembly there was passed a new law for the regulation of public utilities known as the Public Utility Law which Act superseded and repealed the Public Service Company Law which has been in effect since January 1, 1914 and

Whereas, A number of provisions of the Public Utility Law of 1937 have been the subject of judicial review and have been held by State or Federal Courts to be unconstitutional as the result of which amendatory legislation was passed at the special session of 1938 designed to correct some of the unconstitutional provisions and

Whereas, Other provisions of this 1937 law are alleged to extend beyond the scope of reasonable and proper regulation of the utilities in that they unduly invade the field of management impose upon utilities the burden of furnishing costly reports or conforming to procedures of doubtful value in the determination of reasonable rates and adequate service retard the development and expansion of utility properties and facilities discourage investment in utility securities and present questions which may involve the Commonwealth and the utilities and indirectly the ratepayers in protracted and costly litigation thereby retarding future reductions in utility rates and

Whereas, The best interests of the Commonwealth the rate payer the utilities and those who in good faith have invested billions of dollars in the securities of utilities doing business in this Commonwealth require that a careful comprehensive and impartial study of the Public Utility Law be undertaken in order to ascertain what changes if any should be made in said law to make it fair just and reasonable in its application to all concerned therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Attorney General be and is hereby requested to undertake and prosecute a thorough and impartial study of the Public Utility Laws of this and other states ascertain the viewpoints of the Public Utility Commission other regulatory bodies the public the utilities affected and others as to the proper concepts to be applied in the field of utility regulation consider the effect and trend of judicial decisions in the public utility field and the questions involved in pending litigation and ascertain what if any amendments should be made to the Public Utility Law in order to secure adequate proper and sound regulation of utilities in the public interest which will at the same time encourage investment in utility securities and aid in a program of expansion and economic recovery in this Commonwealth

Resolved, That the Attorney General be requested to report the results of his study and investigation of the Public Utility law together with such proposed legislation as he deems proper for consideration to the next Regular Session of the General Assembly

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move immediate adoption of House Resolution No. 73.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no."

The PRESIDENT. The remarks of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan will be noted in the Journal.

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 226, on third reading Calendar, postponed for the present.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 226, entitled:

An Act abolishing the Oil Industry Investigation Commission terminating the terms of its members and lapsing the unobligated balance of any appropriation made therefor.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, this bill abolishes the oil industry investigation commission. I understood that this bill was not to be pressed at this time.

Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDMONDS. Very gladly, Mr. President.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, is not the statement I just made correct?

Mr. EDMONDS. No, sir. Mr. President, when the bill first came up on the Calendar I agreed that it go over in its order for two weeks and that time was up last Wednesday. Then I spoke to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, last week and he said let us call it up this week. If there is any particular reason the Senator has in mind—if it is urgent—but my feeling is this matter should be settled.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDMONDS. With pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is the gentleman from Montgomery insisting upon action on this bill tonight?

Mr. EDMONDS. No, Mr. President, but I am asking for some reason why it should not be acted on.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Then, Mr. President, this bill has not been called up at the request of the Senator from Montgomery?

Mr. EDMONDS. No, Mr. President, the gentleman from Fayette called up the bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I just wanted to be sure it was not called at the request of the Senator from Montgomery.

Mr. EDMONDS. No, Mr. President, it was not.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, the present commission is about ready to make a report. We have been working on this for several weeks, and as is well known, the old commission was upset by the court and the present commission was established or authorized for the purpose of finishing the work; or at least reporting on the testimony and information that had been discovered.

Here is an industry that concerns every family in the United States, every family in Pennsylvania, especially oil and gasoline. Nowadays they are a necessity the same as electricity and coal and therefore just as vital if not more so than either of those subjects.

The investigation shows that the producers of oil in Pennsylvania are losing money. It also shows that the retail dealers of gasoline are starving. It also shows that the user of gasoline in Pittsburgh, say, is paying eight dollars a year more for gasoline than the people in Philadelphia; and from the testimony adduced there is absolutely no reason why gasoline in the Western part of this state should be higher than gasoline in the Eastern part.

One of the oil associations stated that six thousand wells in Butler, Lawrence and Armstrong counties are about to be closed and shut down, and if those wells are ever shut down, according to the testimony, they probably will never be opened again or used.

The investigation showed that for the past fifteen years perhaps one, maybe two companies, have set the price of oil in Pennsylvania, and also the price of gasoline. It was done without rhyme or reason. No testimony can be produced or was produced to give any reason for these changed prices. Now, of course, we do know that prices in the long run are determined by supply and demand, but here in Pennsylvania the price of oil has been fixed by one or two companies just posting the price, and you can see if they post a price this month and load up with oil and drop the price the next month, what the effect will be.

I can see no harm in this commission continuing. I want to assure everybody on this floor this is not a muck-raking commission. The report that we have got ready does not mention a single name; it does not hold up any person or company up to ridicule; it is not a muck-raking commission. But I do feel that an industry of such importance to the State of Pennsylvania, when the producers are in distress, when they go down into the earth and bring this oil to the surface, and then are losing money—and then the little dealers that work long hours at those retail stations are near starvation—those who have manipulated the gasoline business in this State do not hire men any more to retail their gasoline—they lease. If they own property or stations they lease them to somebody. The little retailer is at their mercy. They furnish certain little retailers equipment, others they do not, and then we have these retail gasoline wars.

Last week there was a delegation here from Pittsburgh; and one man said he lost a hundred thousand dollars in the last year; another man said he had three stations and was losing nine dollars a day on each station—they were in a desperate situation—and here we have been engaged for months on legislation—many of the bills very trivial, and yet here is an industry that concerns the State of Pennsylvania, as I think, more than any industry in the State; it affects more people, and it is in a bad way.

As I said before, the producers are losing money and the little retailers are starving, working long hours, and no industry can exist half slave and half free.

I feel that there can be no harm in at least letting this commission continue until it gets out its report, which I think will be perhaps by the end of this week; and then, if we are unable to have the report out this week, we surely will next week; and I can see no harm, then in allowing this commission to go on, even during the vacation.

We have a secretary, Dr. Ross, from the University of Carnegie College, who is familiar with the testimony. There has been a W. P. A. project on this investigation that has furnished a wealth of information. We have many files and cases filled with information, and it does seem to me there would be no harm to anyone to let this commission go on during the recess; perhaps not spending any money, but at least gathering this information together, have Dr. Ross boil it down and receive complaints from the industry itself.

I might state that the industry itself is not satisfied. Men in the oil business are not satisfied. They would like to see a new agreement. I introduced a bill here a couple of weeks ago establishing a permanent commission, with advisory powers given to the industry itself—if the industry could submit to the commission rules of fair practice that they would devise themselves.

In other words, this is the first time, I think, any bill was ever offered in this State to industry to correct its own troubles.

Another thing, no five men on a commission could manage the business or direct the oil business. It is an intricate business, and they have their troubles, but I feel the bill I offered would allow the sick industry to formulate rules itself, and submit those rules to the commission, and the commission cooperate to help to put its own house in order.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I read with a very great deal of interest the preliminary report of Dr. Ross, and as this report deals with one of the basic commodities of Pennsylvania, and particularly the western part of Pennsylvania, I agree with the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, that a few days or a few more weeks will make no difference; and I particularly am very much interested in seeing the final report, and I sincerely hope that the gentleman from Fayette will permit this bill to go over in its order—at least until the committee has sufficient time to make its final report, which should not take, as I understand it, very many more days.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I do not want to do anything that will prevent this commission from making its report. However, I think I speak the minds of many members of this Senate that we do not intend to sit here all summer in order to get that report. Since we, most of the members of the Assembly, are anxious to adjourn very shortly, and this bill, being a Senate bill, requires action by the House, I shall at this time move that this bill go over in order.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 226 go over in its order until Monday night at nine o'clock. That gives this commission another week's time within which to submit its report.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. It has been moved by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, and seconded by the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, that Senate Bill No. 226 go over in its order until next Monday evening, May 22, 1939, at nine o'clock P. M. Is there objection?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I do not like to object to a motion that has in view the giving of an opportunity of making a report. However, this matter has been in the hands of this committee some three weeks, and this bill has been placed on the postponed calendar for the purpose of receiving this information.

This is a Senate bill and if it goes over until next Monday at nine o'clock it might mean the final defeat of this bill; and I ask if the Senator will not amend the motion to read until Tuesday morning. I understand the report is prepared and it is merely a matter of arranging for the mimeographing of it.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, suppose we make it Thursday, let it go over until Thursday of this week.

Mr. OWLETT. Very well, Mr. President, if the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will amend his motion.

AMENDS MOTION THAT SENATE BILL 226 GO OVER IN ITS ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I amend my motion. I move that this bill go over in its order, at the head of the calendar, until Thursday of this week.

The PRESIDENT. At what time on Thursday?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, we do not know when we are going to adjourn.

The PRESIDENT. Suppose you make it a special order of business for three o'clock, daylight saving time.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. That will be satisfactory, Mr. President.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I do not quite understand why it is necessary to pass this bill at all—not only next Thursday but next Monday. I say to you here is a commission that has information that was gathered over seven or eight months of hearings and testimony all over this State, and why it is necessary or desirable to abolish that commission when it has all the information the people of Pennsylvania want and that they ought to know about.

The commission costs the State of Pennsylvania, the taxpayers, about $40,000, to gather this information, and because it was so vital to the people of Pennsylvania I cannot for the life of me see why this commission should be abolished. Of course, if it is the desire to abolish this commission and then have the thing quieted, if it is the desire to let the people forget what we have learned—as I said before this is not a muck-raking commission, it is a commission that I feel dealt fairly with this proposition. One of the members was a brilliant lawyer, and another was Judge Smith of the Common Pleas Court of Pittsburgh, and it seems to me this information is so valuable and so concerns, I might say, every individual in Pennsylvania that there certainly can be no harm if the commission is allowed to continue and at least, if they do nothing more until the next session, they should be allowed to receive complaints and analyse the testimony that has already been adduced.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the motions were coincidental. A motion to go over in order has to be a separate motion—both those motions should not be joined in one, they are coincidental.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair understands the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, withdrew the first motion.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, a moment ago, after consultation, the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, consented that this bill might go over in its order until Thursday. I am inclined to suggest to my colleagues, in view of the statement of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, that this bill had better be acted upon tonight.

It is very apparent that the claim of the necessity of time for making a report has in mind only the killing of this bill, and it seems to me that it might be better to dispose of it tonight than to delay any longer.

They have had three or four weeks in which to make a report, and I am not terribly impressed by the statement of my good friend from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, when he speaks of how interested he is in the oil business, because I recall on April 25th when the independent oil dealers had a bill up that they said meant life and death to them the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, who should have known all about the oil industry, voted "no" on this bill.

I would like to suggest to the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, that he withdraw the motion and let us dispose of this bill at this time. It has been called up and I think we all know about it. If they have the report ready they can put it in now and it will not be in any way interfered with by the passage of this legislation, which has been on our calendar now for four weeks.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I do not want to be arbitrary in this matter, and I am willing to do anything that is reasonable, and at this time I, in justice, think that we ought to sustain the motion that I made; we ought to make this a special order of business for next Thursday, because that would give the commission three more days here, and it will give the House sufficient time to pass the bill before we adjourn, assuming that we want to adjourn on May the 26th. I do not want to do anything that would keep us from receiving this report, if they want to put it in.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I can see no good reason why there should be extreme haste in passing this bill, and thereby killing a commission which is certainly performing a very valuable service to Pennsylvania, and giving, or at least, having the opportunity to give some very interesting information to the people of Pennsylvania.

I happen to come from a section where there are hundreds, almost thousands, of oil wells. I know hundreds of the oil producers of my counties, especially Butler County, and they are all united in telling me that they are producing oil at a loss.

Then, too, a good many of those producers have the same experience that I have every week I come down to Harrisburg, that is, I buy gasoline here at Harrisburg at from four to five cents a gallon cheaper than I do back at home, where the oil is taken out of the ground; and I belong to that group of Pennsylvanians who would like to know why it is that we in Western Pennsylvania, where the oil is produced, have to pay from four to five cents more for gasoline than the gentlemen do down here in the central and eastern part of the State, where we, at the same time, are informed that the transportation costs of gasoline from the eastern part of the State to the western part of the state is less than one cent a gallon.

So, in order that we may have some of these things cleared up for us, I think it will do no harm to give a few days of life to this commission in order that it may make its report.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, may I make an inquiry of the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Owlett?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I would like to inquire as to whether, under the rules of the Senate, if this bill passes the Senate tonight, is there anything to interfere with the committee presenting its report later in the session? I mean, a committee authorized by the Senate can report at any time, can it not?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in reply to the inquiry of the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, I would state first, this bill cannot possibly pass the House until next week or the latter part of this week; and it then has to be signed by the Governor; and until the bill has passed both houses and is signed by the Governor, it is still a law. Therefore, the committee can make its report any time this week.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, whether this will save the Commonwealth any money?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in reply to the inquiry of the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, I do not know how much money the commission has left; but, if they have not spent all the money, and if we abolish the committee now, it will go back to the State, and thus money will be saved.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, if they have spent a great deal of money to get this information, and then they do not make a report I do not see how we, as members of this Senate, can justify our position in abolishing this particular commission before it makes a report. It may be able in a week or it may not; it may not be able to make its report by the time the bill is signed by the Governor, and then all the money spent will be wasted. I do not believe the commission should be abolished. They are not doing anything wrong; they are only following the law which created them, and if they are not doing what is right let us get rid of the members and put in new members, but I do not believe it is fair to abolish a commission that has not sent in a report.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in view of the fact that the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, has asked that the bill go over until Thursday; and, in view of the fact that we have a long calendar, I will withdraw my objection to its going over until Thursday, if it will be acted on finally on Thursday.

The PRESIDENT. The motion of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, is that the bill go over in its order until Thursday, and that it be made a special order of business at two p. m., Eastern Standard Time, on Thursday, May 18th.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 288, (House Bill No. 474), on third reading, postponed for the present.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 288, (House Bill No. 474), entitled:

An Act to further amend section three of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws 452) entitled "An act to promote the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth creating a General State Authority as a body corporate and politic with power to construct improve and operate projects and to lease the same and to fix and collect fees rentals and charges for the use thereof authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by said Authority and providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof and to enter into agreements with Government of the United States or any Federal agency and authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to grant assign convey or lease to the Authority lands of the Commonwealth and interests therein and to acquire lands therefor granting the right of eminent domain and providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act" fixing terms for the appointed members of the General State Authority and terminating the terms of present members

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 288 (HOUSE NO. 474)

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the bill passed second reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I voted "aye".

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which the title was agreed to.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Sections two and one of the bill were severally reconsidered.

The first section of the bill was read as follows:

Section 1 Section three of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws 452) entitled "An act to promote the welfare of the people of the Commonwealth creating a General State Authority as a body corporate and politic with power to construct improve and operate projects and to lease the same and to fix and collect fees rentals and charges for the use thereof authorizing and regulating the issuance of bonds by said Authority and providing for the payment of such bonds and the rights of the holders thereof and to enter into agreements with the Government of the United States or any Federal agency and authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to grant assign convey or lease to the Authority lands of the Commonwealth and interests therein and to acquire lands therefor granting the right of eminent domain and providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act" as last amended by section one of the act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1602) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 3 General State Authority The Governor of the State the State Treasurer the Auditor General the Secretary of Internal Affairs the Secretary of Property and Supplies the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President pro tempore of the Senate and their respective successors in office and three citizens of Pennsylvania one to be appointed by the Governor one by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and one by the President pro tempore of the Senate are hereby created a body corporate and politic constituting a public corporation and governmental instrumentality by the name of "The General State Authority" Said members of the Authority shall be entitled to no compensation for their services as members but shall be entitled to reimbursement for all necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their duties as members The term of the member appointed by the Governor shall expire with the term of the Governor appointing him The terms of the two other appointed members shall expire on the first Tuesday of January of the odd-numbered year following the date of his appointment Any vacancy happening among the appointed members of the Authority shall be filled by appointment by the Governor Speaker of the House of Representatives or President pro tempore of the Senate as the case may be

In the case of each appointed member now serving where the term of office of the officer who appointed him has already expired the term of office of such appointed member is hereby terminated as of the effective date of these amendments

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move to amend section 1 (section 3), page 3, line 27 by striking out after the word "of" and before the word "appointment", with boldface brackets, the word: S "[his]" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: (with underscoring) "their"; S amend section 1 (section 3), page 4 by striking out, with boldface brackets, lines 3 to 7, inclusive; amend page 4 by inserting between lines 7 and 8 the following new section: S "Section 2 In the case of each appointed member now serving where the term of office of the officer who appointed him has already expired the term of office of such appointed member shall expire and is hereby terminated as of the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine."

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

L. 2045) entitled "An act relating to the support of indigent persons public cared for or assisted providing for the support of such persons by certain relatives and for the support of such persons by certain relatives and for the recovery of public moneys expended for care and assistance from the property and estates of such persons providing for guardians of the person and property of such persons providing for the arrest and seizure and sale of the property of deserters and providing procedure" by providing that certain property of an indigent person shall not be liable in any action for the recovery of public funds expended on behalf of such persons.

be recommitted to the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions, for the purpose of further study.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will the Senator from Tioga state his reason for moving that this bill be recommitted?

Mr. OWLETT. Very gladly, Mr. President. There is a bill in the House which has been drawn by the Department of Public Assistance, which conforms with the thought set forth in the resolution just passed by this Senate.

This bill No. 47 is not in conformacy with the policy or the program of the Department of Public Assistance, and we think that it should be recommitted to the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, as I understand it, unless bills have the stamp of approval of some department head, they must go back in committee. I have been waiting a long time to find that out, and I have wondered why certain bills have been kept in committee and others were not. I have the answer now.

This bill was introduced early in this session, I believe in the first month of the session. I think it one of the most important bills on the calendar; it pertains to the properties of indigent persons. Under the present laws any person reaching the age of seventy and applies for a pension, if he or she has acquired any property throughout their lives they must first assign this property to the government for repayment of any money they receive. The drone of society, the person that has nothing, never cared for anything, can walk up and demand and receive old age assistance; but the persons that have built our communities, our schools, our Commonwealth—and because he or she has been aggressive we are telling them, because he has a little property he must assign this property to the Government for the repayment of any assistance he might receive.

I think it is unAmerican, and undemocratic, and I think this bill should eliminate that condition, give to that person who has been aggressive the privilege of keeping that property after death, to hand it down to his family.

I maintain that if this government has arrived at this conclusion, where it must depend upon the property of those aged persons, we certainly have gone far afield—God bless this Commonwealth.

I trust that my colleagues will uphold me and keep this bill from going back to committee. I object to the motion, and I ask for a roll call.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I am co-sponsor of this Act, and I was co-sponsor in 1937 and also in 1935 of similar acts. I was told at that time that the bill could not be passed because of constitutional limitations. The people of this Commonwealth passed a constitutional amendment in 1937 specifically designed so that persons receiving old age assistance and mother's assistance, and the like, could receive that assistance without signing away whatever small properties they may have accumulated in their life time.

If the majority of the people in this Commonwealth decided that was a fair proposition, that a person who had accumulated a small estate was entitled to keep it, then I believe it is the duty of this Senate to pass enabling legislation in order that they can receive such assistance. The move to send this bill back to committee is nothing but a move to kill it; it is similar to the action taken last week when the bond question came up. Any action taken tonight on these lines must react against persons receiving ordinary relief. I believe a vote to send this back to committee is a vote against a person receiving old age assistance and mother's assistance in Pennsylvania; and so I am going to ask the Senate to vote to keep this bill on the calendar, and against the motion to send it back to committee.

A roll call was demanded by the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, and the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska; and upon a request by the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, for a verification of the roll, the affirmative vote was read by the clerk as follows:

Messrs. Bartlett, Chapman, Crowe, Dando, Deitrick, Ealy, Edmonds, Eroe, Farrell, Gelder, Geltz, Heyburn, Homsher, James, Letzler, Mallery, Miller, Owlett, Scarlett, Snowden, Stevenson, Tallman, Thomas, Walker, Wolfenden, and Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any corrections to the affirmative roll? The Chair hears none.

The affirmative vote will stand as verified.

The negative roll was read by the clerk as follows: Messrs. Cavalcante, Coleman, Dent, DiSilvestro, Frey, Gilson, Haluska, Jaspan, Kilgallen, Kunkel, Lanius, McCreesh, McGinnis, Mundy, Reed, Rice, Ruth, Shapiro, Sipe, and Stiefel.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any corrections to the negative roll? The Chair hears none.

The negative vote will stand as verified.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 383, (House Bill No. 346), entitled:

An Act to validate mortgages on real estate in this Commonwealth given by a foreign corporation unauthorized to hold title to the said real estate said real estate having been heretofore conveyed to a citizen of the United States or a corporation authorized to hold such real estate.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to call to the attention of those who are interested in this bill and the next bill Senate Bill No. 383, (House Bill No. 346), that they are both validating acts and of course should require that they become immediately effective. Neither of these acts have an effective date and therefore will not become effective until September. I suggested that those persons who are interested see to it that the House properly amends the bills.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General by the direction of the Republican Caucus.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 522, (House Bill No. 538), entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the fifth day of March one thousand nine hundred and three (P. L. 13) entitled "An act in relation to abandonment of portions of railroads."

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is there anyone in this room who can enlighten the members of the Senate as to the purpose of this bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I was in a meeting of the Committee on Public Utilities, when this bill was considered, and on looking up the Act which this bill repealed, we found that it provides that any railroad that does not run a train over its tracks for a year thereby automatically abandons the railroad.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the term is six months.

Mr. OWLETT. That is right, Mr. President, six months. It is obvious, in view of the present railroad situation, that this is an improper provision. I think that Act should be repealed.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, while I agree with the gentleman that six months may be a short period of time at this time, the effect of this Act will mean that a railroad can fail to run a train over its tracks for five years and still have a franchise. Does not the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, think that rather than repeal the Act it should be amended?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in reply to the inquiry of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, I wish to call to his attention the fact that the railroads are under the control of the Public Utility Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission, which amply protects the public in the operation and disuse of railroads. I understand some problems have arisen due to this old Act, which apparently have been disregarded in recent years. They are many roads that are coal roads or logging roads which will not be operated for six months, and I think this can all be controlled by the Public Utility Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it may be that the Interstate Commerce Commission can control a railroad that runs interstate, but not those that run intrastate. I do not think the Act ought to be repealed. I think this law will enable the railroads to keep their franchises without operating them; and there is nothing the Public Utility Commission can do about it, and as a matter of fact if we keep on with amendments to the Public Utility Act there will not be any Public Utility Commission necessary in the next three or four weeks.

I am not asking my colleagues to vote "no" on this bill, and in order to avoid that I think it would be much better to amend the present law and give the railroads a reasonable length of time to take care of existing conditions, but certainly not a bill of health for a number of years.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I submit this does not give the railroads a bill of health for any number of years, and I think the bill should be passed.

On the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to change my vote from "aye" to "no."

The PRESIDENT. It will be so recorded.

Mr. LETZLER. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "aye."

The PRESIDENT. It will be so recorded.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, having voted under a misrepresentation I desire to change my vote from "aye" to "no."

The PRESIDENT. It will be so recorded.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30

Bartlett,	Eroe,	Lanius,	Snowden,
Cavalcante,	Farrell,	Letzler,	Stevenson,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate my colleague, Dr. Woodward, the Senator from Philadelphia.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the next bill on the Calendar is Senate Bill No. 539. I know it has not been called up yet, but I want to interrogate my colleague, Dr. Woodward, before it is called up. I would like to ask him, Mr. President, is it not true that this is the bill we had in the Senate in 1937, and which was defeated, and also I think, 1935, and then if it is, will the Senator explain for the information of the Senate the purpose of this bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this bill has been in the Senate for about a hundred years.

Mr. SHAPIRO. A hundred years, Mr. President?

Mr. WOODWARD. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is before my time, I think the Senator will admit that.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this bill is what might be called an anchor to windward. Many years ago we had a mayor in Philadelphia who said he was not there for his health. He locked his office and refused a check for a million dollars, written by John Wanamaker, for the franchises he was giving away to the traction company for 999 years.

Now, then, in the event that the PRT is sued by any one of the underliers, there is a pyramid of underliers, about sixty of them, any one of those underliers that attempts to run the traction system and does not do it well can be taken into court, and the people may recover the franchises which they gave away for 999 years. Therefor it is a very good bill—anyway I call it an anchor to windward.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is wishful thinking.

Mr. WOODWARD. Perhaps it is, Mr. President; I call it an anchor to windward.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill has been lying around here too long, if it has been here a hundred years, and I am going to ask my colleagues to vote for it, to get rid of it.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, what was that mayor's name.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I do not like to give his name.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 539, entitled:

An Act relating to proceedings for the forfeiture of rights privileges or franchises of corporations making claim against street railway traction or motor power companies in certain cases and providing for the disposition of rights privileges or franchises forfeited and for contracts relating thereto

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, before the vote is counted I should like to injuire whether this bill we are voting on, Senate Bill No. 539, is Printer's No. 242, or whether the next bill, Senate Bill No. 570, is Printer's 242. Both bills on the calendar are numbered Printer's number 242.

The PRESIDENT. In answer to the Senator's inquiry the Chair states that both bills on the Calendar show Printer's No. 242. One of them is in error.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—45

Jaspan,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER SENATE No. 448

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I move the vote by which Senate Bill No. 448, on page 6 of today's third reading calendar, House Bill No. 394, was recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Government, be reconsidered.

Th PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask that the motion be voted down. This bill has been recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Government for the purpose of further study and amendment.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Tioga the purpose of recommitting that bill.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, this bill provides for the amendment of an act which has to do with the licensing of plumbers in cities and boroughs, and it was designed to extend the provisions of that act to cities of the second class A. This legislature, however, some little time ago, repealed the part of the Act that has to do with boroughs; and in this Act it is feared it will have the effect of reinstating the Act heretofore repealed by this section. Therefore, we desired to recommit this bill to the Committee on Municipal Government for the purpose of amendment and further study, to be sure that we do not reinstate the plumber's, as applicable to boroughs, by passage of this Act.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I ask my colleagues in the Senate to vote against recommitting this bill. I am just a little bit fearful this bill will meet the same fate as other bills affecting only the City of Scranton, that is death by strangulation, in committee.

This bill was introduced by a Republican House member at the request of the people of Scranton, and affects only the people of Scranton; therefore I see no reason why there should be opposition on the part of the Republican floor leader, and I ask my colleagues to support my motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill was recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Government.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to say for the benefit of the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Coleman, that I was in Committee at the time this bill came up and the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, raised that question, and after we discussed the matter we came to the conclusion that this bill did not have the effect of repealing the Act which we passed. Now I am informed there is some question as to whether or not the bill does and it is my recommendation that we look into it and see. I have the assurance of the members of that committee that this is not an attempt to strangle the bill but merely an attempt to see that we are sure. I suggest to the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Coleman, as a member of that committee that I will see to it that the matter will be taken up promptly.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I desire to ask the majority floor leader, the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, if he will agree to place this bill on the postponed calendar.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, this is a House bill and we have plenty of time to reconsider it. The Senate has already acted and recommitted the bill. If it is to be amended it can be amended easily in the committee. I want to again assure the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Coleman, that this is no attempt to kill this bill. The members of the majority party that I talked to are all in favor of the bill if it merely adds to the provisions in this Act cities of second class A. They are concerned, however, about re-enacting the borough Act by this bill, and I think the bill ought to stay back in committee, where we put it, until we can get it straightened out.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill was recommitted.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I withdraw my seconding of the motion.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 570, (House Bill No. 762), entitled:

An Act to amend subdivision heading (i) of article eleven and section one thousand one hundred forty of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 103) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" authorizing the towship supervisors to accept lands dedicated by deed to the township for highway purposes

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I wish to state, on this bill, that for a long number of years, the State has adopted the policy of taking over highways in townships and making them State routes. That has been going on for the purpose of reducing township mileage, and thereby relieving the landowners from taxation to maintain those roads.

Now, this bill opens the door to road supervisors to accept by deed roads or lands—or lands for road purposes—and you will have this situation: the State will be every year taking over township roads, and the township supervisors taking deeds of everything that they can find in their township in plans or lots recorded by land companies, or other persons who hold lands and they will take over those roads or lands in those recorded plans and then make streets through those lands at the expense of the taxpayers in other parts of the townships—the farmers and the rest of them.

I think this is a bad piece of legislation and we ought not to pass it. We ought not to give the road supervisors the right to accept by deed, but we ought to let the system be as it now is established, before they can take any land for road purposes they ought to be permitted to petition the court and get the court's approval. By procedure of that kind the people who are affected in the township, the taxpayers, may have an opportunity to be heard, but if we pass this bill it will permit the road supervisors to accept a deed of land for road purposes, without the necessity of going into court, and without permitting the taxpayers an opportunity to object to the taking over of any land.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 578, (House Bill No. 1068), on third reading entitled:

An Act to further amend section five hundred thirty of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 1206) entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by changing the method of filling vacancies in boards of commissioners be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Government for the purpose of further study.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WOLFENDEN, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 584 on third reading entitled:

An Act to repeal section two of the act approved the first day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven (3 Smith's Laws 294) entitled "An act to regulate the manner of selling loaf bread and to repeal certain existing laws respecting the same"

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 611, (House Bill No. 1063), entitled:

An Act to add section six hundred twenty-one and one-tenth to and to further amend section six hundred twenty-nine of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" defining and regulating group accident and health insurance and extending the exclusion of certain standard policy provisions to ticket policies sold to passengers by common carriers.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 621.1), page 3, line 11, by striking out the word: S "which" and inserting in lieu thereof; "in addition"; amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 621.1), page 4, lines 26 and 27, by striking out the words: S "contained in a written application" and inserting in lieu thereof: "in writing"; amend Sec. 1 (Sec 621.1), page 5, lines 12 and 13, by striking out: S all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof: "A provision stating the conditions on which the insurance becomes effective and the conditions on which it terminates."; amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 621.1), page 5, lines 17 to 19, by striking out: S all of said lines.; amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 629), page 9, lines 12 to 17 by striking out the following S "The Provisions of section six hundred seventeen" in line 12, and all of lines 13 to 17 and inserting in lieu thereof: "The provisions of sections six hundred sixteen six hundred seventeen six hundred eighteen and six hundred nineteen of this act shall not apply to those forms of health and accident policies enumerated in section six hundred twenty-one and one-tenth of this act except as provided in said section. Reference in sections six hundred twenty-one of this act to standard provisions shall not be deemed to refer to policies issued under authority of section six hundred twenty-one and one-tenth of this act.; amend Bill, page 11, by inserting after line 9 the following section: S "Section 3. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment."

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That said bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 618, (House Bill No. 193), entitled:

An Act relating to the assessment of real and personal property and other subjects of taxation in counties of the first class providing for the appointment of members of the board of revision of taxes by the judges of the courts of common pleas providing for the appointment by the board of personal property assessors real estate assessors and assistant real estate assesors clerks and other employes fixing the salaries of members of the board assessors and assistant assessors and providing for the payment of salaries and expenses from the county treasury prescribing the powers and duties of the board and of the assessors the time and manner of making assessments of the revision and notice of assessments and of appeals therefrom prescribing the records of assessments and repealing existing laws

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, when I left here last Thursday, I requested that bills that related particularly to Philadelphia go over in their order until tonight, because there were certain matters I wanted to discuss in connection with those bills. One of those bills was passed nevertheless, in spite of that arrangement, last Friday and I have the assurance of the Senator from Tioga that that was a matter of inadvertance. There would have been sufficient votes here to pass the bill tonight and I am not making objection except I think it necessary in connection with this one bill.

That bill permitted the City of Philadelphia to spread a forty million dollar deficit over a period of approximately sixteen years; that is, two and a half million dollars a year. It is important, in connection with this bill, to know what that means. There is nothing in the law or in that bill which will prevent any creditor of the City of Philadelphia from proceeding to reduce his claim against the city to judgment, so that forty million dollars worth of judgments can now be entered against the City of Philadelphia, and undoubtedly will be entered, in view of this situation, because at the last session in 1937, against my better judgment, and against a statement which I made on the floor that I saw no point in extending the time for the payment of deficits, we passed a bill giving the City of Philadelphia the right to include twenty-five million dollars in its budget over a period of five years, at the rate of five million dollars a year.

The result has been not that the city has been helped but the city's interest has been increased because of the number of those claims, and now we have a $40,000,000 deficit; the interest on mandamuses issued will amount to six per cent on $40,000,000 or $2,400,000 a year, reduced by $150,000 for every year the $2,500,00 is paid if anything is paid; so that nothing has been accomplished by that except to increase the cost of running the City of Philadelphia—at a time when it has not been able as yet to meet its budget because of the financial situation. Now, tonight, that not being enough—having permitted the City of Philadelphia to spread its deficit and increase its interest, they are now going to increase this deficit, because in 1937 we passed a bill in this Senate reducing the number of employees in the Board of Revision of Taxes from 80 assessors, at $5,000 a year, or $400,000 to 20 assessors at $4,000 a year; and 10 junior assessors at salaries ranging from $1,800 to $2,700; and we extended the time for making assessments from one year to three years, so that the work of these men has been reduced from an annual to a triennial assessment basis—there was a reduction in that department—the total salaries exclusively of clerks and stenographers was $203,250—there was a reduction in that department, some $585,000, to $203,000.

Now, this bill proposes that everything in the board shall remain the same except that the president of the Board of Revision of Taxes instead of getting $12,000 a year shall receive only $10,000, the same as his six colleagues, and it adds the following: instead of two personal property assessors it is now eight personal property assessors at $5,000 a year, or $40,000; instead of 20 senior assessors, it is now 36 assessors at $5,000 a year; instead of $4,000 or $180,000; instead of 10 junior assessors it is now 36 real estate assessors at salaries of $2,500, or $90,000.

Under the old bill the Board of Revision of Taxes was limited to the number fixed; it could not increase the number at any time except as to stenographers and clerks. Under the present bill in addition to that, if it is not enough to authorize the expenditures of an additional $184,000, the bill reads, first, that each one of these new men who heretofore has never been appointed for more than one year has, through this Act, been appointed for six years; and the board may from time to time increase the number of personal property assessors, real estate assessors and assistant real estate assessors appointed by it as it shall find necessary, subject, however, to the approval to the tax levying body of the county.

This board started originally with some thirty assessors, and with the approval of the tax levying body it ended up with 80 assessors, at $5,000 a year, or $400,000 for assessors. The City of Cincinnati has an equal amount appropriated, somewhere in the neighborhood of $480,000, to assess also its personal property taxes, inventories in stores, etc., and it does it at a cost of $200,000.

This bill passed in 1937 contemplates and provides for the installation of a modern system of assessment; it would have taken some half million dollars or more to have installed that system. The W.P.A. offered as a project —I referred to that last week—they offered to spend $1,-000,000 to set up a modern system of assessments, to do all the clerical work, to appraise everyone of those properties, and to install maps and plans, which would cost $500,000 and employ one thousand people; and asked the city of Philadelphia to put up $80,000—that was all that was necessary to do in order to install that system, but the City of Philadelphia pleaded poverty, ignoring the offer of the W.P.A., and that work was not done.

Today this session of the legislature is asked to increase the cost of that department to the City of Philadelphia by hundreds of thousands of dollars. I want to see how many men of this administration, pledged, as Governor James was, to help Philadelphia, are going to vote for this bill; and I want to see whether Governor James is going to sign it.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I vote "aye" and after the vote is announced I will explain my vote.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The affirmative was verified as follows: Bartlett, Cavalcante, Chapman, Crowe, Dando, Dietrick, Ealy, Edmonds, Eroe, Farrell, Gelder, Geltz, Heyburn, Homsher, James, Letzler, Mallery, Miller, Owlett, Scarlett, Snowden, Stevenson, Tallman, Thomas, Walker, Wolfenden, and Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any corrections in the affirmative vote? The Chair hears none.

The affirmative vote will stand as verified.

The negative vote was verified as follows: Messrs. Coleman, Dent, DiSilvestro, Frey, Gilson, Haluska, Jaspan, Kilgallen, Kunkel, Lanius, McCreesh, McGinnis, Mundy, Reed, Rice, Ruth, Shapiro, Sipe, and Stiefel.

The PRESIDENT. Are there any corrections? The Chair hears none.

The negative vote will stand as verified.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—27

Bartlett,	Edmonds,	James,	Stevenson,
Cavalcante,	Eroe,	Letzler,	Tallman,
Chapman,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Thomas,
Crowe,	Gelder,	Miller,	Walker,
Dando,	Geltz,	Owlett,	Wolfenden,
Deitrick,	Heyburn,	Scarlett,	Woodward,
Ealy,	Homsher,	Snowden,

NAYS—19

Coleman,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Ruth,
Dent,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Shapiro,
DiSilvestro,	Kilgallen,	Mundy,	Sipe,
Frey,	Kunkel,	Reed,	Stiefel,
Gilson,	Lanius,	Rice,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I hesitated on that vote and I would like to explain the reason for my hesitation. I think the Act of 1937—if it was 1937—cutting down the number of assessors in Philadelphia was too drastic. I think this Act is a more wholesome expansion, though it goes somewhat farther than I would like to see. Nevertheless, the fact that they had twenty districts under the Shapiro plan in my judgment would work a hardship in Philadelphia, to make it successful. I voted for it for that reason, although I would have voted for it with more willingness if the difference had been less severe.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I agree with the Senator from Montgomery thoroughly that this is a very wholesome difference—the wholesomeness is that instead of having thirty-five jobs they will have eighty jobs; and I would like to call attention to the gentleman from Montgomery—who was at one time my instructor and to whom I look up with a great deal of respect and with a great deal of admiration—I was in Cincinnati and saw this work done by eighteen people every three years; and I might say that while I hoped this bill would be defeated, I am perfectly satisfied to have the Republicans put themselves on record—I wanted to see this economy administration in action.

I now want to see the Governor carry out his policies, in his economic administration, when it comes to the City of Philadelphia, where he received thousands of votes on the promise that he was going to do something for Philadelphia.

There is another matter in connection with this. I am going to be so happy on this proposition, I am going to keep a promise I made, I promised my Republican colleagues—and I want them to understand I never go back on my word, even though it costs me money—this will bring to light what has happened. I think any investment the citizens could make to bring to light what has happened here today and bring to light what might happen if the Governor signs this bill, any investment of monies, will inure to the benefit of the citizens of Philadelphia; and when the Governor signs the bill I will carry out my promise—gladly.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, as long as this record is apparently being made up after the vote is counted I think it might be well to show the true situation with reference to this bill.

This bill was introduced for the purpose of permitting the Board of Revision of Taxes to carry into effect many of the thoughts intended by the new Act of 1937, enacted during the last Session of the Legislature, and in an endeavor to bring about a scientific method of assessment for the equalization of taxation of real estate, and in aid of the City as well as the taxpayer. Then along came the Session of 1937 and instead of three assessors at $7,500 a year they made seven assessors at $10,000, and in so doing they cut down the number of deputy assessors or appraisers to a number which has made it impossible to function

This Act provides for thirty-six assessment districts with thirty-six assessors at $5,000 each, the present salary—makes it thirty-six instead of twenty—it creates and provides for one assistant to each assessor, at $2,500, instead of two assessors for each district at $5,000 each, as provided by the Shapiro Act. This Act provides for one chief personal property assessor at $7,500, as at present, and eight personal property assessors at $5,000 each, as at present.

The bill also reduces the salary of the chairman from $12,500 to $10,000. It eliminates the chief appraiser, at a salary of $8,500; it eliminates two deputy appraisers at $5,000 each; it eliminates twenty senior assistants at $4,000 each.

The Act of April 28, 1937, (P. L. 480) also enlarged and increased the duties of the Board. Assessments are now made of 478,682 parcels of real estate, at a valuation of $2,522,664,408, and of personal property to the value of $892,992,489, which made in 1938, was an increase of $19,769,041 over 1937.

The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro has talked about a W.P.A, project to do this work, which fell through for lack of funds.

Mr. President, in the City of Pittsburgh, which as everyone knows is in the control of Senator Shapiro's present party—the party he is now affiliated with—there are 249 permanent employees, 65 temporary employees for a period of five months—of which there are 35 employes in the personal property department, whereas in Philadelphia under this Act there will be seven.

The City of Philadelphia since 1931 has made reductions in assessments amounting $944,000,000. During the year 1938 the reduction amounted to $54,665,000, whereas in Pittsburgh. assessments had been increased $50,000,000. The cost of the county assessment department in Pittsburgh amounted to $625,000 even with a mechanical system installed.

The new bill will not increase the personnel appropriation heretofore made. While prior to the Act of 1937 the appropriation was $558,230 in 1938, under the Act of 1937—which reduced the work of the department, due to lack of help the appropriation was $498,000. The appropriation for 1939 is for the same amount—$498,000.

I had hoped, Mr. President, that it would not be necessary for some one of us outside of Philadelphia to defend the fair name of that city. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has never lost occasion all during this session of this legislature to call attention to what a rotten city Philadelphia is. I am not a resident of Philadelphia but I did obtain my legal education there, such as it is, and I have been around Philadelphia all my life and I, as a citizen of Pennsylvania, am proud of that great city, and I think, Mr. President, we have heard enough on the floor of this Senate in derogation of the great City of Philadelphia, the biggest metropolis of this State.

I was interested also, after the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, talking about those of us who had the temerity to oppose proportional representation the other day—said that none of us had the right to ever question the fact that they wanted proportional representation. In that connection I want to read from a speach that was made by Robert Moses of New York City, and a lecturer at Harvard—I would like to read for the information of the Senate what he said about Proportional Representation, because it throws, Mr. President, a little light on how careless the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro is in his statements when it comes to Philadelphia, and when he thinks that the Democratic organization there can get a little advantage by slandering that great city—

Mr. SHAPIRO. Of course, Mr. President, I will not rise to a point of order.

Mr. OWLETT. This is what Robert Moses said, in that part of his lecture which has a particular application to Philadelphia. It is called "A Note on P. R. By An Expert:

"In the province of government there is an endless line of reformers, most of them fresh from the campus and the lecture hall, who believe implicitly in the complete effectiveness of certain forms of government. We all begin with such notions. Some of us persist in them to the bitter end, but others realize as they go along that the thing is best which works best. Pope said it all years ago:

'For forms of government let fools contest;
Whate'er is best administered is best.'

"One of the newest and shiniest governmental gadgets is proportional representation. We have just had a dose of it in New York City in connection with our new charter, widely touted as the charter to end all charters, (That is the proportional representation that Senator Shapiro is so interested in) the most perfect fundamental law for a great city ever struck off by the hand of man, the herald of a new civic dawn, etc. etc. I may say in passing that in my opinion the new charter has done little more than complicate our city Government, and make it more expensive, long-winded, cumbersome and discouraging to first-rate talent than it was before (exactly what we have been told about the Philadelphia Charter—and that is what it means). There is not time here to labor this point. I want to limit this reference to proportional representation.

"We came by proportional representation in New York City in a curious way. It was an outgrowth of the Seabury Investigation, of the forced retirement of Mayor Walker and the victory of Fusion under Mayor La Guardia. Judge Seabury developed a passionate enthusiasm for proportional representation. I have always suspected that it was the only device that he could think of which might end party government in municipal affairs. In any event, his prestige at the time was so great and the people were so much in the mood to approve changes in the local Government that proportional representation slid through with the charter, and now we have it. The theory was that by reducing the old Aldermanic body chosen from small districts to a more compact Council selected on a borough-wide basis by proportional representation, we would obtain not only minority representation but a higher type of legislator who would think not of his own small bailiwick but of the city as a whole." He goes on and points out it produces a class vote, and he adds that—

"The results have been grotesque. The public did not understand the mechanics of selection. It may be stated that such selection is freakish rather than arithmetical. It took many days after the election to count the votes. All kinds of queer and potentially dangerous groupings and alliances resulted. There was a manifest tendency toward racial, religious, professional and other minority voting, which is no new thing in American politics, and surely needs no encouragement. When the Council got together there was a bitter wrangle over organization ending in the courts. There was no party or responsibility and none has developed. There were also unseemly wrangles over the actual residence of members, and one gentleman who apparently lived out of town was sustained in his claim that he lived in his office, where he drew hot and cold water out of the same steam pipe for his ablutions and slept at night on two office chairs. The debates or wrangles in the Council have been a source of ribald amusement constituting an undefying spectacle as pictured in the press, and as carried to thousands of listeners over the radio. What is even worse, the touch which the old Alderman had with his own people in his own words, is gone and no substitute for it has been found.

"There were too many Aldermen and too many districts under the old system, but the district plan of representation, based on one man getting more votes than any other among the people who knew him best, was a useful safety valve in our polyglot city. Personally, I got an immense amount of sound advice and help from the old Aldermen, and I devoutly hope we shall return to some kind of district representation and give up the crazy notion that there can be more than one winner in a race and that every minority and faction should be heard in our legislative halls. Not a single worth-while thing that I know of has been accomplished under proportional representation. Many of its proponents stubbornly stick to it, but the ring of conviction is gone, and the voters are getting very sick of it.

"Precisely the same thing applies to the city manager form of government. It seems to work in the smaller communities, but is no patent solution of the major problems of the larger municipalities of this country. The Council and city manager form, whether the Council is elected by proportional representation or not, is a dubious instrument of reform. I have seen city managers bootlick the members of a Council to keep a majority and I have seen them lose their jobs when the majority changed. I have seen the balance of power in a Council or commission form of government in the hands of a single crackpot elected by some freak, and completely indifferent to team work in government. Most of our municipalities require a real personality at the head, elected by the people themselves and not chosen by a Council or Board of Directors on false analogies with private business. Government is not business. It should partake more and more of the character of business in its administrative practices, but in determining policies and in meeting the thousand and one problems which involve public opinion it is silly to say that a good, sound business man is better than a politician. Some of our most pathetic failures in public administration have been made by good, sound business men who have learned when it was too late that government is something more than honest bookkeeping."

I say, Mr. President, after we have heard all this slander of the City of Philadelphia by one of its representatives—and there has never been occasion lost to criticize that city—it is time that some of us, even if we do not live in that city, stand up and defend that metropolis, and I am glad of the opportunity to do so.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Very gladly, Mr. President.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I am very happy to know—in fact I have always known that my friend from Tioga has had a very high respect for the city of Philadelphia; in fact he passed many of his days at 33rd and Spruce Streets, at the University of Pennsylvania. He has already stated this evening that Philadelphia is close to his heart, but now he goes on to say that the people of Philadelphia should be put in the position of receiving criticism continuously in this May-day affair here because we have to have a bundle of speeches—do you think it is fair, Senator Owlett, to say with one breath you like Philadelphia and at the same time say you will not give Philadelphia their opportunity to either accept or reject Proportional Representation?

Mr. OWLETT. I say, Mr. President, that this legislature, under the Constitution, is charged with the duty of submitting legislation to the people under a Constitutional amendment—but I say that does not mean we must shut our eyes to any kind of a proposal that is made.

I say further than that, as I have said on the floor of this Senate before, that the Charter bill should have provided a method whereby the people could have rejected the proportional representation part of the bill—to which I personally object—and in which I was very much pleased to find I had company in the way it has been working out in New York, where we are told it created a more expensive form of government.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, my friends ask why I should argue with a high priced attorney like my colleague from Tioga, but I would like to know from the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, if he thinks the people of Philadelphia ought not to have an opportunity to vote on the matter, and the Senator from Tioga has not answered my question. Yes or No, Senator.

Mr. OWLETT. My best answer to that, Mr. President, is the fact I voted "no" on the city charter bill and explained I did it because it contained a provision for proportional representation, with which principle I did not agree. My vote can be interpreted, therefore, in no other way than that. I was opposed to submission of a charter to the City of Philadelphia that neither the Senator nor anybody else can understand and it did contain provisions for proportional representation.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. I certainly do get a big experience in this Senate in watching the dodging, the swerving and squirming away of my esteemed colleague from Tioga, Mr. Owlett. He still has not answered my question.

Mr. Owlett, to put it in a different way—as a lawyer in a court room would say—do you believe in home rule—Senator?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I believe in home rule.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, why not give Philadelphia a chance to vote as it sees fit?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I believe I explained, at the time I explained my vote against the charter bill, that I thought there was never a bill more ably designed to destroy home rule than the city charter bill with the provisions for proportional representation. Because I was a friend of home rule I vote "no" on the bill.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Well, Mr. President, I do not think I will subject my friend to any more grilling cross-examination. I do not take the floor very often, but when I do I am a little steamed up by my friend from Tioga, he certainly has the needle that can inject me very good.

I wish to state on the floor of this Senate that the remarks made by the Senator from Tioga were totally out of place tonight, and if they were provoked by my friend, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, I am sorry; but we are discussing this bill here about the exorbitant amount of money that is going to be expended and which does not meet with the program of our esteemed Governor. I desire particularly to get out of here now, go back and get a rest, so that we can do our work tomorrow; so I ask my friend from Philadelphia and my friend from Tioga to stop fencing and give us a chance to do our work, because we are only wasting time.

The Senator from Tioga said he voted against the city charter. I would still ask my friend from Tioga, who has a lot of pull in the House, to please see that the Committee on Municipal Government puts that Charter Bill out so the people of Philadelphia may have an opportunity—and so that you can console yourselves that the people of Philadelphia are really what they are, nice, peace loving people who like to live in a city they can be proud of; and I think the Senator from Tioga, after having been so splendid in his discussion of the City of Brotherly Love, can help to keep the name of Philadelphia immaculate.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, my feelings toward my able floor leader are on this occasion a little mixed. When I voted "aye" on House bill No. 193 I did not know that it was such a completely meritorous measure, and I am very glad to have been reassured on that point.

The point where I do not agree with my able floor leader is the Philadelphia charter, and I simply want to say that the great Moses lead his people around a circle in the wilderness for forty years, and he never once found the Promised Land.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, it is reported that the City of Philadelphia is bankrupt. Is that correct?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it is supposed to be tottering on the edge of 77B.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, in order to be correct in my position, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, earlier this evening we adopted a resolution introduced by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Reed, and one of its provisions was that the major problem in Pennsylvania is unemployment—and that has also been the hue and cry over the State of Pennsylvania and in these Assembly halls for the last two or three Sessions, and I sincerely believe that the question of unemployment is a major problem, and when we sit down to solve that problem I do not care where the jobs come from, whether they are jobs created by the passage of an act which requires the expending of public funds or whether it is an act intended to promtoe private industry.

In the bill that has been under discussion here the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, laments that it will increase jobs, will cause employment of more people in Philadelphia. The gentleman from Tioga says, "No, it will cut down employment." That causes considerable confusion, and I think that both of those ideas are at odds with the problem of creating employment. So, in order to make sure on this matter, I voted for the bill, because I think it will create jobs and I am ready to vote for any bill to create jobs.

Whenever we passed a State authority bill that was a bill intended to create a State agency that would spend public funds, and nobody objected to that because that act would create employment by expending public funds; and I do not see why we should have any objection in passing this Act of Assembly if it creates more jobs for the City of Philadelphia.

Mr. President, there is another consideration that prompted me to vote for this bill. I see that the sponsor of this bill in the House, is a Mr. Hamilton. That name is very familiar to me; the name is very vivid in my imagination, because I remember that a number of us on this side of the House, believing in the arguments and statements, of many members of this Senate from Philadelphia—we popularly speaking, were put out on a limb, and then we were sold down the river in consideration of that name; and when this bill appeared on the calendar, with the name of Mr. Hamilton—another Mr. Hamilton—I thought we ought to be careful and weigh very carefully any argument advanced against it by the members from Philadelphia, for fear we might be sold down the river again, like we were before when we were considering a matter pertaining to a Mr. Hamilton.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have listened to the explanations of the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, Mr. Mallery, the gentleman from Blair, and Mr. Cavalcante the Senator from Fayette and I am reminded of a homely expression my father used to have. He used to say, "When you have to explain, it is bad already," and I am thinking today, when these gentleman have to explain their vote on this particular bill, that is bad already. There are a number of other gentlemen who are trying to explain their vote to themselves, and try as they will outwardly to explain it they will have a real difficulty in explaining it.

I heard no word, Mr. President, outside of the gentleman from Tioga, in favor of this bill. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, who is a former member of the Board of Assessors of Philadelphia, has not said a word in favor of this bill; but I repeat that this gentleman Moses has something to do with the charter bill, and how the gentleman from Tioga dragged it in I don't know, but I remember a little ditty we used when we were children —"Where was Moses when the lights went out?"—the rest of it you can remember for yourselves.

I can say figures do not lie but liars will figure. The gentleman from Tioga says that this requires a million dollars to prepare a set-up that would be a modern system, and since the City of Philadelphia did not have the money —which was $80,000—they could not do it; and since they did not have $80,000 to enable us to put a thousand people to work—and that might appeal to the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, by the passage of this bill and the refusal of Council to put up $80,000 to enable the saving I spoke of, they certainly will not have the $80,000 which will keep a thousand people out of work.

I say again there should be now 35 people employed, the payroll should be somewhere in the neighborhood of $300,000; counting clerks and stenographers the payroll has been over $400,000, and there are employees in that department in violation of the law, but in Philadelphia—and I am talking now about the government of Philadelphia and not the people or the City of Philadelphia—in Philadelphia the law is nothing among friends and everybody in the City of Philadelphia in the Republican organization that governs it are friends therefore the law is nothing among friends.

There should be 35 people employed under the law and under the present act there will be eighty and no matter how the gentleman from Tioga tries to explain it by the repetition of figures the facts are there should be, under the old act thirty-five people but there will be under the new act eighty people.

The payroll should be $203,000 under the old act. Under the new act it will be at least $387,000.

The fact is that when they had less people they did a better job and only decreased the assesment around $50,000,000 when they had more people they decreased it around $90,000,000—if we take more off maybe they will stop decreasing the assessment for personal friends and others.

I know whereof I speak, and when I make a statement on this bill of that character I am careful enough about it, and I say that the equalization of assessment by a modern system would level off the assessment in such a way that those who are entitled to lower assessments would get them, and those who should have higher assessments will get them, and we will get more taxes.

I continue to say I do not propose to be fooled by any statement from the gentleman from Tioga; I am not afraid of the fact that I was a Republican at one time, I might consider seriously whether I should not be ashamed of it; but I am not ashamed of it being mentioned, and I am not ashamed that I am now a Democrat; for the first time I am where I can feel and do and say what I think is right, and the continued repetition by the gentleman from Tioga, reminding me I was once a Republican does not reflect upon me but upon him.

I was a Republican for twenty-four years, and I left the Republican party because they did not want my candid, honest judgment. I was told that, as a Republican, you do not use judgment, you take orders, and I am one of those fellows who could not even take an order from my father when I thought he was wrong—of course, he was right, but I thought he was wrong.

There are many men in the Senate, as there are in the House, who are Democrats but who once were Republicans. As a matter of fact the Democratic party gained its victory through the desertion of disgusted Republicans who entered the ranks of the Democrats because there was no other place for them to go in order to get what they thought was decent government.

I want to repeat that the City of Philadelphia, as a city and as a name, has a great deal of history and a great many certainly beautiful things to its credit; and that is because of its tradition, it is because in its history it played an important part in the development of the nation, that I am crying maybe even into the wilderness, as it may be to the Senator from Tioga, in the hope that some day it will be brought back to its real standing.

My cry is not against the city, it is against the city managers; my cry is against the people who for five months have been unable or unwilling, or have not had intelligence enough, or the courage, to adopt a budget, the only city in the State of Pennsylvania which today, five months after the fiscal year has begun, is without a budget, and pays it payroll to its employees only by the grace of God and the assistance of the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in violating a law on the statute books which requires that they shall prepare their budget on the 15th of December.

What does the gentleman from Tioga expect me to do in a situation like that? Sure, he has been around Philadelphia, but that is all; he does not live in Philadelphia, he skirts around it; the Bellevue-Stratford is a nice place to stay, certainly it is a lovely place when you look at it, if you do not have to pay the taxes on it, that it cannot pay because of what has happened in Philadelphia. It is a nice place to go as long as the people in charge of the duty of collecting the taxes do enforce their rights; and that does not apply only to the Bellevue-Stratford.

The gentleman from Tioga answered the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. DiSilvestro, "Certainly I am in favor of home rule," but if he calls back my position in the Republican party I would like to recall to him his opposition when Philadelphia had a real home rule bill, one which this Senate did pass, an amendment to the Constitution authorizing the City of Philadelphia to consolidate the city with the county and make one government, so we could get good government. Under the present Charter—if we had had that bill, we might not have been put to the trouble of trying to get a new Charter Bill; another time they passed a bill authorizing the City of Philadelphia, by Constitutional amendment, to consolidate the city and county.

What does the gentleman from Tioga expect of the citizens of Philadelphia who get up every morning with a fear they do not know when the bondholders will file a petition and put us into 77B, to which the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, so jocularly referred?

It certainly is not funny to any man living in Philadelphia; it is not funny when you look over your councilmen and the Board of Revision of Taxes—there is nothing funny about them when we know they have been wasting our money year after year; not one of them from Philadelphia can talk about it; but the closest man to Philadelphia is the gentleman from Tioga, who comes from the western part of the State and he tells us that Philadelphia is a good city, our managers are fine and we ought to be ashamed of ourselves to protest against the City of Philadelphia, we ought not to take its fair name and bring it to disgrace.

Who has brought it to disgrace except these so-called managers, these political high-binders who have been taking its finances and wrecking it, taking the fair name of the City of Philadelphia and bringing it to disgrace? It was long ago said that Philadelphia was corrupt and contented—not by a Philadelphian but by an outsider which makes it worse.

We in Philadelphia know we are looking to this Governor, who told us what he was going to do for Philadelphia. We looked to Council for years, and we got nothing.

The gentleman made a marvelous argument, the best argument that could be advanced by the opponents of the charter bill, and if he had stuck to that argument alone, and had not dragged in Cummunism there would have been more force to his argument. What he should have done was to present that argument—with the voice of Moses—to the voters certainly all questions should be discussed, and in the open, but it belongs in Philadelphia and not in Tioga County.

I contend, and repeat, I know what is happening in Philadelphia—I live there. I am proud of its traditions but I am ashamed of its later history. I am ashamed of the fact that we have to come here year after year, and plead with these men to give us relief; and when we get relief from one organization then comes bock again the organization into power which has ruined the city, and it comes back and undoes the work that has been done.

The gentleman from Germantown, Dr. Woodward—he knows that the bill which we put through was a wise bill; he signed the report that cut this Board of Revision of Taxes down to its present number of employees. He made the statement, I think on the floor of this Senate that this was an economy measure and that the City of Philadelphia certainly needed to have economy applied to it.

He knows that he sat in the committee meeting. He knows that we examined city after city—we traveled during and after the session of the Legislature; I personally went to Cincinnati, Cleveland, Detroit, and most of the places where city management was in force and he knows as a result of that we brought back written, documentary evidence, to show that in other cities where a modern system of assessment prevailed the work was done cheaper and better.

We were ashamed, when we walked into one of those large cities, to see the fine piece of work they had done; ashamed, to see a modern system in what you might call a hick town, and come back to Philadelphia and see what is going on there.

We provided that there should be machinery, mechanical methods of assessment; and what happened? Today, as for years, 475,000 properties are written up in longhand in books, bound volumes, by these same assessors, and when they get through we have them start all over again and rewrite them, once more, 474,000 times; and if by that time they are not exhausted they begin all over and rewrite those properties in another set of books, 474,000 times; and then the City Controller, because of inaccuracies through handwriting and the frailty of human nature has to check, and write up a set of books of his own so that he can compare, and he is kept busy correcting the mistakes that these men make.

Certainly 35 men will not be enough to do that kind of work, and that never was the purpose; and nobody from Fayette County or Tioga County or Montgomery County can tell me what is going on in the City of Philadelphia. I would like to take these gentlemen down there on a tour of inspection, and I would like to show them pictures in the paper, where we are boarding up the only entrances that exist to our subways, one of which cost $6,000,000 and the other of which cost $750,000, and the one which cost $6,000,000 tore out one that cost $500,000 years before.

We are paying interest on bonds, and sinking fund, and on those bonds we are not getting a dollar's worth of value, even though we are continually digging holes in the ground in which we pour our money; and then when the hole is ready they go and seal up the coffin so that the evidence connot be discovered.

If anybody can be proud of that kind of government, it can only be someone in Tioga County because he is far enough away not to be upset by the stench in the nostrils of decent people.

I say it is high time that the people here and the people all over Pennsylvania who can give us some help know the true conditions. I am not anxious to keep repeating these things but I find, apparently, it is necessary, because the more of these acts you repeal the more you increase our burdens; and I say now that I doubt very much whether Governor James will sign this bill, but whether he will or not, we are entitled to present our case to the members of this Senate, and we are entitled to feel chagrined when we see men of intelligence and understanding trying to present arguments here as excuses for the votes which they, obviously in their own hearts, know to be a vote cast only because it was a Republican caucus vote. I know I have had experience and I know if that is what these gentlemen want to do it is their privilege, but it is equally my privilege to disagree publicly and put on recording my views as to why those votes were cast.

The gentleman has said I voted for proportional representation, and that he voted against the charter and proportional representation I would like to tell you gentlemen, in all confidence, the City of Philadelphia will not vote on the Charter; it is dead; it is killed in the House, and will stay dead; the Republican organization does not have the courage to pass that bill.

Let me say one thing—and I digress from my subject about the city charter, because the gentleman from Tioga brought it in—if proportional representation was an objectionable feature, if the city manager was objectionable, the gentleman from Tioga knows he has the votes to correct it; and they could have drawn a new charter and submitted the matter to the people on these three questions: whether Philadelphia should have a new charter; whether Philadelphia should have proportional representation; whether Philadelphia should have a city manager.

They did not want to do that and they do not want to do that, and the reason, obviously, was to put the bill before the public in the worst way. Bring out these 2,350 Philadelphia Communists, spread it all over the Charter, point to proportional representation as Communistic, and you are bound to kill the charter if it comes up. It is still in the House but I venture the prophecy it will not be touched in a single line, because it is the theory of the Republican organization that that is the way to beat it.

If it comes out they will not be able to stop the avalanche of voters any more than they were able to stop the Roosevelt landslide. I say to you that if I had done anything which my constituents in Philadelphia objected to, if I had said anything about Philadelphia that they did not like, I would have heard from them. I have not heard a single word of protest as to my statements about the true facts in Philadelphia, and every newspaper in Philadelphia agrees with me, and I shall continue to tell you these things; and I hope you will enjoy them—because some day maybe this business of voting in caucus will be stopped and we will some down to the bottom of these things and realize all we are doing now is piling up on the condition, the intolerable conditions—not correcting them but aggravating them for political purposes only.

Remember this: the James Administration was supposed to take politics out of relief and give relief to citizens without politics. Compare its work with its promises and see where it leads.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, will state his question of parliamentry inquiry.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I should like to preface my inquiry with two observations: first, wherein my colleagues from Allegheny, and I had better look to our laurels, because we now have our colleagues from Philadelphia boasting about the City of Brotherly Love: secondly, I understand Philadelphia was founded by the Friends.

And now as to the inquiry; we have had an hour's tour around Robin Hood's Barn, and on behalf of some of the freshmen, in their first term, who are trying to learn what to do and what not to do, I would like to know if it is ordinary and customary Senatorial procedure to debate for an hour a bill that has been already passed and voted on by the Senate.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I have listened to this debate with a great deal of interest. For one thing I think we all agree on is that Philadelphia is a great city; in spite of all that has occurred.

I think that the troubles which have occurred in the City of Philadelphia are serious troubles and troubles that deserve serious consideration, and my criticism would be that the government has not convinced the people of Philadelphia it is in earnest in its economy program.

I do not agree with the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, that we should vote for anything in order to create jobs. That does not seem to me to be the right practice, but it seems to me that the money you take from taxation has got to be spent with the public's purpose in view.

Now, when you look at Philadelphia what do you find? Deduct from its expenditures the amount it pays on debt service and of all the cities in the country of over 500,000 population Philadelphia's cost is the lowest per capita —next to the lowest—I think twelfth out of thirteen.

Now, that to my mind is rather interesting. I think there is waste in certain places, but it does not show as far as figures are concerned. What Philadelphia has that is great is the spirit of industry among the people; it has the finest population for diversified industrial work that any community in this State can show; it has five thousand manufacturing establishments. It has men who have the brilliancy of Edward G. Budd, Morris Leeds and Richard B. Brown, whom you confirmed tonight for the Department of Commerce, all of whom have started businesses and seen them grow to be great.

What do they ask of their government? That the government shall be conducted in a reasonable way and at a minimum of cost. The reason why I hesitated in my vote was that when the gentleman from Philadelphia finished I thought that there would be a reply, but there was no reply from Philadelphia, and I confess that disappointed me, I am also inclined to think if the gentleman from Philadelphia will stop to think, that 480,000 pieces of real estate means 180,000 or a 190,000 a year. Divide them up into 36 assessment districts, and you have something like 5,000 for each district.

I am inclined to think that that is as much as can be covered effectively; and I am therefore inclined to look upon an expansion in the board of Revision of Taxes as a good thing, but it does not seem to me it is worth while to go into details, as the gentleman from Allegheny has said, on a bill that has been passed. I would rather go into the fact that as long as Philadelphia has these industrialists Philadelphia will be a great city and what those industrialists ask is for a State government that will convince them that it has the same spirit of economy that the times require.

I do not know whether there is that spirit in Philadelphia at the present time. I am rather inclined to think they have not succeeded in convincing the people that they are running the government economically and that is now back of the demand for the city charter. Nevertheless, great cities do not disappear in one generation; Philadelphia will be great as long as it has the industrial spirit that has characterized it for the past five generations.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 625, (House Bill No. 680), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by changing the provisions for compulsory attendance and for enumeration of illiterate children and alien residents changing provisions relating to employment of children providing for the education of physically and mentally handicapped children and for the care of uneducable children and changing the provisions for the required number of days schools shall be kept open.

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. Presisdent, I move that further consideration of Senate Bill No. 709, on third reading entitled:

An Act to further amend sections eight ten and clause (a) of section fourteen of the act approved the tenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred eighty-five) entitled "An act to provide for the better protection of life and health of the citizens of this Commonwealth by requiring and regulating the examination licensure and registration of persons and registration of corporations engaging in the care preparation and disposition of the bodies of deceased persons and providing penalties" by providing additional grounds for refusing suspending or revoking licenses further regulating the procedure of the board giving associations of funeral directors the right of appeal in certain cases and extending the power of the board to make rules and regulations.

be postponed for the present.

Mr WALKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 742, (House Bill No. 1361), entitled:

An Act to amend clause (10) of section 3 sections 5 and 6 paragraphs (2) (3) (4) (6) (11) of section 8 sections 9 and 11 paragraph C of section 12 and section 15 of the act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws two thousand seven hundred twenty-four) entitled "An act relating to soil conservation and soil erosion and regulating land use practices contributing to soil wastage and soil erosion providing for the organization of soil conservation districts as governmental subdivisions of the Commonwealth with powers of enacting ordinances and regulations for the prevention and control of soil erosion and the conservation of soil resources prescribing the officers and employes thereof and defining their powers and duties creating the State Soil Conservation Board in the Department of Agriculture and imposing powers and prescribing duties thereon relative to the enforcement of this act providing financial assistance to such soil conservation districts prescribing penalties and making an appropriation" by changing the vote necessary for the establishment of districts the making of regulations and the dissolution of districts and requiring voters to be land owners.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not know how many people are interested in this bill, but this is a bill to amend the soil conservation Act passed in 1937, and, under the law then existing, in order for a conservation district to be created, a referendum was held in the district, which required the vote of a majority of the occupiers of the ground involved.

This bill is a new method of repealing a law that is disliked by some people. It provides, now, that not the occupiers but the owners of the property shall vote, and it requires not a majority of the people voting to pass it but it requires 65 per cent of all the owners—not the voters—so that every owner of property, all he has to do is stay at home and the referendum is defeated. This is the first time that I have heard of a referendum being determined, by those people who stay at home.

I do not know whether you want soil conservation or not, but if you do not want it this is a good way not to get it. It seems to me that a bill which deals with so important a subject as this, which kills conservation, as this bill does, should be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—29

Bartlett,	Eroe,	Letzler,	Snowden,
Cavalcante,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Stevenson,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 744, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph (e) of section two hundred and two of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1053) entitled "An act relating to the regulation of public utilities defining as public utilities certain corporations companies associations and persons providing for the regulation of public utilities including to a limited extent municipalities engaging in public utility business by prescribing defining and limiting their duties powers and liabilities and regulating the exercise surrender or abandonment of their powers privileges and franchises defining and regulating contract carriers by motor vehicle and brokers in order to regulate effectively common carriers by motor vehicle conferring upon the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission the power and duty of supervising and regulating persons associations companies and corporations including to a limited extent municipal corporations subject to this act and administering the provisions of this act authorizing the commission to fix temporary rates placing the burden of proof on public utilities to sustain their rates and certain other matters authorizing a permissive or mandatory sliding scale method of regulating rates providing for the supervision of financial and contractural relations between public utilities and affiliated interests and supervision and regulation of accounts and securities or obligations issued assumed or kept by persons associations companies corporations of municipal corporations subject to this act conferring upon the commission power to vary reform or revivse certain contracts conferring upon the commission the exclusive power to regulate or order the construction alteration relocation protection or abolition of crossings of facilities of public utilities and of such facilities by or over public highways to appropriate property for the construction or improvement of such crossings and to award or opportion resultant costs and damages authorizing owners of such property to sue the Commonwealth for such damages providing for ejectment proceedings in connection with the appropriation of property for crossings conferring upon the commission power to control and regulate budgets of public utilities imposing upon persons associations companies and corporations (except municipal corporations) subject to regulation the cost of administering this act prescribing and regulating practice and procedure before the commission and procedure for review by the courts of commission action giving the court of common pleas of Dauphin County exclusive original jurisdiction over certain proceedings prescribing penalties fines and imprisonment for violations of the provisions of this act and regulations and orders of the commission and the procedure for enforcing such fines and penalties and repealing legislation supplied and superseded by or inconsistent with this act" as amended by act of September 28, 1938 (P. L. 44) by providing further exemptions with respect to the transfer and acquisition of property.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDMONDS. Very gladly, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am not so clear on this bill. I understand that interstate commerce railroads are controlled by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Now, this bill, as I understand it, provides that railroads shall not be subject to the Public Utility Commission in certain cases. Now, does the gentleman from Montgomery feel that the Interstate Commerce Commission can take care of this situation in all respects?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, this is simply with reference to the buying and selling of property, and I think the Interstate Commerce Commission can do that.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, what about railroads that operate exclusively within the State?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, that is the only exception to common railroads, the Interstate Commerce Act.

Mr. SHAPIRO. The reason for this bill is what, Mr. President?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I say the exception there is to except a common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, so that railroads in the State, which are not subject, do not come under this exemption.

Mr. SHAPIRO. So, Mr. President, the only purpose is to avoid duplicate approval.

Mr. EDMONDS. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I should like to be recorded as voting "no" on this bill, and I would like to explain my vote. Just this evening the Senate passed a resolution calling upon the Attorney General to make a thorough investigation of the Public Utility Law and its effects, and to recommend any needed changes.

In view of the unanimous approval by this Senate, calling for information from the Attorney General, I see no justification or excuse for passing any bill amending the act now.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no".

The PRESIDENT. You will be so recorded.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 745, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand forty of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" by regulating the number of times the same subject matter may be presented to the voters in a petition of initiation.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "present".

The PRESIDENT. It will be so recorded.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "present".

The PRESIDENT. It will be so recorded.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. LETZLER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 850, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the third day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight (P. L. 639) entitled "An act relative to the compensation of the treasurer of Centre county the safe keeping of the county funds et cetera."

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 859, entitled:

An Act to amend section three hundred and seven of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 417) entitled "An act relating to milk and the products thereof creating a Milk Control Commission establishing its jurisdiction powers and duties regulating the production transportation manufacturing processing storage distribution delivery and sale of milk and certain products thereof providing for the licensing of milk dealers and the payment of fees therefor requiring milk dealers to file bonds to secure payment for milk to producers and certain milk dealers authorizing the holding of hearings and the issuance of subpoenas by the commission conferring jurisdiction upon courts to punish contempts and to prohibit violations of this act and of rules regulations and orders of the commission authorizing the commission to adopt rules regulations and orders and to enter into interstate and Federal compacts requiring persons who weight measure sample or test milk to procure permits or certificates to take examinations to pay fees therefor to furnish certain notices records and statements and to use certain methods of weighing measuring sampling and testing authorizing the commission to examine the business papers and premises of milk dealers and producers requiring the keeping of records and the filing of reports by milk dealers and permitting with limitations the use of information obtained thereby authorizing the commission to fix prices for milk and certain milk products subject to the approval of the Governor and conferring certain powers upon the Governor with respect thereto providing for appeals to the courts from decisions of the commission and for the burden of proof upon such appeals prescribing penalties fines and imprisonment for violations of this act and rules regulations and orders of the commission defining perjury defining remedies repealing legislation supplied and superseded by this act and saving rights duties and proceedings thereunder and making appropriations" removing the requirements that the Governor approve rules regulations and orders issued by the commission.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I should like to inquire of Senator Heyburn as to the purpose back of this bill.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, the purpose is to fix the responsibility for Milk Control Commission orders. It seems to me that any Milk Control Commission competent to write orders, should stand back of those orders, and it is rather silly to believe that after an order has been written, and after probably taking eight or ten weeks to properly consider the difficulties, to go to the Governor and get him to sign it, is just an idle gesture.

In other words, the Public Utility Commission orders require no signature from the Governor of the Commonwealth; and this signature proposition is probably caused by the fact that Governor George H. Earle, when campaigning for Governor, promised the farmers that he would sit as a member of the Milk Control Commission, and then, after he was elected, he found he could not do that, and so he had written into the law the provision that he would sign all orders.

It seems to me impossible for any Governor to have an order placed before him and be in a position to know what is in that order; and this is an attempt to fix the responsibility for the writing of these orders and to put it fairly on the Milk Control Commission.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, not during the last generation, at least, has Pennsylvania had a Governor who has known anything about farming; and, likely, another generation will pass before the State is fortunate enough to have a Governor that knows anything about farming.

Farming is still the greatest industry in Pennsylvania, and the farmer has been used as a fellow to fool, by politicians, with promises when running for office; and then the politicians, when elected to office, have promptly forgotten the promises.

Senator Heyburn almost adverted to this fact when he said that Governor Earle had made many promises to the farmers when running for office. He did; but unfortunately he was not able to carry them out owing to the fact that—I think it will be admitted by all who are familiar with the milk situation—that the milk monopoly soon got control of his Milk Board.

Now, when the present Governor was running for office he also made a lot of rosy promises to us old farmers as to what he would do with regard to the milk situation; as to what he would do for them generally, the farmers came up to one of the meetings recently of the committee that is investigating the milk situation, farmers from Cumberland County, who told us that in one of the speeches the present Governor delivered during his campaign he promised the farmers of Cumberland County that within two weeks after his election he would increase the price paid to the farmer for milk, at least 40 cents a hundred.

Now, I think it a very salutary thing that we continue to fix a little responsibility on our governors to familiarize themselves a little, at least, with the problems of the greatest industry in Pennsylvania. Most of our governors devote a great deal of attention and a great deal of energy to digging into the problems of industry, into the problems of the steel business and coal mining, and so on; but, as I say, we have not been fortunate enough to have one who knows much about farming, and here, if we pass this bill, we are simply saying to the present governor that he can run out on the rosy promises he made to our farmers when running for office; and saying, also, to all future governors, that they need not concern themselves about the farming industry; that they simply can continue to use the farmers when running for office, as a fellow to fool with rosy promises after they come into office.

Now, as to the great difficulty a governor would have in deciding whether he should approve or disapprove a Milk Control Commission order, it seems to me that it would not take a great deal of mental acumen, it would not take a great deal of business ability on the part of a governor confronted with the situation that prevails in the milk industry in Pennsylvania today to make a decision when that situation as is follows: the milk producing farmer over the State is getting less than three cents a quart for the milk he produces and the milk monopoly sells that milk to the consumers at no place in the state at less than eleven cents a quart and in most places twelve cents a quart.

It seems to me it would not require a great deal of effort, or a great deal of mental ability for any Governor confronted with a situation like that, to be able to decide that the spread between three cents to the farmer and eleven or twelve cents to the consumer is absolutely unjust.

As I said before on the floor of this Senate, it is not very comforting to the milk producing farmers of Pennsylvania, or to the people of Pennsylvania as a whole, to be compelled to be confronted with the fact that here in Pennsylvania, which contains this wonderful city, this metropolis, this City of Brotherly Love, about which we heard so much this evening, that the farmers of Pennsylvania are not getting half as large a share of the milk consumer's dollar as the milk producing farmers in Hitler's Germany are receiving. So it appears to me as a farmer, and so it appears to the farmers of my district.

I want to tell you that they are taking a tremendous interest in the milk situation in their part of the State, since the approval on the part of our Governor of the outrageous order of the Milk Control Board affecting the Pittsburgh area, approved by the Governor in the early days of this Administration. I say they are taking a tremendous interest in the milk situation, knowing in Butler County alone that that order takes off of farm incomes $240,000 a month, and is not only driving the farmers to despair but is also seriously affecting the merchants, on account of the decreased purchasing power of the farmers. It appears, I say, to the farmers of my district, and to me, that the immediate purpose of this bill is to afford our much-promising Governor an opportunity to run out on the farmers, to run away from the fulfillment of the rosy promises he made them when running for office, I certainly ask that my colleagues in this Senate vote against this bill, unless they want to justify the action of the Governor, who, when running for office, promised us, the farmers, the earth, and then when he comes into office promptly forgets them and their troubles, and promptly runs out on them.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, you would have to give me better reasons for voting for this bill than have been advanced to date; to say that the Governor has not the time to look into the contents of any order presented before him does not make sense, when we realize he has unlimited time in which to study any order which the Milk Control Board might write. During the Session of the Legislature the Governor must sign each and every bill presented to him by this General Assembly within ten days.

No order that has ever come from the Milk Control Board ever contained more than three pages and some of the bills going through here are pretty nearly the size of a book.

There is no use in saying the Governor should not have a certain amount of responsibility; he should have responsibility, just as the Senator who preceded me brought out. This is a very important phase of business and industry in Pennsylvania, and the Governor should be directly responsible for all orders emanating from that particular commission. I want to say I believe this bill is a nice bill to take the Governor off the spot. He can stop these orders if he so desires and yet, in the face of all the criticism after the first order was signed affecting the Pittsburgh market, he signed a later order affecting the market in Scranton and around that area; and I understand they presented him with an order affecting the Philadelphia area, and I suppose that order too must be signed.

Now, in regard to the promises made by Governor Earle, let me say this; this same Milk Control Board tried for six months to get Governor Earle to sign these very orders that are being signed now by Governor James, and if the Governor was not required to affix his signature to the rest of these orders, then six months ago the farmers in Pennsylvania would have been gypped out of the major portion of their income.

The blame and responsibility for the cut in the income of the farmers of Pennsylvania lies at the door of the Governor of this Commonwealth; and whether we pass this bill or not we cannot remove from him the onus of having signed orders that have destroyed the income of the major part of our farmers in Pennsylvania.

I think this Senate should think very deeply before passing this particular piece of legislation. Nothing we do here, as I have said before, will take away from this Administration, and this Governor, the onus of having signed milk orders that have destroyed the welfare of the farmers of Pennsylvania.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the gentleman state whether he wants this bill passed because the gentleman does not believe that the Governor knows enough about milk to be saddled with that responsibility?

Mr. HEYBURN. No, Mr. President, I was just getting ready to answer the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent. He is probably not familiar with the Milk Control Act. These orders are written, based on testimony gathered at a hearing. The order sometimes, it is true, is not over three or four pages in length, but the testimony upon which that order is based is sometimes hundreds and hundreds of pages, and it is utterly impossible for any Governor to study that testimony; and I would like to ask some of my brethren to the left whether or not they think the Governor should sign orders of the Public Utility Commission.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to ask the Senator from Delaware whether this bill is to be passed at the request of the Governor?

Mr. HEYBURN. No, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Well, Mr. President, does not the gentleman think the Governor could be given veto powers over any order of the Milk Control Board which affects the price?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, probably, but the Governor has complete charge of the situation; he has responsibility for the Milk Control Board, the members of which can be removed for the cause, and if they write an order that is not fair the members can be removed.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does the gentleman think that the order recently signed by the Governor was a fair order?

Mr. HEYBURN. Which one, Mr. President?

Mr. SHAPIRO. The one, Mr. President, which reduced the price of milk as far as the farmer is concerned.

Mr. HEYBURN. In Western Pennsylvania, Mr. President?

Mr. SHAPIRO. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I do not think so, although I looked over that order and it was based on testimony offered at public hearings; and that is the point I am getting at. These orders are based on testimony given at public hearings. The Governor has no way of knowing how the witnesses were brought in; whether it was testimony offered by farmers favored by the dairy trusts; he is not there and does not hear the witnesses and has no way of knowing whether this testimony comes from favored farmers who are under the wings of the dairy trusts.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does the gentleman think this is wise, on so important a subject, to take away the control of orders of the Milk Control Board from the Governor, without inquiring whether he wants to be relieved or that responsibility or whether he wants to give up that prerogative?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, as I said before, the Governor still controls the Milk Control Board; he has the power to remove the members for cause.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the gentleman has not answered my question. I will put it again. Does the gentleman think in a matter so important as the control of milk and milk prices, that the veto power which the Governor has should be taken away from him without consulting the Governor?

Mr. HEYBURN. Well, Mr. President, if the Governor does not like the bill he can veto it, according to the way the Legislature is being run at the present time.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Oh, Mr. President, the gentleman is not going to give me that story! I am sure I have heard that before. I am through.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to inform the Senator from Delaware I do not know what is in the Milk Control Bill, because I voted against it and made a speech against it in 1937. I want to state very frankly when the gentleman from Delaware says that the orders are issued after hearings, after testimony is taken that bills are passed here too after debate, and open hearings are given to the various persons interested; but that does not relieve the Governor of the responsibility of signing the bills passed by the General Assembly.

The Governor can veto bills, when they are not right, and he should veto them. I submit that is a very poor alibi and excuse, for the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, to come in here and say the Governor should not be asked to sign orders because he does not know what is in them. I would be ashamed to go before the people of Pennsylvania and say I signed orders, as the Governor did, when I did not know what was in them, and it was my bounden duty to know.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I notice that this bill strikes out of Section 307 of the Milk Control Act the requirement of approval by the Governor where approval is necessary, but the title is not amended to conform with the amendment to the bill. As you will note, the title still contains the provision where the commission is authorized to fix prices for milk and certain milk products, subject to the approval of the Governor, and conferring certain powers upon the Governor with respect thereto. Does not the gentleman from Delaware think that the title ought to be amended to conform with the amendment made in the body of the Act?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I have no objection to the bill going over in its order for another day.

MOTION THAT BILL GO OVER IN ITS ORDER.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 859, on third reading, go over in its order so as to correct the title.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President the title will have to be amended.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I object to the bill going over in its order. With all due respect to the opinion of my colleague, the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, I think he is wrong. This title quotes the title of the previous Act, and then adds, "To amend an Act," and quotes the title of the previous Act, amending the previous Act by removing the requirement that the Governor approve rules, regulations, and orders issued by the commission.

I submit you would not amend the title as quoted, and I think that is not a proper objection. I think this bill should be voted on.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, may I further interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, the sponsor of this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, did I understand the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, as saying that the order affecting the Pittsburgh district, which made such a large reduction in the price paid to the farmers—did I understand him correctly as saying that that order was requested by the milk producing farmers who felt they were getting too much money; or thought they were getting too much money?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, based on the testimony—Yes. That is just what I was saying a while ago, there were certain farmers who more or less go along with the distributors, and they were used for testimony purposes and testimony purposes alone.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, think that is reasonable; that if a butcher, for instances, would come around and offer a farmer ten cents a pound for his hogs, that he would say, no, that is too much money; do not give me that much; I want only five cents?

Mr. HEYBURN. Of course, not, Mr. President.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, the Senator from Delaware knows farmers better than that; I presume?

Mr. HEYBURN. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, the drastic order affecting the Pittsburgh district was requested by some farmer members and other members of the Dairymen's Co-operative Sales Association, which poses as a milk producer's organization, but which, in fact, is a part and parcel of the milk monopoly.

There are farmers that belong to it, certainly, but the major part of the milk it handles it purchases from farmers who do not belong to it and is simply, as a matter of fact, a dealers' organization. I am reliably informed that at least three of the directors of the Co-operative Sales Association are not residents of Pennsylvania, but are residents of Ohio who are interested in flooding the Pittsburgh market with the inferior milk that comes from Ohio, where there is no milk control and very little inspection of stables.

I want to say that the farmers of my district are wise to the Dairymen's Co-operative Sales Association. They are wise to the fact that it is a traitor organization to the bona fide milk producing farmers, and part and parcel of the milk monopoly, a wheel within a wheel; they are wise to that fact, At one of the hearings conducted by Senator Heyburn's own commission, which is investigating the milk situation in Pennsylvania, it was testified that the Secretary of this Dairymen's Co-operative Sales Association, this traitor organization to the farmers, was one of the milk monopoly representatives who talked Governor James into approving the Pittsburgh order, ably assisted by the milk monopoly lawyer from Pittsburgh, my good friend Mr. E. Lowry Hulme.

So, I want to get it before the members of this Senate that the order was not requested by bona fide milk producing farmers, but by an organization which is selling the milk producing farmer down the river, pretending to be a milk producers' association but, in fact, being a dealers' association; and, looking over this Senate Chamber today I saw the secretary of that organization, Mr. Howard B. Steele, within the sacred confines of this Holy chamber, down here probably, trying to talk the Governor into approving a drastic order for the Philadelphia district.

At the recent hearings of Senator Heyburn's commission, farmers from the Philadelphia district told me and others that already they are in the situation of receiving only a little more than two and a half cents a quart for their milk, while Philadelphians pay twelve cents a quart for it; and they told me that if another order goes into affect, approved by the Governor, further reducing the price to the milk producing farmers of the Philadelphia area, there will be farm riots galore in that section of Pennsylvania.

I will simply close by saying what I have already said, —the Governor is not obliged to approve a Milk Control Board orders. He can approve or disapprove them as he sees fit; and it seems to me that any Governor of ordinary intelligence ought to see the absolute injustice of a price of less than three cents to the milk producing farmer and a price of eleven or twelve cents to the consumer, and in the meantime, the monopoly is growing larger and more powerful; the profits of the monopoly gravitating out of Pennsylvania, taken out of the pockets of the farmers of Pennsylvania and gravitating out of the State of Pennsylvania.

Of course, I can appreciate, how the Governor, the present Governor in view of the rosy promises that he made to the farmers with reckless abandon—likely having no hope that he would be elected, but having the desire to annoy the Democrats all he could—made the promises, made all kinds of promises, any kind of promises he thought would get the farmers' vote and now, being in a position where he can not deliver, he would like to run out on the farmers, and run out on the responsibility that he ought to have to a great industry of Pennsylvania, by getting this bill through.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I understood that the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, merely requested that the bill go over in its order and I objected. Therefore, there is nothing before the Senate but action on the final passage of the bill.

The PRESIDENT. There was a motion made.

Mr. HEYBURN. What is it, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. That the bill go over in its order.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I seconded the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The motion, as I recall, was made by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, and seconded by the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I submit that under the rules the bill cannot go over in its order unless there is unanimous consent. The motion must be a motion to postpone.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is not well taken if it is only in a case which requires unanimous consent.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I think that the gentleman from Tioga is probably right in his point of order, if he insists on it, but seeing it is only a quarter after eleven we have lots of time left.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair still says the question is on the motion which was made by the Senator from Fayette and seconded by the Senator from Washington.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask that the Senate vote down the motion.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. OWLETT, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—16

Cavalcante,	Eroe,	Kilgallen,	Reed,
Coleman,	Frey,	Lanius,	Shapiro,
Dent,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Sipe,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Stiefel,

NAYS—28

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Kunkel,	Snowden,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Letzler,	Stevenson,
Crowe,	Geltz,	Mallery,	Tallman,
Dando,	Gilson,	Miller,	Thomas,
Deitrick,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Walker,
Ealy,	Homsher,	Rice,	Wolfenden,
Edmonds,	James,	Scarlett,	Woodward,

So the question was determined in the negative.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. REED. Mr. President, in view of the lateness of the hour—and I know there will be more discussion on this measure—and I also noticed, when the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe, was talking it was hard to hear what he said on account of the noise in the chamber, and I know the Senators are tired, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT and Mr. GELDER, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—18

Cavalcante,	Frey,	Lanius,	Rice,
Coleman,	Gilson,	McCreesh,	Shapiro,
Dent,	Haluska,	McGinnis,	Sipe,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Reed,	Stiefel,
Eroe,	Kilgallen,

NAYS—26

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Letzler,	Stevenson,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Tallman,
Crowe,	Geltz,	Miller,	Thomas,
Dando,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Walker,
Deitrick,	Homsher,	Scarlett,	Wolfenden,
Ealy,	James,	Snowden,	Woodward,
Edmonds,	Kunkel,

So the question was determined in the negative.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. GELDER, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—11

Cavalcante,	Gilson,	Kilgallen,	Rice,
Dent,	Haluska,	Lanius,	Stiefel,
Eroe,	Jaspan,	Reed,

NAYS—33

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Letzler,	Sipe,
Chapman,	Frey,	Mallery,	Snowden,
Coleman,	Gelder,	McCreesh,	Stevenson,
Crowe,	Geltz,	McGinnis,	Tallman,
Dando,	Heyburn,	Miller,	Thomas,
Deitrick,	Homsher,	Owlett,	Walker,
DiSilvestro,	James,	Scarlett,	Wolfenden,
Ealy,	Kunkel,	Shapiro,	Woodward,
Edmonds,

So the question was determined in the negative.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that this bill go over in its order.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I have no objection to the bill going over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, I object.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his point of information.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, as I understand it, the Senator from Fayette, moved that Senate Bill No. 859, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair so understands.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Yes, Mr. President, and seconded by the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Kunkel, apparently understood otherwise.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, will state his point of information.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, how did the Senator from Tioga, vote?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The PRESIDENT. The Clerk will please answer the question of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey. How did the Senator vote?

The CLERK. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, voted "aye."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIRO, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—33

Bartlett,	Ealy,	Homsher,	Owlett,
Cavalcante,	Edmonds,	James,	Reed,
Chapman,	Eroe,	Jaspan,	Scarlett,
Coleman,	Farrell,	Kilgallen,	Shapiro,
Crowe,	Gelder,	Lanius,	Sipe,
Dando,	Geltz,	Letzler,	Stiefel,
Deitrick,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Wolfenden,
Dent,	Heyburn,	Miller,	Woodward,
DiSilvestro,

NAYS—9

Frey,	Mallery,	Stevenson,	Thomas,
Gilson,	Snowden,	Tallman,	Walker,
Kunkel,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 870, (House Bill No. 1371), entitled:

An Act to amend the title and further amend and reenact the act approved the twenty-second day of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two (P. L. 164) entitled "An act to provide for the destruction and to prevent the spread of Canada Thistles" by extending the provisions of the act to include other weeds.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—44

Bartlett,	Eroe,	Kilgallen,	Scarlett,
Cavalcante,	Farrell,	Kunkel,	Shapiro,
Chapman,	Frey,	Lanius,	Sipe,
Coleman,	Gelder,	Letzler,	Snowden,
Crowe,	Geltz,	Mallery,	Stevenson,
Dando,	Gilson,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,
Deitrick,	Haluska,	McGinnis,	Tallman,

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EALY, from the Committee on Executive Nominations, reported with a favorable recommendation the following nominations, made by His Excellency, the Governor, of the Commonwealth:

APPOINTMENT AS MEMBER OF PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE COMMISSION

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 11, 1939.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate Thomas J. Evans, Coaldale, Schuylkill County, for appointment as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, to serve until June 4, 1945, and until his successor is appointed and qualified, to fill a vacancy.

ARTHUR H. JAMES.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. EDMONDS and Mr. OWLETT,

That Rule 38 which requires nomination made by the Governor be referred to an appropriate committee be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting on the foregoing nomination.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. EDMONDS and Mr. OWLETT,

That the Senate do advise and consent to said nomination.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—44

NAYS—0

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MALLERY, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 648, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the nineteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 1055), entitled "An act authorizing the release on probation of certain convicts, instead of imposing sentences; the appointment of probation and parole officers, and the payment of their salaries and expenses; regulating the manner of sentencing convicts in certain cases, and providing for their release on parole; their conviction of crime during parole, and their rearrest and reconviction for breach of parole, and extending the powers and duties of boards of prison inspectors of penitentiaries," permitting the release on parole of persons convicted of other crimes than those to which parole was heretofore restricted.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 384, (House Bill No. 349), entitled:

An Act to further amend section two hundred fifty-six of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by providing for the appointment and compensation of assistant district attorneys in counties of the sixth class where there are two or more judges of the court of common pleas

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 393, (House Bill No. 298), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 313) entitled "An act to enable cities of the first second and second class A incorporated towns boroughs and townships of the second class to govern and regulate by ordinance the construction alteration repairs occupation maintenance sanitation lighting ventilation water supply toilet facilities drainage use and inspection of all buildings and land appurtenant thereto providing for the enforcement of such ordinances and repealing existing laws" by making provision for adoption of standard building codes and dispensing with the publishing of such codes in full.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 439, (House Bill No. 300), entitled:

An Act to amend clause nineteen of section one thousand five hundred two of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 1206) entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by making provision for adoption of standard building codes and dispensing with the publishing of such codes in full

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 520, (House Bill No. 299), entitled:

An Act to amend section four thousand one hundred twenty of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" by making provision for adoption of standard building codes and dispensing with the publishing of such codes in full

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 523, (House Bill No. 664), on second reading, entitled:

An Act suspending the taking effect of certain laws with respect to transportation reimbursement to school districts of the Commonwealth for tuition transportation vocational education and employment of certain employes go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT SENATE BILL No. 746.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill makes drastic changes in the election laws. I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Elections for the purpose of further study.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask that this bill be read at length.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I offer the following amendments:

The PRESIDENT. Was the motion that this bill be read at length seconded?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask that this bill be read at length.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro has requested that the bill be read at length.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if there are amendments to the bill I have not heard them.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I wish to offer amendments.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President for the time being I withdraw the motion to have the bill read at length.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 746, as follows:

Section 1 Sections four hundred fifteen six hundred twenty-nine nine hundred seventeen nine hundred eighty clause (b) of section one thousand two hundred sixteen section one thousand two hundred seventeen one thousand four hundred ten one thousand four hundred seventeen and one thousand six hundred four of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" are hereby amended to read as follows

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I move to amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 5, by striking out the following: S "one thousand four hundred ten"

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

Mr. SHAPIRO. In view of these amendments I think it becomes more important that the bill be studied. I have no desire to prolong these proceedings but I do propose, whenever bills are proposed, affecting the election code to the extent this bill does that they should be given more careful consideration. This amendment strikes from the election code a complete section dealing with the election laws and I certainly do not think this bill should be passed now, and if that is the purpose I insist that the bill be read at length now, so that the Senators may understand.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to know whether the amendments have been adopted.

The PRESIDENT. They have.

Mr. OWLETT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has asked that the bill be read at length. If the Senator wants to do that and insists on it as a filibuster in the Senate, I suppose we will have to do it.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object to my action being characterized as a filibuster.

Mr. OWLETT. That is all it is, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I say, Mr. President, that this is a bill affecting elections and this amendment takes a complete section out of that election code, and I want the Senate to understand what is going on. If in a matter of such importance the Senator will not agree that the Committee study the bill again, then I am right in my position.

The CLERK will continue to read the bill:

Section 415 Overseers of Election On SC the petition of five or more duly registered electors of any election district setting forth that the appointment of overseers is a reasonable precaution to secure the purity and fairness of any primary or election in said district the court of common pleas of the proper county all the law judges of the said court able to act at the time concurring may in its discretion appoint two judicious sober and intelligent electors of the said district belonging to different political parties overseers of election to supervise the proceedings of election officers thereof and to make report of the same as they may be required by such court Said overseers shall be persons qualified to serve upon election boards but shall not be required to comply with the provisions of section 414 of this act They shall be sworn or affirmed by the judge of election to the faithful discharge of their duties and each shall sign said oath in duplicate and shall have the right to be present with the officers of such primary or election within the enclosed space during the entire time the same is held the votes counted and the returns made out and signed by the election officers to keep a list of voters if they see proper to challenge any person offering to vote and interrogate him and his witnesses under oath in regard to his right of suffrage at said primary or election and to examine his papers produced Overseers shall sign returns of elections as hereinafter required Whenever the members of an election board shall differ in opinion the overseers if they shall be agreed thereon shall decide the question of difference

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the clerk is not reading the bill according to the bill on the calendar. This bill does not provide it shall be the duty of the Court of Common Pleas to appoint overseers but it strikes out the thought it is the duty of the court to appoint overseers. It says the Court "may in its discretion" appoint and I wish the Senate to know that.

The PRESIDENT. I think the clerk misread the portion referred to by the Senator.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I understand that, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Clerk will reread the section.

The CLERK re-read Section 1 (Section 415)

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask the Senate to vote down the amendments to this section. I should like to call your attention to the fact that this amendment provides that, whereas heretofore on petition of five citizens they could appear before the court and allege that in their opinion a proper election could not be held unless overseers be appointed and it was then the duty of the court to appoint those overseers—this amendment provides that instead of it being the court's duty to appoint those overseers it is within the "discretion" of the court whether they shall appoint them even after petition by certain people that a proper election cannot be held.

I think it is a violation of our rights under citizenship; we ought to have the right to have these overseers; that would be the duty of the Court to appoint these overseers, because it is the people in the division who know whether or not they really have honest elections, not the judge who sits in court and knows nothing about the conditions at the polling place.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator understand the clerk is now reading the section as amended?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am talking about the amendments to the section, section No. 415, "Overseers of Election" which section is affected by the amendment offered today.

The PRESIDENT. Well, now we are reading the section as amended; and the Senator is objecting to that particular amendment; is that correct?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is correct.

The PRESIDENT. What is the Senator's motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my motion is that the Senate vote down the amendment to that section.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to inquire whether a vote "no" is a vote to defeat the motion of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. EDMONDS. I should like to ask whether this is a vote on the amendments just offered by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell?

The PRESIDENT. No, they were adopted. This was a committee amendment, if I understand correctly.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, is it the motion of the Senator to strike out the entire section?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my motion is not to vote for the amendment. The Senate is now being asked to vote for the section as amended and my motion is that they do not vote for the section as amended.

Mr. EDMONDS. Then, Mr. President, you strike out the whole section.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that may be the amendment, but I say they cannot strike out the section because the section is the law. What you strike out is the amendment, when you vote "no."

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I understand that a vote "no" defeats the amendment.

The PRESIDENT. No, it is just the opposite; a vote "aye" supports your motion to strike out.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I still do not understand. I still do not know what we are voting on.

The PRESIDENT. The section was read and the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, then moved that that section, as read, be stricken out. Now, a vote "aye" would strike out that section, and a vote "no" leaves it as reported by the Committee as read.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I voted "no."

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, are you still listening to parliamentary inquires?

The PRESIDENT. We are.

Mr. EDMONDS. It is my thought in the matter that the committee amendment struck out the words "it shall be the duty of," the Court of Common Pleas of the proper county, of its own volition and upon concurrence of all the judges able to act at the time, and later on it says "may in its discretion." I understand that will go out.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I understand that the section of this bill is now the law; is that correct?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, The only thing we are voting on is the amendment and not on the section. We are voting on the amendment; and that is to remove it shall be the "duty" of the court to appoint and substitute "discretion." We are not voting on the bill, we are voting on the amendment.

The PRESIDENT. The question was "will the Senate agree to the section as amended?"—as just read. That would mean the whole section.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if the Senate does not agree to the section as amended then the section stands but the amendment does not.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, if the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, wants to strike out the amendment he would have to move to strike that amendment off.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if we voted this whole bill down the law would be as it is, and if we are voting it down section by section the law remains in each section as it is.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I suggest we are reading this bill for the second time. It has been amended on the floor and it has been amended in committee. The section has been read as amended, and the question now is whether we agree to the section or do not agree to the section. If we do not agree to the section, the whole section falls.

The PRESIDENT. That is the Chair's understanding.

Mr. SHAPIRO. No, Mr. President, may I be heard on that?

The PRESIDENT. The Senator may be heard.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I understand the Chair is attempting to be fair, but I would like to make my position clear.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair does not want to criticize the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, but it seems to the Chair that the Senator is trying to make two different statements. First it was to strike out the amendments to that section, and then subsequently he inquired as to what we were voting on; and the Chair said the Senate is voting on the section as amended, and that would mean the whole.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, as far as the Chair has gone I agree with that ruling, that we are voting on the section as amended.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Now, Mr. President, since the section is the law until it is amended, if we defeat the section as amended, the section stays the law, as is, without the amendment; and I, therefore, suggest to the Chair that what we are voting on, in effect, is the amendment and not the whole section; and if we vote on the section, as amended, the law stands as it is and the section is defeated.

If we vote the whole bill down that would not mean the law is destroyed; and that is what my colleague from Tioga would like his colleagues to understand; so that that would not destroy the bill; the law stands as is if we vote it down section by section, the law stands as to the other sections; these are amendments only to sections.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, if a bill before this Senate is to be amended, everybody knows what the procedure is: amendments are handed up and those amendments are offered. Now if the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, wants to strike out these strike-out brackets, which is the efiect of what he says we are voting on, first he must offer an amendment to Section 415, the section we are considering. That is the usual procedure.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would like to know when the amendments, that are in dispute, were put in the bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in Senate committee.

Mr. OWLETT. Now, Mr. President, if the Senator from Philadelphia wants to change those amendments to this bill, which is on second reading, he must offer amendments which will strike out the amendments and restore the bill.

He does not take that procedure, but asks, when you read a section as amended to vote "no" which strikes out the whole section.

If the Senator wants to change this section, as it was amended in Committee, he should offer an amendment. This is on second reading, and he has offered no amendments.

The PRESIDENT. This bill was amended in Committee and reported out.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. As amended, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. As amended. Then it was read here on first reading and prepared for second reading, and then when it passed first reading it then became an amended bill, and you cannot separate the two on second reading.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President the purpose of voting on this second reading is to vote on these amendments. This bill can fall at any time and still the law would remain as is. We are now voting on whether we shall aceept this bill on second reading, as amended. If we do not accept it on second reading—

The PRESIDENT. The bill was not amended on second reading. The bill was amended in committee, reported out, and then, as reported out, was passed on first reading.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is correct.

The PRESIDENT. And that is your amended section. The only way you can amend that now is by introducing amendments.

Mr. SHAPIIRO. Mr. President, it does not make any difference whether this section falls or not, the old law remains the same. What happens here is that we are voting on this section as amended.

The PRESIDENT. Absolutely, I agree with the Senator on that. If this amendment or section is defeated the old law remains as is.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Well, Mr. President, I am satisfied to that; I do not raise any question about that.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has endeavored to be fair, and to make his rulings plain on that, and he thinks he has.

Mr. SHAPIRO. That is correct, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Now, the question is on that particular section as read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section as read?

Mr. SHAPIIRO. Then, Mr. President, I understand a vote "aye" carries my motion to defeat the section.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the section as read?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIRO.

YEAS—17.

Cavalcante,	Eroe,	Heyburn,	Rice,
Coleman,	Frey,	Jaspan,	Shapiro,
Dent,	Gilson,	Kunkel,	Sipe,
DiSilvestro,	Haluska,	Reed,	Stiefel,

Crowe,	Homsher,	Owlett,	Thomas,
Deitrick,	James,	Scarlett,	Walker,
Ealy	Letzler,	Snowden,	Wolfenden,
Farrell,

So the question was determined in the negative.

The PRESIDENT. The motion falls, and the section stands as read; the section is approved as read.

The Clerk will continue to read the next section of the bill.

Section 629 Nominations for Special Election for Representative in Congress and Senator and Representative in the General Assembly Candidates to fill vacancies in the offices of Representative in Congress and Senator and Representative in the General Assembly shall be nominated by political parties in accordance with the party rules relating to the filling of vacancies by means of nomination certificates in the form prescribed in section 630 of this act and by political bodies by means of nomination papers in accordance with the provisions of sections 951 952 and 954 of this act Said nomination certificates and nomination papers shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth at least fifty (50) days before the special election unless said writ is issued within sixty (60) days before the election in such case such nomination certificates and nomination papers shall be filed not later than ten (10) days after the issuance of the writ of election

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Now, Mr. President, I call to the attention of the members of the Senate that apparently this section, together with others in this bill, is aimed at a particular condition which exists in this State today, and I contend that this bill is amended for that purpose. I ask my colleagues to vote these amendments down.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senate agree to Section 629 as read?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call, and a statement from the Chair as to the effect of the vote.

The PRESIDENT. The vote is on the adoption of the section as read. Do I hear a second to the motion that has been made?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I second the motion. I understand that would mean that this section is rejected?

The PRESIDENT. No, we are voting whether we shall pass the section and a vote "no" kills the section, and a vote "aye" is in favor of it.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, that is just the reverse of the last vote.

Mr. SHAPIRO. We were voting on my motion before.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, we are voting on a section of the bill now.

The PRESIDENT. We are voting on the adoption of the section as read.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no."

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIRO, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—23.

Bartlett,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Tallman,
Cavalcante,	Geltz,	Miller,	Thomas,
Chapman,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Walker,
Coleman,	Homsher,	Scarlett,	Wolfenden,
Deitrick,	James,	Snowden,	Woodward,
Farrell,	Letzler,	Stevenson,

NAYS—12.

Dando,	Edmonds,	Gilson,	Rice,
Dent,	Eroe,	Haluska,	Shapiro,
DiSilvestro,	Frey,	Jaspan,	Stiefel,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have been assured that after this bill has been read the second time, if it becomes necessary to offer amendments, it will be brought back to second reading. Therefore, when this bill comes up tomorrow I shall ask that it go over in its order to give us time to reconsider the matter; and I therefor withdraw my request that the bill be read at length.

What I am saying now, is that I understand, when the bill comes up tomorrow it will go over in its order to give opportunity to prepare the proper amendments. I am not binding the opposition to pass the amendments.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. SHAPIRO. In view of that assurance I withdraw my motion that this bill be read at length, or, rather, instead of withdrawing my motion I ask that the bill be proceeded with.

The balance of section 1 was read as follows:

Section 917 Manner of Filling Vacancy Caused by Death of Person Named in Nomination Petition Where a nomination petition has been duly filed for any primary under the provisions of this article and thereafter and before the day of the primary the candidate named in said petition dies the original signers of said petition or the majority of them may sign another petition proposing a new candidate for said office at any time prior to the printing of the ballots or ballot labels Such petition shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the new candidate in the same manner as required of the original candidate in the original petition Said petition shall have the same force and effect as the original petition and the name of the candidate so nominated shall be substituted for that of the deceased candidate

The House met at 8 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Ellwood J. Turner) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas George Baxter, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, as we meet at the doorway of another day's labors, we would be made worthy of Thy confidence and guidance. To Thee, O Lord, we come with all our limitations, thanking Thee that when we lift our faces, we find that Thou art not gone. Give us hearts to believe and minds to trust in Thy word of truth. May we hear the Psalmist speak unto us, "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it." "They that trust in God shall be as Mount Zion." O Father, give each of us such a reach of soul that we shall surely share Thy purity and strength. Keep before us not selfish success, not egotistical greatness, not personal victory; but fidelity to public good, and faithfulness to Jehovah, so that when the work of life is done, we shall sit down with God's redeemed and share heaven's immortal joy and fellowship through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Upon the receipt of a copy of the resolution adopted by the school directors present at a meeting of the school directors association the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall provide for monthly distribution of the newly fixed salary beginning with the first month of the new term for which the county superintendent is commissioned

In addition to the said salary each county superintendent shall be entitled to receive annually a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars for the payment of the actual and necessary expenses incurred in visiting schools within his district in attending educational meetings and in the performance of such other official duties as may be required by him by law Payments shall be made monthly on account of such expenses to any such county superintendent by requisition of the Superintendent of Public Instruction upon the Auditor General upon the production to him of itemized vouchers in the usual manner

Section 4 Section 1127 as amended by the act approved July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 2592) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1127 (a) The superintendent of each county entitled to an assistant superintendent or assistant superintendents shall within fifteen days after receiving his commission in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-two nominate to the county board of school directors the assistant superintendent or superintendents who must furnish the president of said county board of school directors evidence of eligibility in accordance with the regulations of the State Council of Education These nominations shall be appointments until the end of the county superintendent's term of office when confirmed by a majority vote of the county board of school directors The president and secretary of the county board of school directors shall certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the names and post-office addresses of the assistant county superintendents and supervisors of special education appointed as herein provided and their salaries as fixed by the directors' convention and such assistant county superintendents and supervisors of special education shall be commissioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in the same manner and under the same conditions as in the case of county superintendents

(b) Each assistant county superintendent commissioned in the year one thousand nine hundred forty-two shall thereafter continue in office without re-election for successive terms of four years each unless his services are terminated in the manner hereinafter provided At any time not later than sixty days prior to the date fixed by the act for the election of county superintendents the county board of school directors may file with the Superintendent of Public Instruction a petition demanding that the service of an assistant county superintendent be terminated at the end of his term and a new assistant county superintendent be appointed in his stead and assigned by a majority of the members of the county one thousand one hundred four (b) of this act for the termination of the service of a county superintendent at the end of a term Every such petition shall be signing one or more of the causes set forth in section board of school directors and shall be sworn to by the president and attested by the secretary of the county board of school directors A copy of such petition shall at the same time be filed with the assistant county superintendent affected thereby

(c) When as to any assistant county superintendent a petition demanding the termination of service at the end of a term has been filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction within the time required by this section he shall upon request of the assistant county superintendent affected thereby fix a time and place of hearing At such hearing the Superintendent of Public Instruction may require under oath or affirmation such evidence as he may deem necessary and proper in support of or against the allegation in the petition He shall have power to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers and to administer oaths to witnesses appearing and testifying before him in the manner and subject to the penalties provided in the Administrative Code

(d) If the petition filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction is in conformity with law and no hearing is requested by the assistant county superintendent or if after hearing the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall sustain the petition filed he shall direct the county superintendent to nominate a new assistant county superintendent to the county board of school directors within fifteen days after receiving his commission who when confirmed by a majority vote of the county board of school directors shall continue in office for a term of four years and thereafter for successive terms of four years each unless his service shall be terminated in the manner herein provided But if he find the petition was not in conformity with law or that the evidence admitted does not sustain the allegations in the petition he shall dismiss the same and shall notify the county board of school directors and the county superintendent of schools that no new appointment is to be made

(e) If no new assistant county superintendent is appointed and the assistant county superintendent continues in office for another term then his annual salary shall remain at the amount last fixed unless a greater or reduced salary shall be voted for him in accordance with the provsiions and procedure and subject to the conditions hereinbefore provided in the case of county superintendents

Should the county superintendent and the county board of school directors of any county fail to nominate and confirm the assistant superintendent or superintendents or supervisor of special education for such county within thirty days after the county superintendent has received his commission the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall appoint such assistant superintendent or superintendents or supervisor of special education to serve until the end of the county superintendent's term of office

Any person who is certified to teach in the public schools of the Commonwealth and who is certified as a public school psychologist by the Department of Public Instruction shall be eligible for appointment as a supervisor or joint supervisor of special education

The superintendent of each county entitled to a supervisor of special education shall nominate to the county board of school directors the candidate for the office of supervisor of special education By a majority vote of the county board of school directors the candidate may be appointed to serve until the end of the term of office of the county superintendent

The county superintendent of the counties which are entitled to a joint supervisor of special education shall nominate to their county boards of school directors the candidate for the office of joint supervisor of special education By a majority vote of the several members of the county boards of schools directors the candidate may be appointed to serve until the end of the terms of office of the county superintendents

Section 5 Section 1134 of said act as amended by the act of May twenty-third one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 349) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1134 (a) The boards of school directors of each district of the second or third class electing a district superintendent shall meet [in convention] at its regular place of meeting on the second Tuesday of April one thousand nine hundred and [eighteen (1918)] forty-two (1942) [and every four years thereafter] at an hour previously fixed by said board and the secretary shall mail to each member thereof at least five days beforehand a notice of the time place and purpose of such [convention Such convention] meeting The board shall [in the same manner as a county superintendent is elected and certified] elect [and certify] at such meeting or at any adjourned session thereof a properly qualified district superintendent to serve for four years from the first Monday of July next following his election The results of the election shall be certified to the Superintendent of Public Instruction in the same manner as is required in the case of county superintendents. [Provided That on the second Tuesday of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six (1926) such district superintendents shall be elected as herein provided to serve from the first Monday of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six until the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty (1930)] The district superintendent so chosen shall thereafter continue in office without re-election for successive terms of four years each unless his services are terminated in the manner hereafter provided

Every fourth year thereafter the school directors of the district in which the election of a district superintendent has been proclaimed as provided in this section shall meet and elect a district superintendent to serve from the first Monday of July next following such election who shall thereafter continue in office without re-election for successive terms of four years each unless an election shall be proclaimed as herein provided

(b) In the case of any district superintendent elected after the passage of this act any board of school directors may not later than sixty days prior to the date fixed by this act for the election of district superintendent file with the Superintendent of Public Instruction a petition demanding that an election for district superintendent be held on the day fixed by law and assigning in said petition one or more causes for holding election set forth in clause (c) of this section Every such petition shall be signed by a majority of the members of the board of school directors entitled to participate in such election shall be sworn to or affirmed by the president of the board and shall be attested by the secretary A copy of such petition shall at the same time be filed with the district superintendent affected thereby

(c) The only causes for which an election of a district superintendent may be demanded shall be an allegation or allegations that the incumbent has been guilty of immorality incompetency cruelty wilful and persistent neglect of duty mental derangement and wilful and persistent violation of the school laws of the Commonwealth or that said incumbent is physically or mentally incapacitated or has attained superannuation retirement age

(d) When as to any district superintendent a petition demanding an election has been filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction within the time required by this act he shall upon request of the district superintendent affected thereby fix a time and place of hearing at such hearing the Superintendent of Public Instruction may require under oath or affirmation such evidence as he may deem necessary and proper in support of or against the allegation in the petition He shall have power to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers and to administer oaths to witnesses appearing and testifying before him in the manner and subject to the penalties provided in the Administrative Code

(e) If the petition filed with the Superintendent of Public Instruction is in conformity with law and no hearing is requested by the district superintendent or if after hearing the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall sustain the petition filed he shall proclaim an election for district superintendent to be held on the date specified in this act and notify the board of school directors accordingly But if he finds that the petition was not in conformity with law or that the evidence submitted does not sustain the allegations in the petition he shall dismiss the same and shall notify the board of school directors that no election is to be held

(f) If the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall not proclaim the election of a district superintendent in a school district and the superintendent shall continue in office for another term of four years as provided in this section then his annual salary shall remain at the amount last fixed unless the board of school directors shall thereafter increase or reduce such salary by resolution adopted at any regular meeting of the board But no such deduction in salary shall be voted unless the school directors shall deem the same necessary for the purposes of economy and shall express such reason in the resolution reducing the salary nor shall such reduction be effective unless and until the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall first have approved the same

(g) Any assistant district superintendent appointed in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-two shall continue in office for a term of four years and thereafter for successive terms of four years unless his service shall be terminated at the end of a four-year term for the same cause or causes specified and in the same manner and subject to the same procedure as provided in this section in respect to district superintendents A new assistant district superintendent shall be elected to hold office for successive terms of four years each subject to termination of service at the end of a term as herein provided in the case of district superintendents The annual salary of any assistant district superintendent so continued in office may be increased or reduced in the same manner and for the same reason and subject to the same conditions provided in this section in respect to district superintendents

(h) The term of office or commission of a district superintendent or assistant district superintendent shall not be shortened by reason of the fact that the district in which he serves shall because of loss of population enter a class of districts for which there is no provision for a district superintendent or assistant district superintendent and such superintendent or assistant superintendent shall continue to serve such district for the term of his office or commission

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection House Bill No. 1437, Printer's No. 619 was passed over at the request of Mr. WATKINS.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 785, entitled:

An Act to amend sections three hundred one and four hundred one of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1053) known and cited as the "Public Utility Law" by further limiting the control and regulation of the Commission in respect to rates service and extensions by municipal corporations

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Stockham permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STOCKHAM. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker. I should like to inquire of the gentleman whether if this bill were passed it would not entirely vitiate whatever regulation the Public Utility Commission might have over a municipally owned utility serving communities outside the limitations of that municipality.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, I believe it would. I think the Utility Commission has no jurisdiction over a municipally owned utility within its corporate bounds. Wherever it extends beyond, it then gives it the same position as within their corporate bounds.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire of the gentleman what body would regulate the rates charged by a municipally owned utility serving communities outside the limitations of that municipality.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, the regulations would be the same as those within the municipality.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that there would be no supervision of the utility?

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, I believe the position of the utility would continue exactly the same without as within, as under the present law.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I understand that under the present existing law, within the boundaries of the municipality, there is no regulation of a municipally owned utility.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, where they have municipal authority it is regulated in that fashion.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Then, Mr. Speaker, I understand that the only regulation of a utility would come from the people within the municipality, is that correct.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman please repeat that question?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, as I understand from the gentleman's answer the only regulation of a municipally owned utility would come from the municipal authority if this bill were passed.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker, that is correct, unless there were competition.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, what this bill does is to say to the municipally owned utility that is serving a community outside that municipality that there is no regulation of that municipally owned utility relative to rates where they are not in competition with another utility. As I understand a municipally owned utility would be under no supervision whatsoever.

We might have a situation where a community owned an electric light and power plant serving a community outside the municipal boundaries, with the result that that particular utility then would be under no supervision whatsoever as to rates. The chances are that they can institute prohibitive rates for the extension of their lines to such an extent that there would be no extension. On the other hand, they could impose such regulatory measures that the people outside the municipality would not be able to avail themselves of that particular utility's service. I see no reason why this bill should pass. I can see ample reason why within its own municipal limitations the utility should not be supervised by the Public Utility Commission, because within their own borders and within their own municipal limitations, the voters have an opportunity to express by their votes their desires as to the method in which the utility should be regulated. However, where a municipally owned utility assumes the obligation of serving a community outside its own borders, there must then be some regulatory body that will indicate to the utility, and will act in a quasi-judicial capacity in determining whether or not the rates and other activities of the utility are proper. If this particular municipally owned utility has assumed the obligation of going into a community, where by the very wording of this act, there is no other municipal service available in that particular community, then I say there should be some regulatory body that would act in the capacity of a judge in determining what is correct under the circumstances. I feel that to pass this bill is to expose any number of people of the Commonwealth to a situation where they have neither a voice in the municipality to determine how their municipally owned utility should be operated, nor do they have an agency that in any way will restrict the act of that particular utility. Under those circumstances, I think that this is a bad bill.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe no municipality can discriminate, and that where there is competition, they can be regulated, and where there is none the conditions that exist within the municipality would work no hardship on those outside. The intent and purpose of this bill is to avoid the necessity of the additional reports that are required, that are not always required in the operation of a municipally owned plant. For that reason I believe this bill to be good and ask the membership of the House to vote for it.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1005, as follows:

An Act to authorize and direct the Attorney General to take such steps as are in his opinion necessary to oppose increases and to secure reductions in the freight rates and transportation charges on anthracite coal produced in Pennsylvania from such places of production to such markets as are now or were heretofore served with anthracite coal from Pennsylvania or which may appear to be logical future markets for said coal and making an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary from the general fund to the Attorney General for such purpose and authorizing the expenditure of said money over a period of two years and directing the Public Utility Commission or any other departments branches commissions agents or officers of this Commonwealth to aid and assist the Attorney General in such ways as the Governor or the Attorney General may request in furthering such efforts

Whereas the anthracite coal resources and industry of the Commonwealth are being damaged by reason of the high cost of transporting said anthracite coal to its past and present markets in comparison with other competing fuels tranported equal or greater distance to said markets

And Whereas the crippling of this vital Pennsylvania industry by such high transportation cost has not only injured those actively engaged in the anthracite coal industry but also by reason of the widespread unemployment in said anthracite coal industry and on the railroads of Pennsylvania which formerly transported much larger tonnages of said anthracite coal has caused tremendous burden of relief cost and taxes for public assistance upon the rest of the people of this Commonwealth making the problem one of important general public interest to the solution of which the Commonwealth should exert all its reasonable resources now therefore

Section 1 The Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is hereby authorized and directed to take such steps as are necessary to resist increases and to secure reductions in freight or transportation charges on Pennsylvania produced anthracite coal from points in Pennsylvania where produced to such points or such areas as may be selected by him as being now or having been heretofore to a large extent served by Pennsylvania produced anthracite coal

And for this purpose the Attorney General is hereby authorized and directed to open new proceedings or in his discretion to intervene on behalf of the Commonwealth or on behalf of the anthracite coal producing industry or the anthracite coal producing people or any or all of them in any other proceeding conducted by private persons or by Governmental officials bureaus departments or agencies to secure such reductions or prevent such increases

Section 2 The authority of the Attorney General is hereby declared to be superior in any such endeavor suit or proceeding to that of any other department official agency or bureau of this Commonwealth except the Governor or the Legislature and he is hereby designated as the official to have supreme charge of any such suit litigation investigation or proceeding unless he shall by document in writing under his hand and seal authorize such supreme charge to be in some other official or department of the Commonwealth

Section 3 The Attorney General shall have power to fully pursue the purposes set forth in this Act and by himself or his deputies to authorize incur and pay the expense of procuring necessary evidence expert witnesses statistics and testimony hiring special counsel of his own selection paying the expenses of his own deputies agents employees and witnesses in any and all such proceedings and to use any or all of said money hereby appropriated for the purpose hereinbefore set forth at such rates as he may deem advisable during the balance of the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine and during the whole or any part of the calendar year next ensuing

Section 4 The Attorney General may in his discretion contribute money furnish counsel or furnish evidence to other persons or corporations or counsel conducting proceedings suits or actions for the purposes hereinbefore set forth and for this purpose the sum of fifty thousand dollars or so much thereof as he may find necessary is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Attorney General for the purposes hereinbefore set forth

Section 5 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 6 This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Anthracite Coal Reconstruction Transportation Appropriation Act"

Section 7 The sum of fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Attorney General to use so much thereof as is necessary for the purposes of this Act

Section 8 This Act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, House Bill No. 1005, and the next one, House Bill No. 1007, are both bills appropriating fifty thousand dollars to the Attorney General's office to prosecute certain claims on the position of the Public Utility Commission before the Interstate Commerce Commission, on appeal to the United States Court. I hope that the proponents of the rate decrease for Pennsylvania anthracite and bituminous coal are successful. However, it seems that all competent legal authority up to the present time has indicated that there is little hope of maintaining the position of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in this particular litigation. I understand that the past, as well as the present chief counsel for the Pennsylvania Utility Commission, have both indicated that the chances of success in this particular litigation are very, very slim. I personally think it is a waste of one hundred thousand dollars in order to prosecute these claims, or prosecute our position, particularly in view of the fact that this matter has been previously analyzed by competent counsel, men who have the testimony and know on what the decision of the Interstate Commission was based.

I feel, however, that these moneys should be allocated because not to do so might lead one to believe that this side of the House is not willing to protect the interests of our anthracite and bituminous fields, as well as the interests of the many men and women that are engaged in that industry. However, if these moneys are going to be utilized by the present administration in an attempt to obtain publicity in that they are attempting to promote their own political desires thereby, I would definitely vote against these bills, but giving the administration the benefit of the doubt for the time being, although I do not think they are entitled to it, I would suggest that the membership vote for these bills, poor as they are.

On the question recurring,

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1337, entitled:

An Act limiting the number of licenses for the retail sale of liquor malt or brewed beverages or malt and brewed beverages to be issued by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board defining hotels and prescribing the accommodations required of hotels in certain municipalities

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with the indulgence of the Chair and the members of the House I would like to make my remarks on both House Bills 925 and 1125.

The SPEAKER. If there be no objection, the gentleman may discuss both House Bills. The Chair hears no objection.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the last week the members of the minority party attempted to explain to the majority party just what these bills attempted to do and what they will do if they are enacted into law.

As the present liquor law is today, both the Democratic and Republican parties have attempted to keep politics out of the liquor traffic. House Bill 925 and House Bill 1125 would do just the opposite of what both parties have attempted to do in the past four years. These bills ultimately will place the liquor traffic in the hands of politicians. At the same time, these very bills defeat one of the promises made by the new Governor of Pennsylvania, wherein he stated he would not place any additional burdens on the small business man and that burden in this case is this, members of the House, that in these several bills you are increasing the cost of the license fees; you are placing additional burdens on those persons who are licensed to do business. At the same time, you are depriving the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board of the power that it has today, in attempting to place some of the power that they now have in the hands of politicians. Bear in mind that the liquor traffic in Pennsylvania is one of the biggest revenue producers the state has today. Through it thousands and thousands of people have been given employment. If my memory serves me correctly, these very bills seem to me to carry on the program of the Anti-Saloon League, and it seems to me that the so-called Anti-Saloon League has again come into power in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and is controlling the same group that has seen fit to draft these bills.

I would like to ask the members of the House of Representatives, those members who have drafted these bills, just whom they called upon for advice, what kind of people you called upon, what members of the minority party were called upon? And then I want to call to your attention the tactics that were resorted to in order to have these bills passed. I say to you members of the House that you are tearing asunder the efforts of both the Democrats and the Republicans in trying to have a liquor law that has met with hearty approval throughout the United States of America, and trying to substitute for it that which would not only bring disgrace upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, but will deprive licensees of something which they have today. I feel it is unfair to impose the restrictions you are attempting to impose upon the retail licensees, the hotels, the restaurants, and especially upon the clubs, where you have seen fit to increase their license fees at least one hundred per cent. Bear in mind, members of the House, that clubs in Pennsylvania especially, this being a state of fraternalism, are not being operated for profit and they do not come in the same category as retail licensees, whose business is purely pecuniary. I say to the members of this House if you want to allow the Anti-Saloon League, the so-called reactionary organizations that are now coming back into Pennsylvania, to control the leadership of the Commonwealth, then pass these bills, and you will have the Anti-Saloon League becoming the boss, not only of the Republican Party, but of the people of Pennsylvania.

I ask everybody in this House to vote your consciences, forget your political affiliations for once, forget that you are Republicans, forget that you are Democrats and try to vote your consciences. If you do so, I know these bills will go down in defeat.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, last week I voiced my objections against these bills and divided my objections under three different headings. First, as to the cost of these additional boards; secondly, as to the increase in the liquor license fees, and third, as to the right of appeal. My words, of course, fell on stony ground. However, I might say to those who are in favor of this bill, from reliable figures, we will have to bill the people who indulge in liquor drinking, to put in this expensive piece of machinery, the sum of $520,920 per year. That doesn't include office equipment, such as stationery and other matters that pertain to office expense, it only has to do with salaries of the full time members, which according to the bill would be set at $199,800. If that $199,800 were spent for enforcement, no one I imagine in the Commonwealth would have any objection, but why $199,800 of anybody's money should be spent to set up these political boards is beyond my comprehension. I have figured out the salary of the per diem members, just allowing them fifty days per year, at a cost of ninety-six thousand dollars. That is on the basis of serving fifty days per year, not on the basis of one hundred and fifty days which perhaps they will serve, because it is inconceivable that they are going to appoint the per diem members and then just let them serve for a limited period of time. If that were true, we would not have any efficiency. These men will sit in a quasi judicial capacity and unless they have experience and that experience is gained in the days during which they sit, they can't accomplish very much. However, if the per diem members sit fifty days per year, it will cost the tax payers ninety-six thousand dollars. Another item to be considered is the traveling expenses of the district board, which as you know will be comprised of three members, who will be entitled to reasonable expenses, which will amount to thirty thousand dollars a year. Then you have the rental of sixty-four offices, they must have offices, which would amount to six thousand dollars. Other items will make up the total of $520,920 for as follows:

Office Clerks—(1 in each office)	$88,320
30 Hearing Stenographers	55,800
Traveling Expenses for Hearing Stenographers	10,000
Traveling Expenses for District Board Members	30,000

Now, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if you feel that these bills will give us maximum enforcement for the minimum sum of $520,920, then pass them. It does seem to me however that the estimated additional income from the licenses as now constituted will be diminished because of the refusal of licenses during this year. This $520,920 will not come from the additional fund, but will come from the fund that should be utilized by the Liquor Control Board for other purposes. I recognize that there is a twenty per cent increase in both House Bill 925 and House Bill 1125. That additional increase will offset the minimum cost of putting into operation these two bills. However, as I said before, those who feel that the liquor business justifies this expenditure, vote for it.

I would like to call attention briefly to the provision providing for a five hundred dollar bond. I haven't seen anybody that could justify that provision and I doubt if there is any member of this House who can justify closing the courts to a person who wants justice, or penalizing a person who comes to a court for justice, who forfeits five hundred dollars if he loses his case. That is nothing more than a threat; a threat to keep people out of business. I say to you that our eighty million dollar liquor business that has been an example for other states throughout the country is in serious jeopardy because of these bills.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Messrs. Baker, Burns and Williams asked for a vertification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 1125 apparently is, if not the most, one of the most important pieces of legislation in the unbroken chain of broken promises of the Republican organization.

The Republican party during the campaign of 1938, promised the elimination of politics from relief and liquor. We see only too well what the organization meant when it said they were going to keep politics out of relief. The answer to that promise was the Van Allsburg bill. The promise as to liquor is the present bill before the House.

I wonder what the Republican organization has against the present control of liquor in the hands of the state. I wonder why the Republican organization insists that the domination and control of liquor be now handed down to county boards. From interrogation on this bill on second reading, the only answer I could get from the Republican side of the House was that this is a brazen attempt to place liquor into the hands of the judges and into the hands of Republican politicians. I challenge any member on the Republican side of the House to point one finger of accusation at the present personnel which comprises the State Liquor Control Board.

For the benefit of those Republicans who know not, the Liquor Control Board at the present time is comprised in the main of a majority of Republican members. Only recently the Governor of the Commonwealth appointed a third member to the Board to replace one whose term had expired, and if I remember correctly the Republican press was very conspicuous with its praise of this great personage from Carlisle, Pennsylvania. I wonder, by the provision as to county boards in House Bill No. 1125, if the Republican members of the Legislature do not agree with the Governor in the integrity, honesty and high standing of the new member of the board who is a Republican. I might point out to the Republican membership of this House that during the administration of Governor Earle, a Republican sat on the Liquor Control Board and he was retained because the former Governor of the Commonwealth wanted to keep liquor out of politics.

Now, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Republican membership may pass this bill this evening but I say to them that they are passing it with an ulterior purpose in mind. I charged on the second reading of this measure that the bill was written in the main by the Anti-Saloon League of Pennsylvania and I remember very distinctly that a Republican member rose to his feet and explained to the House that the Secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of Pennsylvania was in perfect accord with House Bill No. 1125. Then I ask the Republican membership of this House where is their basis for claiming this bill is sponsored for stricter enforcement of liquor control. There is no provision in the bill that provides for an additional staff of enforcement officers. There is nothing in the bill which would compel the present operators of tap rooms and clubs in the city of Philadelphia or any other city in the Commonwealth to operate more stringently. The only basis for this bill is to give to the Anti-Saloon League another issue to preach prohibition and every member on the Republican side of the House knows it, because the moment you give control of an eighty million dollar business into the hands of common politicians, you are going to have prohibition. Let not the Republican organization feel that they are kidding the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by boosting license fees relative to the issuance of these licenses. You well know that the elimination of certain licenses in the Commonwealth will bring down the amount of revenue to be collected yearly by the proportionate increase in the fees, and I tell you, members on the Republican side, that you are not going to enforce House Bill No. 1125, because you are not going to have the amount of money which it takes to enforce it.

There is a provision in the bill which provides for the filing of a bond. I asked the gentleman from Delaware, the sponsor of this bill, when the bill was on the floor of the House on second reading, why he had included this provision and his answer was very, very weak. He said that the provision of a bond was necessary to penalize those licensees who had been rejected and who were permitted to remain open pending an appeal. He stated very clearly on this floor that afternoon that it takes between eight, ten, and twelve months to get an appeal through the courts in liquor matters. I asked the gentleman from Delaware at that time to cite one specific incidence and he couldn't do it. I tell you this bond provision in the liquor act is a very vicious one. There is only one purpose behind it and that is to run every small licensee out of the state of Pennsylvania.

Taking everything into consideration, members of the House, this bill is not fit for passage and I urge you, if you have the welfare of your party at heart, to vote down this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Messrs. Weiss, Check and Broad asked for a vertification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. JOHNSTON filed the following reasons for his vote:

I have supported House Bills 1337, 925, and 1125, not because I am in full sympathy with all that they contain, nor because they contain all that I desire, but for the following reasons:

First, because the Republican Party in its platform promised such advancement in liquor control and regulation as might be possible. These bills, I believe, are a step forward.

Second, because I have full confidence in the character and integrity of the House Committee on liquor control, which committee has declared that these bills are the best that it is possible to obtain at this particular time.

Third, because I have learned, by consultation with Dr. McBride, Secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, that he and his organization are satisfied with these bills, and believe them to be a step in the right direction.

Personally I believe that intoxicating liquors should not be sold on the day commonly called Sunday, either in licensed places on the street, or in clubs, as I have already said upon the floor of this House.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair is about to declare a recess until 10:30 p. m. Is there objection? The Chair hears none and declares a recess until 10:30 p. m.

The House reconvened at 10:30 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Ellwood J. Turner) in the Chair.

SENATE MESSAGES

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 256.

An Act to amend clause four of subsection (b) of section nine hundred thirteen of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" by changing the filing fee for certain nomination petitions

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives, is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend the title, page 1, line 1, by striking out the word "clause" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "subsections (b) and (c) of section four hundred twelve clauses three and;" also line 2 of the title, by inserting after the word "thirteen" the words "and section one thousand two hundred seven."

Amend bill, page 1, by inserting after the enactment clause the following new section:

"Section 1 Subsections (b) and (c) of section four hundred twelve of the act approved the third day of June one thouand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" are hereby amended to read as follows

(b) In counties of the third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes the [minimum] compensation of judges inspectors clerks and machine inspectors [shall be five ($5.00) dollars] for each primary and election [In any election district in such counties in which more than one hundred votes are cast at any primary or election they shall each receive additional compensation at the rate of one ($1.00) dollar for each one hundred votes or fraction thereof cast after the first one hundred votes the maximum compensation in such districts however being ten ($10.00) dollars] shall be fixed by the commissioners of such counties which compensation may be based on flat sum for each election or primary or on the basis of work actually done by such judges clerks and inspectors

(c) For transmitting returns of primaries and elections and the ballot box or boxes all judges of election shall be entitled to receive the additional sum of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) and three cents ($.03) per mile for mileage as full compensation for said services;"

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1420, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred twenty-one) entitled as amended "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death defining and taxing transfers made in contemplation of death defining as a transfer and taxing the right of survivorship in property as to which such right exists and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid and providing penalties and citing certain acts for repeal" by further defining the commissions of registers of wills regulating the opening of safety deposit boxes of a decedent permitting supplemental appraisements in certain cases further defining allowable deductions and limiting the time within which claims for deductions may be filed and conforming the act to existing law

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I am fearful that the amendment inserted in the bill on page 8 will reinstitute the payment of commissions to registers of wills beyond the amount set forth in the act of 1937 and I desire, therefore, to interrogate the sponsor of this measure: the sponsor yielding to the gentleman from Dauphin to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire of the gentleman from Dauphin just what is the import of the amendment on page 8, line 15, and the deletions that appear on line 14.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the provisions of this act have, to an extent, the effect that the gentleman from York has already stated. A register of wills will receive a commission which in some instances will increase the amount that he receives at the present time, that is, only in those cases in which the maximum has already been received. The idea is this, that there are a certain number of old acts under which a transfer inheritance is still collected after the termination of the life estate. Under the provisions of the law as it exists today, a register of wills actually receives no commission for the collection of this tax. It has been the experience of the Department of Revenue and they feel that a register of wills not receiving any commission from the collection of this tax, does not have the interest in it he would have were he to receive a commission for the collection of this tax, and that the granting of this commission will increase the interest of the register of wills in collecting this tax and encourage them to collect a greater amount of tax. It is a particular type of tax that has to be followed very closely, as it is a tax collectable after the termination of a life estate, and it is in many instances much harder to collect and much harder to follow than the collection of the original tax on the estate of a decedent who has just died. For that reason this provision has been put back so that the register of wills will receive a commission allowed by law for the collection of the tax from estates which are still taxed under the old transfer inheritance tax laws.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I have finished interrogating the gentleman from Dauphin. I would ask, under the circumstances, that this bill be passed over until I can determine to my own satisfaction that we are not placing the registers of wills in a position whereby he can hop on the so-called "gravy train" in the future, as he has in the past.

There has been a tremendous amount of bad legislation existent that was corrected by the act of 1937. The register of wills by that act is limited to collections of fees approximating ten thousand dollars. Previously there had been circumstances and situations in which the register of wills collected as high as thirty thousand, forty thousand and fifty thousand dollars a year. I don't feel after we elect a man to head the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at a salary of eighteen thousand dollars or our justices of the Supreme and Superior Courts at a salary also approximating eighteen thousand dollars that we should allow to exist in our body politic a situation whereby a register of wills has legislation that will enable him to collect a salary far in excess of that paid to men occupying positions of such importance.

Under the circumstances I would ask the consideration of the majority floor leader to have both this bill and the next bill passed over until we have a definite determination of just how much additional money this amendment on page 8 will enable a register of wills to receive.

BILL PASSED OVER

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel confident that the gentleman from York is mistaken in assuming that this bill will permit the law to return to the status in which it was prior to the act which limited the amount the register of wills received for the collection of transfer inheritance taxes. However, in order to permit the gentleman to investigate and satisfy himself, I have no objection to this bill going over in order.

The SPEAKER. It has been agreed between the two floor leaders that this bill shall be passed over. The Chair hears no objection and the bill will be passed over.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1418, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws two thousand sixty-three) entitled "An act providing for the payment into the State Treasury without escheat of certain moneys and property subject to escheat under existing law namely unclaimed dividends and profits certain debts and interest on certain debts proceeds of policies of insurance stock and customers deposits held by certain limited partnerships and unincorporated associations joint-stock associations companies and corporations doing business under the law of this Commonwealth declaring the legislative intent with respect to such payments requiring reports of such money and property by and imposing other duties upon such partnerships associations and corporations conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers boards and departments providing for jurisdiction of courts and for proceedings for the recovery of such moneys and property by the Attorney General at the suggestion of the Department of Revenue providing for refunds of such moneys and property and prescribing penalties" by further declaring the legislative intent and making further provisions for refunds

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1252, entitled:

An Act making appropriations for aid to free public non-sectarian county libraries and for the purchase and transportation of books

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. FISHER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend sec. 1, page 1, line 1, by striking out the words "twenty-eight" and insert in lieu thereof "forty"

Amend sec. 1, page 1, line 2, by striking out the figures "($28,000)" and insert in lieu thereof "($40,000)"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 258, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Elwyn Training School at Elwyn in the County of Delaware Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and prescribing certain conditions upon which the appropriation will be available to the school

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection House Bill No. 1368, Printer's No. 689, was passed over at the request of Mr. CHRISTLER.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 977, entitled:

An Act relative to the printing for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to establish the requirements of responsible bidders to prescribe penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Goll, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JAMES. Mr. Speaker, in agreement with Mr. Goll, I will gladly answer the gentleman's questions.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman why on page 1 of the bill the lines, "and shall bear the label of the branch of the Allied Printing Trades Council of the locality," is stricken out of the bill?

Mr. JAMES. Mr. Speaker, it was believed and those interested in the bill agreed that reference to any organization, its marks or its name as to standards or qualifications for bidding on state printing was not constitutional.

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker, did the sponsor of this bill agree to that?

Mr. JAMES. Mr. Speaker, the sponsor of this bill gave his agreement to change it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1013, entitled:

An Act to repeal the act approved the fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, (P. L. 1595), entitled, "An act relating to peace officers; providing for the qualifications and appointments of deputy sheriffs; regulating the manner of their selection and compensation; regulating the source of compensation for other peace officers; declaring void certain contracts inconsistent with the provisions hereof; providing penalties; and repealing inconsistent acts."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. LEE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. ALSPACH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia Mr. LEE vote on the third reading of this bill?

Mr. LEE. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. ALSPACH vote on the third reading of this bill?

Mr. ALSPACH. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. LEE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for the purpose of amendment.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. THISTLE.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1038, entitled:

An Act to regulate the practice of chiropody in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Chiropody Examiners in the Department of Public Instruction; to define the duties and powers of said board; to provide for examining and registering of chiropodists in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on May 4th this bill was defeated in this House. Last Thursday the bill was called back and placed upon the calendar. The same arguments that were advanced against this bill on Thursday, May 4, are still the arguments to be advanced tonight.

At the present time, chiropodists come under the medical board. They are permitted to practice and have gone along very ethically and have a splendid profession. This bill provides for a separate board. Not only does it provide for a separate board but they pick men on this board from their profession none of whom are permitted to be men who are teachers in any of the institutions over the state teaching chiropody. Along with that, they are permitted under this bill to make diagnoses. You and I know that the foot is a part of the body, there are no different conditions in the foot than in any other part of the body. An individual who is practicing medicine making diagnoses, an individual who practices chiropody, must know the general system. He must know the basic sciences, he must know all that is necessary in pathology, all the basic sciences of embriology, histology, and all the other courses which a medical man is compelled to take. In this particular bill they say chiropodists are to make diagnoses. How can a man who has taken chiropody only, attempt to make diagnoses of conditions which may originate elsewhere in the body?

Another feature of this bill is the examination. In the examination by this board of an individual who wishes to obtain this license it states specifically that the individual is only to study the lower extremeties. If a person just studies the lower extremeties, as I have before stated, he does not know the entire body. A person with diabetes can have an ulceration of his foot, a person with arterio sclerosis can have some deformity manifesting itself in the foot.

I could go on and talk longer on this bill. It has been defeated once and I ask the membership to vote down this bill.

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the intent and purpose of House Bill 1038 is to regulate the practice of chiropody and to establish a State Board of Chiropody.

At present they are licensed in the Department of Public Instruction by the State Board of Medical Education. We are presenting this bill with the sole thought of advancing the healing arts in general and protecting the public at large. We are not asking in this bill for any enlargement in the scope of work nor to extend the field or infringe on medicine in any way.

I ask the House to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. THISTLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill No. 1038 provides for the definition of the practice of chiropody. At the present time there is no legislation of any kind defining the practice of chiropody in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; merely a ruling by the State Board of Medical Education and Licensure. This ruling has no standing in the courts of our Commonwealth; to wit the case of Joseph Sample of Philadelphia, arrested on February 13, 1935 for practicing chiropody without a license. He was held for court in the amount of three hundred dollars bail. At the time of trial, November 1935, before Judge George Gowan Parry, the case was dismissed. Judge Parry said that his duty was to interpret acts of legislature not rulings of any board——in other words there was no law regulating the practice of Chiropody in our Commonwealth.

The definition as provided in H. R. Bill No. 1038 is the same as is taught in the School of Chiropody of Temple University. This is the only institution which teaches chiropody in Pennsylvania.

The educational requirements of this bill are four years of training in an accepted School of Chiropody and follows the Class A requirements as outlined by the Council of Education of the National Association of Chiropodists.

Two of our former attorney generals of the State of Pennsylvania have advised that chiropody should be governed by legislative enactment. The Division of Law Enforcement of the Department of Public Instruction has done everything in its power to prosecute illegal practitioners but has failed because of the lack of a chiropody law.

Forty-five of the forty-eight states have provided for chiropody legislation. Bill No. 1038 should receive your support because its passage will make it possible for the people of Pennsylvania to distinguish between the licensed practitioner and the quack. Your favorable action on this bill will insure the foot health of our Commonwealth.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Thistle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THISTLE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Thistle, whether it is not possible for a man to practice chiropody in the State of Pennsylvania today?

Mr. THISTLE. Mr. Speaker, it is possible; it is practiced every day.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, what is the difference between this act as proposed and the act under which they are now permitted to practice?

Mr. THISTLE. Mr. Speaker, it is a ruling under which they are permitted to practice at the present time and we wish to make it an act of the legislature, a law or licensing act by which they can properly operate.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that a separate board is created by this act?

Mr. THISTLE. Mr. Speaker, that is true; a self-sustaining board, however.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, is there any provision under this act for increased enforcement?

Mr. THISTLE. Mr. Speaker, the ruling under which chiropodists work now cannot be enforced; however, under this act, the "quack" can be removed from business and can be removed from the profession.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, what is there in this act that would assist in eliminating the "quack" chiropodist as you call him?

Mr. THISTLE. Well, Mr. Speaker, the malpractice of chiropody.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker, what does the gentleman consider the malpractice of chiropody?

Mr. THISTLE. Mr. Speaker, if it is not done by the proper party licensed by the State of Pennsylvania under this act.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the hour is late and I do not care to go deeply into this problem.

This bill is similar to bills we have had before us in two previous sessions. The statement was made by Mr. Thistle that this bill is for the good of the people of Pennsylvania, it would create a board and, by so doing, would protect the people of the state of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of this House, I submit to you that this type of legislation is fallacious. We feel that chiropody covers an important field but we feel that they are adequately cared for and provided for under the present law so that the right type of people can do the work which you know they ordinarily do. If a law such as this is enacted, it will give these people the right and privilege to do surgery. It is not that the medical profession objects to that from a selfish standpoint, but I submit to you, members of the House, that it is in the interest of the great mass of people in the state of Pennsylvania. You cannot grab any part of the body out of the air and adequately practice any specialty, and I submit to you that if this law were enacted it would be a very unfortunate thing inasmuch as it would permit these people to do surgery the same as those who have taken a long medical course and have prepared themselves for surgery.

As was indicated by Dr. Sarraf tonight, the diagnoses of these conditions are the most important that we have to consider, and I submit to you that the people who do this work are not qualified to do it inasmuch as, we will say for instance, a chiropodist is called to treat some type of a sore on one of the toes, and he treats it for some time. It proves to be a cancer and after some time has elapsed, when the individual finally goes to a regular surgeon, that individual is doomed simply because it is a malignant condition, there has developed what we call metascisis and it has gone to some vital portion of the body and that patient is doomed to die. That is the reason, ladies and gentlemen, we feel that chiropodists have their own field, but we do feel in the interests of the great mass of people in the state of Pennsylvania that it would be most unfortunate to grant these people the right to do all sorts of surgery on the foot and treat the foot the same as a man who has been prepared in medicine and in surgery. I firmly believe that this is one of the measures that is not a political measure and I feel that the members of this House in justice to the people in this state should vote against this bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just rise to call to the attention of the dear doctors that this bill says that chiropody shall not include the right to perform any operation on the bones, ligaments, muscles and tendons of the foot involving the use of any cutting instrument, and when they rise and tell you that this particular bill opens the way for the unlimited practice of surgery I think they are drawing more upon their imaginations than they are upon their knowledge of the bill.

Personally I don't give a hang whether this bill goes through or doesn't go through, but I do think the dear doctors, in addressing the House, should keep to the letter of the bill in their discussion.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my good friend Mr. Andrews does not pass up any opportunity to berate the medical profession. He has appeared on numerous occasions and did all in his power and in some cases has as much as indicated that the medical profession of the state of Pennsylvania is illiterate. I submit to the members of the House that we cannot all be newspaper men, we cannot know all about all things, and I submit to the House in reply to what the gentleman has stated, that I do feel that Mr. Andrews fails to comprehend that this bill is dangerous. It is impossible for a chiropodist to treat the foot intelligently, any part of the foot, whether he uses a knife or whether he doesn't without having a knowledge of the human body. I do not wish you to take my word for it, but consult any member of the medical profession, not a newspaper man, because that is true regarding diagnoses. It might well be that a chiropodist is treating a foot which has been rendered pathological from diabetes, it might be from cancer, it might be from syphillis, it might be from various constitutional diseases.

I submit I do feel that this type of legislation is fallacious and it does increase the power of these people, and I still feel this bill should be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to ask the members who do not have transportation arranged for Wednesday to the Blue Ridge Country Club to advise Mr. Roan of the Chief Clerk's office not later than the time the session convenes tomorrow.

Those who want to go into the quoit tournament, there must be pairs, will notify Mr. Bardes by noon tomorrow, so that he may know how many wish to participate.

Those who intend to play golf please notify Mr. Gates tonight so that the club can arrange for the necessary caddies.

The Chair further desires to say with reference to Wednesday's outing that the tickets for most of the members were distributed this evening. There are, however, some members who did not receive tickets, and those tickets will be placed in the member's boxes.

The House employes and officers will secure their tickets at the Chief Clerk's office. The gentlemen of the press will receive theirs through the Secretary of their association.

The announcement in reference to the World's Fair trip on Friday is in the boxes of the members. It is important that you notify, as set forth in the notice, the different officers and Chief Clerk with reference to transportation so that necessary arrangements can be made.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal

Session 1939. 133d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 23. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 16, 1939. No. 56.

SENATE

TUESDAY, May 16, 1939.

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock p. m., E. S. T.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. BURLEIGH A. PETERS, offered the following prayer:

O Thou Gracious Father of lights, from whom every good and every perfect gift proceeds, in whom is no variableness neither shadow made by turning, we recognize Thee as the Changeless One in the midst of a changing world.

The old order passeth away and a new one takes its place. New problems confront us colored by human needs and new opportunities arise for a deeper consecrated service.

In the last decade we have lived differently than in any other. Gigantic changes in living, thinking and endeavor have marked our beleaguered way. Economic dislocation, moral upheaval and spiritual lethargy have caused crises to arise ably to cope with which have left us almost prostrate. We scarcely knew what to do or whither to turn, all the while depending upon our own wisdom and intellectual strength.

But, O God, Thou hast known both the cause of and remedy for every depression and so-called recession in the world's history. The Gibraltar of spiritual strength has not been pushed into the sea but stands just as immutably strong and impregnable as it has always been.

Thou surely must laugh in the heavens as Thou sees us hurrying here and there searching for solution of our vexing problems, when Thou said: "Come unto me ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." And again—"Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

O, God, thou knowest "the way out." Give us who legislate here the humility of spirit to ask for "it" in faith believing, nothing doubting. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. OWLETT and Mr. MALLERY, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communication:

OPPOSING LIBERALIZATION OF THE SABBATH DAY

Communication from the Pennsylvania Conference of the Primitive Methodist Church, protesting against any legislation that stands for liberalization of the Sabbath Day.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, "There is no distress greater than a mother's over her son's misfortunes. And how much greater is that distress when the mother realizes that these misfortunes are not due to her son's shortcomings or her own mistakes, but to forces over which neither of them had control.

"There is hardly a community in the State which does not have rows of vacant buildings, deserted factories, idle mines, as a result of over taxation and red tape. The people of these communities know what has happened to their industries and they know who is to blame.

"Think of the wives of men whose mills and factories moved away; whose places of business are on part time, whose farms are idle because their market is gone. Think of the daughters of fathers who are fully competent to earn a good living, forced to scrimp and to deny themselves because vicious policies of government; because unrestrained greed of political bosses are bringing Pennsylvania's industry to a halt.

"I believe I know the course to set. We need thrift and economy in our State Government; we need to encourage business and thus put idle men back to work by putting idle wheels and idle money back to work; we need to restore personal and political liberty to our people.

"Run the present State Government through the wringer, squeezing out the millions of . . . tax dollars which are being misused for every conceivable corrupt, selfish and wasteful purpose imaginable. Those dollars will be passed back . . . in the form of tax reductions. Once we do this the wheels of industry will start turning in this State again and we can eventually find work for all the idle who want jobs. Let us, of course, have relief, adequate and prompt. But let us insist that relief be divorced from politics. Let us stand 100 per cent for old age assistance, labor's rights and proper utility regulation.

Let us insist that those who have been guilty of indictable crimes in connection with abuse of the State's finances and honor are punished.

"Industry is being driven out of Pennsylvania. Punitive and political taxes are responsible for that. Let's issue a clemency proclamation calling back our industries which have been driven . . . into taxation exile by providing enough tax reductions to permit them to operate at a profit."

Mr. President, no doubt there is a familiar ring to you about some of these statements. They are neither my words nor my ideas. They are the words, and the ideas, employed during many months of last year by a judge who went "AWOL" to tell ten million Pennsylvanians that he would lead them into the Promised Land; reduce taxes, create jobs, bring industry back on the double quick; solve the problem of relief and settle every other perplexing question that pesters the people in these difficult times.

On this date, almost four months after the day on which he took the oath of office with one hand and resigned as a Superior Court Judge with the other, all these words which Judge James spoke in his campaign come back to haunt him.

And now, Mr. President, the Pied Piper of Plymouth pipes no more. The dulcet tones of his tax reduction tune are heard no more. The melody that soothed the wives and daughters of idle workers did not linger on.

It was only the song of Political Lorelei. It lured the sailors and drew the Ship of State off its course. It could not have been sung any better. Nor could the crash be any louder. It reverberates throughout the State.

Lured on toward a Promised Land, we have arrived only at a Land of Promises. GOP still stands for Good Old Promises. And when better promises are made, GOP will make them. And break them.

This would be funny if it were not tragic. The tragedy is that ten million people have been betrayed and deserted. Not a single promise—not a single pledge—has been kept. And the desertion is about to be made permanent by adjournment of the Legislature.

The enactment of the Earle taxes "lock, stock and barrel"; the failure to reduce taxes, the failure to provide adequate relief; the enactment of legislation hampering local governments while at the same time refusing to aid local government by remedial legislation spell incompetence, betrayal and desertion.

To reenact these taxes, good or bad as they may be, is an admission that the Governor did not know what he was talking about in the campaign or doesn't know now what to do.

The tragedy of the situation is that business and industry know and the Governor acknowledges that a special session to levy more and new taxes is inevitable.

If migration of industry was within the realm of political mythology or even economic necessity before the election it will soon be a terrible reality. During the four years of the Earle Administration business and industry knew two years in advance what they were expected to meet in the way of taxes. Now no one knows where the taxes will reach or where they will stop. In view of this the contemplated early adjournment of the Legislature is nothing short of criminal.

It is no less reprehensible to run away from the relief problem. With but 128 million dollars appropriated where 200 million or more will be required; with appointment of politicians to local boards, the outlook for unfortunates in Pennsylvania is a bitter one.

Who can successfully deny that the James Administration is already a dismal failure? And what makes it even worse is that burdensome taxes can be eliminated; relief standards maintained and industry encouraged. It is apparent that the Governor's statement that there will be no "must" legislation in this session really means there will be no legislation.

Unhampered by extravagant campaign promises; surrounded and advised after election by the very business men for whom he expressed such deep concern during that campaign, Governor James could have found a solution of the problem.

But with political ambition nurtured by the same old Grundy-Pew clique of politicians the result can only be to help the special interests of a few and hamper and hurt the general interests of the State.

Mr. President, as we say in this Chamber, "the question recurs"—how can the problem be solved?

Within a few days I will supplement this statement with another showing by facts and figures the answer to that question, making the suggestions which I think will bring about a solution to the problem.

I say in advance that it will require an abandonment of the proposition to adjourn the legislature, and much as I dislike it, I will stay and be glad to lend any assistance I can, as long as may be necessary, to relieve industry from burdensome taxes.

I claim no invention on the ideas which I suggest; I claim no new methods that have not been discussed. I will suggest an easy way to adopt some of the methods which have long ago been agreed to be the methods which can bring us out of the condition in which we find ourselves—by relieving industry of burdensome taxes; and within the next three or four days I shall present the figures, which will take some time to compile.

NOMINATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations.

APPOINTMENT AS MEMBER OF STATE BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 16, 1939.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate James J. Knoud, of Philadelphia, for appointment as a member of the State Board of Public Assistance, to serve until the third Tuesday of January 1940 until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified. Mr. Knoud was recently nominated and confirmed under the name of James J. Know, due to a clerical error, and his commission has, therefore, been revoked, thereby creating a vacancy in the membership of this Board.

ARTHUR H. JAMES

NOTARIES PUBLIC

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, nominations for appointment as Notaries Public which were laid on the table.
